İSTİKLÂL MARŞI

Korkma, sönmez bu şafaklarda yüzen al sancak;
Sönmeden yurdumun üstünde tüten en son ocak.
O benim milletimin yıldızıdır, parlayacak;
O benimdir, o benim milletimindir ancak.

Çatma, kurban olayım, çehreni ey nazlı hilâl!
Kahraman ırkıma bir gül! Ne bu şiddet, bu celâl?
Sana olmaz dökülen kanlarımız sonra helâl.
Hakkıdır Hakk'a tapan milletimin istiklâl.

Ben ezelden beridir hür yaşadım, hür yaşarım.
Hangi çılgın bana zincir vuracakmış? Şaşarım!
Kükremiş sel gibiyim, bendimi çiğner, aşarım.
Yırtarım dağları, enginlere sığmam, taşarım.

Garbın âfâkını sarmışsa çelik zırhlı duvar,
Benim iman dolu göğsüm gibi serhaddim var.
Ulusun, korkma! Nasıl böyle bir imanı boğar,
Medeniyet dediğin tek dişi kalmış canavar?

Arkadaş, yurduma alçakları uğratma sakın;
Siper et gövdeni, dursun bu hayâsızca akın.
Doğacaktır sana va'dettiği günler Hakk'ın;
Kim bilir, belki yarın, belki yarından da yakın.

Bastığın yerleri toprak diyerek geçme, tanı:
Düşün altındaki binlerce kefensiz yatanı.
Sen şehit oğlusun, incitme, yazıktır, atanı:
Verme, dünyaları alsan da bu cennet vatanı.

Kim bu cennet vatanın uğruna olmaz ki feda?
Şüheda fışkıracak toprağı sıksan, şüheda!
Cânı, cânânı, bütün varımı alsın da Huda,
Etmesin tek vatanımdan beni dünyada cüda.

Ruhumun senden İlahî, şudur ancak emeli:
Değmesin mabedimin göğsüne nâmahrem eli.
Bu ezanlar -ki şehadetleri dinin temeli-
Ebedî yurdumun üstünde benim inlemeli.

O zaman vecd ile bin secde eder -varsa- taşım,
Her cerîhamdan İlahî, boşanıp kanlı yaşım,
Fışkırır ruh-ı mücerret gibi yerden na'şım;
O zaman yükselerek arşa değer belki başım.

Dalgalan sen de şafaklar gibi ey şanlı hilâl!
Olsun artık dökülen kanlarımın hepsi helâl.
Ebediyyen sana yok, ırkıma yok izmihlâl;
Hakkıdır hür yaşamış bayrağımın hürriyet;
Hakkıdır Hakk'a tapan milletimin istiklâl!

Mehmet Âkif Ersoy

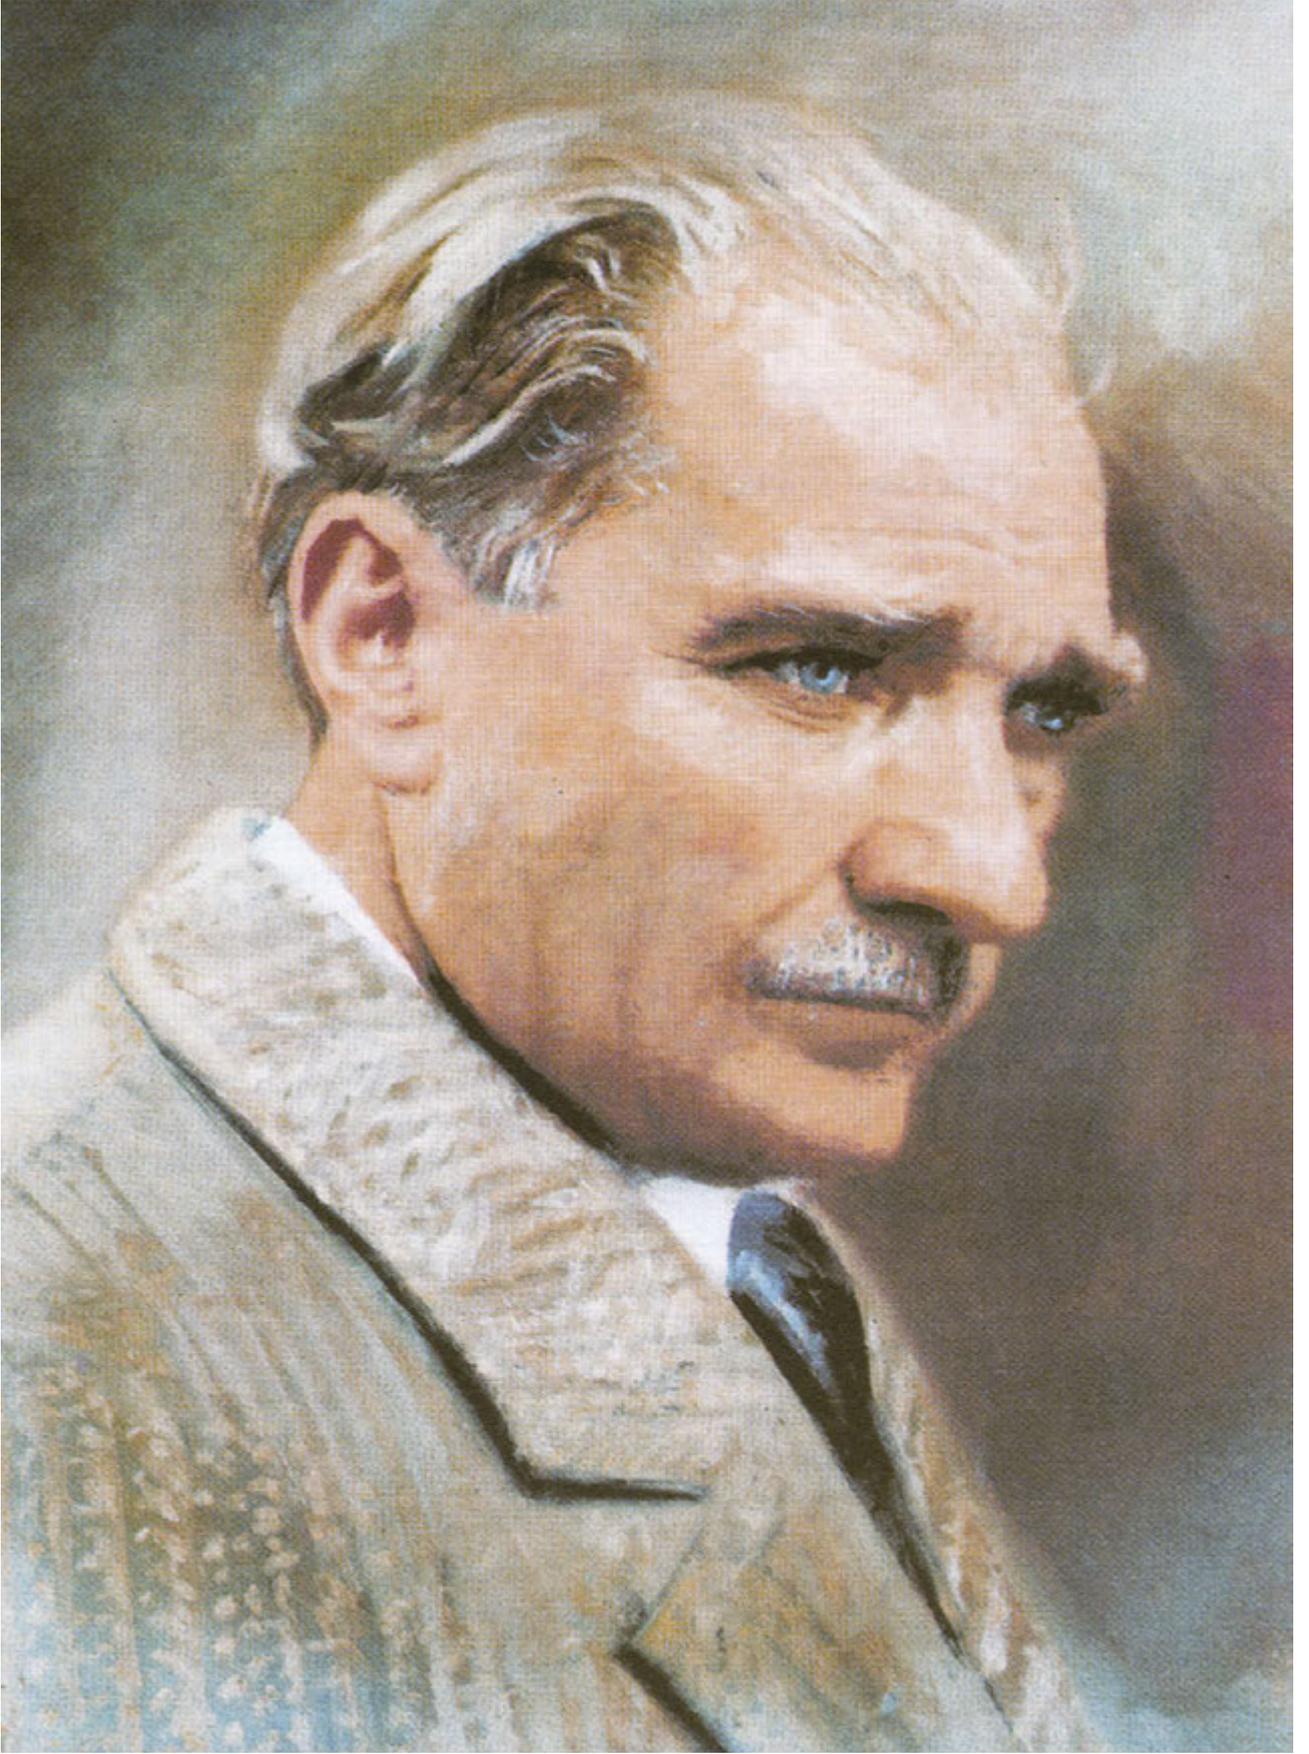

GENÇLİĞE HİTABE

Ey Türk gençliği! Birinci vazifen, Türk istiklâlini, Türk Cumhuriyetini, ilelebet muhafaza ve müdafaa etmektir.

Mevcudiyetinin ve istikbalinin yegâne temeli budur. Bu temel, senin en kıymetli hazinendir. İstikbalde dahi, seni bu hazineden mahrum etmek isteyecek dâhilî ve hâricî bedhahların olacaktır. Bir gün, istiklâl ve cumhuriyeti müdafaa mecburiyetine düşersen, vazifeye atılmak için, içinde bulunacağın vaziyetin imkân ve şeraitini düşünmeyeceksin! Bu imkân ve şerait, çok namüsaît bir mahiyette tezahür edebilir. İstiklâl ve cumhuriyetine kastedecek düşmanlar, bütün dünyada emsali görülmemiş bir galibiyetin mümessili olabilirler. Cebren ve hile ile aziz vatanın bütün kaleleri zapt edilmiş, bütün tersanelerine girilmiş, bütün orduları dağıtılmış ve memleketin her köşesi bilfiil işgal edilmiş olabilir. Bütün bu şeraitten daha elîm ve daha vahim olmak üzere, memleketin dâhilinde iktidara sahip olanlar gaflet ve dalâlet ve hattâ hıyanet içinde bulunabilirler. Hattâ bu iktidar sahipleri şahsî menfaatlerini, müstevlîlerin siyasî emelleriyle tevhit edebilirler. Millet, fakr u zaruret içinde harap ve bîtap düşmüş olabilir.

Ey Türk istikbalinin evlâdı! İşte, bu ahval ve şerait içinde dahi vazifen, Türk istiklâl ve cumhuriyetini kurtarmaktır. Muhtaç olduğun kudret, damarlarındaki asil kanda mevcuttur.

INTRODUCTION

Progress is a coursebook designed for preparatory class students who study English as a Foreign Language (EFL) in Turkey. The book is based on and in line with Turkish Republic Ministry of Education Preparatory Class, 9th -12th Grades English Curriculum. The intended level of learners in Progress is A1/ B1 levels of English proficiency. Progress is an instructional pack consisting of three complementary books: a Student's Book, a Workbook, and a Teacher's Book.

As the authors of the book, we are aware of the increasing need for being qualified and skilled in foreign languages in today's globalised world. While preparing the material, our aim was to prepare a resource which can guide teenagers in becoming competent, accurate, and fluent in English.

We chose the name Progress to foster the importance of moving forward in learning English among learners.

The principle behind the process of writing the coursebook is to produce a book which grabs, stimulates, motivates, encourages, challenges, and teaches the students of the intended age group. To this end, topics and issues which are appealing and functional, exercises which are clear, samples which have a "real life" value have been carefully selected and designed.

In addition, we aimed to present students the culture of target language so that they have deeper understanding and appreciation of theirs and develop common ethical values.

We hope that you and your students would have the most gain and fun of the book.

COMPONENTS

Student's Book

The Student's Book contains 20 units each of which are based on one theme and organized in three modules with subthemes. All units cover four basic language skills, functions, and vocabulary. Topics portraying the world from mostly a teenager perspective have been incorporated to the tasks and materials. Photographs and illustrations which accompany the material have been carefully selected to achieve the learning objectives. Project works, idioms, proverbs, crossword puzzles, songs, games, poems, pair works, group works, discussion topics, presentations are also included in each unit so that learners study English in an interactive and enjoyable way.

Workbook

Progress Workbook is designed to be used in class- in addition to the course book- or as a self-study book for homework exercises. It provides students with extra practice on the structures, functions, and vocabulary presented in Progress Student's Book. The workbook also features reading and writing materials which have similar themes and skills focus to the ones in the Students' Book. At the end of each unit, there is a 'Self-Check' for students to encourage them to monitor their progress.

Teacher's Book

Progress Teacher's Book contains instructions, teaching notes, and guidelines for teachers. Background information, audio scripts of listening activities, answer keys for the exercises in the Student's Book as well as suggestions for optional activities and answer keys for the workbook are also included.

ELEMENTS OF THE COURSEBOOK

The ability to communicate in English is an essential skill in today's world. Being aware of the necessity, Progress has been produced in order to encourage students to use the language rather than focusing too much on grammatical structures.

Topics, content, and activities are organized under the following main sections in each unit:

LEAD IN

'Lead in' is the first step of a teaching process in the classroom before presenting the topic. Considering the positive effect of students' being cognitively ready and attracted to the topic, each module starts with a 'lead in' part which features discussion questions, vocabulary work, or visuals to stimulate students' interest.

LEAD IN

Answer the following questions.

1. What are the most popular sports in your country and in your school?
2. Have you ever taken part in a sports competition? If 'no', would you like to take part in one? Why, why not?
3. Which types of sports do you prefer, individual sports or team sports? Why?

VOCABULARY

Vocabulary presented in the Student's Book and Workbook are selected based on the themes of each module. A variety of vocabulary presentation and practice activities are used throughout the book. Some of these activities are matching meanings with pictures, guessing meaning from context, and the study of collocations, suffixes, prefixes. Focusing on meaning and active use of vocabulary are fostered in the book rather than rote memorization or L1 translation.

6 VOCABULARY

Look at the picture below and find the occupations of the people using the list given.

- a cook • a businessman • a doctor • a secretary • a nurse • a housekeeper
- a teacher • a waiter • construction workers

LISTENING

Listening is an important skill in communication. That's why the listening texts in the book have been selected carefully to allow students to build self confidence in understanding what they hear. The speakers utter clearly to make it easier to follow the recording for students at this level.

'Pre-listening' tasks were designed to familiarize students with the topic of the listening texts. A wide range of 'while' and 'post listening' tasks such as getting the main idea of the text, detecting the new structures, identifying the natural use of the language, organizing the information, or completing written tasks are included throughout the book. Different listening text types such as spelling names, everyday matters, news programmes, phone conversations, and songs acquaint students with the pronunciation of native speakers of English.

SPEAKING

Speaking is a productive skill that requires precedence and extra practice in English classes. Many speaking tasks are presented in Progress to promote students' interaction with each other. Activities are presented to enable students to understand a topic well enough to form ideas and then orally express themselves. Group works, pair works, and presentations are organised to practice the language so that students can become more accurate, fluent, and confident speakers in English.

7 SPEAKING

Margaret and her grandma Dorothy are making cookies. Report their instructions to your friend. Then write them down.

READING

In Progress, there is a wide range of reading text types such as e-mails, stories, biographies, and letters. Shorter texts allow students to activate their previous knowledge. Longer texts are designed to present students with new lexis, jargon, and structures in meaningful contexts. A variety of activities accompany the texts such as comprehension questions, matching headings, word-definition matching, and true/false activities. Students skim the texts to understand the purpose and the main idea or scan the texts to find out the specific information. Some activities require intensive reading to make students gain full and clear understanding.

Joannie (jo-ann) Rochette

French-Canadian Joannie Rochette is bronze medalist at the Vancouver 2010 Olympic Games. She is world vice-champion in 2009 and the first Canadian female figure skater in all categories. Joannie Rochette faced a very tragic event. Her mother died of a sudden heart attack after she arrived with her husband to watch her daughter in Winter Olympics. Everybody admired Joannie's psychological strength because she was a bronze medalist in the women's free skate four days later. She

WRITING

Writing sections in Progress provide extensive practice in writing tasks that students can come across in real life. There are many different genres such as note taking, writing letters, narrations, descriptions, and postcards. Brainstorming and outlining activities are also provided so that students can write in a well-organized and coherent manner. Sample tasks for different genres are also included to help learners receive additional guidance in their writing process.

5 WRITING

Which natural wonder in your country excites you most? Imagine taking a trip to this place with your friends. Write a blog entry paying attention the capitalization, spelling and punctuation rules. (Write between 130 and 150 words)

Write about,

- When/ Where you went,
- Who you were with,

EVERYDAY ENGLISH and USEFUL EXPRESSIONS

A very important element of knowing a language is being able to use daily expressions for displaying better communicative competence. A variety of functions, phrases, and expressions are used in dialogues and conversations to present everyday English expressions.

1 EVERYDAY ENGLISH

Study the box below and then underline the expressions used for exchanging ideas in the dialogue.

 Useful Expressions to ...

express your opinion
In my opinion, she'll get the highest grade.
I think the weather will be fine.
As for me, this question is hard.

Rosa: In my opinion, this building used to be a dormitory.
Jack: I'm afraid, I disagree.
Rosa: Look at the painting. It is the same as the schools'.

PROJECT TIME

Progress consists of numerous project time activities in order to help students gain critical thinking and creativity. Projects are efficient ways of learning English as students practice language skills in creative, productive, and interactive ways.

3 PROJECT TIME

- a Read the titles of some sports news below and match the titles with the pictures.

- Struggle To Reach The Summit
- Minutes Underneath the Sea
- The Fastest Sprinter Ever

GAME

Games in Progress are designed to motivate students in practising and producing English in a fun way. Teacher's book includes detailed and step-by-step instructions on how to implement games in class.

4 GAME

"Broken Telephone"

Sit u-shaped. The teacher whispers a rhyme or a sentence to the first student. The student says it to the other student sitting next and it goes on like this until the last student tells the rhyme out loud.

DISCUSSION TIME

Progress also includes discussion time activities to enable students to find opportunities to practice speaking in English fluently. Discussion is an excellent way for students to enhance their usage and understanding of the language. In addition to enhancing communicative skills, discussions give students a chance to take more active roles in the classroom.

8 DISCUSSION TIME

You are organizing a graduation party with your friend for one of your classmates. You disagree with your friend on the place, date, and menu. Talk to your friend about your opinion. Then decide on the topic. Use such expressions as "I don't agree with you, I agree but, I believe that, I don't think so".

CHECK THIS OUT!

Grammar is intended to be taught inductively in Progress. It is presented through the dialogues or texts in the book and students are expected to get the structure by inferring structures from the examples and context. For clearer understanding, structures or patterns are also included in short dialogues or sample sentences in boxes.

CHECK THIS OUT!

Time expressions

I get up early in the mornings.

She does her homework every day.

He plays football on Sundays.

We hang out with our friends at weekends.

REMEMBER THIS!

Recycling previously learned information is important in learning a language. 'Remember This' boxes in the book provide students with an opportunity of revising the uses of particular areas and vocabulary knowledge of the previous courses. These boxes also highlight the structures and patterns which are used in previous units. With the help of revisions, students will be able to evaluate, refine, and build on what they already know.

REMEMBER THIS!

A: What's your holiday plan?

B: We're going to stay in a 5 star hotel with my family.

A: Is it expensive?

B: Not really because I've booked our room a month ago.

A: What's your holiday plan?

B: I will go abroad.

A: Oh, nice. Where will you go?

B: I'm not sure, but somewhere cool.

DO YOU KNOW THIS?

'Do You Know This?' boxes give some engaging and extra information about the topic given in the units. These boxes consist of common social expressions, signs, or tips.

DO YOU KNOW THIS?

Every four year, February has 29 days instead of 28. This year is called a "leap" year and 29th day of February is a "leap day".

TODAY'S PROVERB, IDIOM, and QUOTE

Idioms, proverbs, and quotations are important elements of a language and culture. For this reason, in Progress they are presented in the units in order to evoke interest among students and to improve students' speaking skills.

TODAY'S QUOTE

Happy is the man who is living by his hobby.

George Bernard Shaw

LISTENING & SPEAKING

1 VOCABULARY

- a Match the words in the box with the pictures. Then write them under the pictures.

Audio Script

Track 1

Dialogue 1

Anna: Mum, I can't find my socks in the chest of drawers. Where are they?

Mum: Can you look under the bed? I'm sure your socks are there.

Anna: A-ha... Here they are. Thanks mum.

Mum: Your room is always messy. Tidy your room, Anna.

Anna: OK, mummy.

Dialogue 2

Sally: I'm making coffee. Would you like some, Mr Johnson?

The repairman: Yes, please. May I have cookies on the plate?

Sally: Certainly. Make yourself at home, please. By the way I can't find the coffee jar.

The repairman: Look, over there! There is a jar on the shelf.

Sally: Oh, yes. Black coffee or coffee with milk?

The repairman: Black and sugar free, please. The fridge is OK, madam.

Sally: Thank you.

Dialogue 3

Little boy: Can I switch over? There is a cartoon movie on TV.

His sister: Of course not. Go and sleep. You can be late for school.

Little boy: Please. Let's watch it together.

His sister: No way.

Dialogue 4

Dad: Are you in the shower again? I'm getting late for work.

Leo: OK, dad. Give me just one minute. What time is it?

Dad: It's quarter past eight. Come on, Leo.

Leo: Sorry, Dad.

Dad: Oh my God! The sink is full of your hair. I warned you many times. Don't use hair gel a lot. You can lose your hair.

Leo: You're right, Daddy. I'll be more careful.

12 Search on the Internet and complete the fact file about African Penguins and Jaguars.

Possible answers

African Penguins

Habitat: They live along the coast of South Africa and on its surrounding islands.

Physical traits: They weigh between 2 and 4 kilos. Their height is approximately 60 centimetres. They have sharp black beaks. They have also black foot. They have white chests with marking on them.

Food: They eat various types of fish and sea food.

Amazing facts: They have more feathers than other birds. Their feathers are waterproof. When they dive to catch fish, they can stay under water up to two and half minutes. They are perfect swimmers. To communicate with each other, they make sounds similar to donkeys.

Endangered (reason): Their population has significantly declined in recent years due to oil spills in the ocean, threats to their habitat and food resources. Some predators such as kelp gulls and scared ibises on air, leopards on land prey their newborn chicks and eggs. This poses a treat for penguins species. Humans are also another threat for them as they collect their eggs for sale.

Jaguars

Habitat: They live in North, Central, and South America. Their habitat is forests, rainforests, woods and deserts areas.

Physical traits: They have powerful jaws, sharp teeth short legs and they have yellow and orange coats and dark spots. There is also black species. Their weight is around 55 to 96 kg. Their length changes between 1.1 to 1.85 meters.

READING & WRITING

1 GAME

Miming game

Watch me and guess what I'm doing!

Students can play this game to practice the present continuous for actions happening now. Divide the class into two teams. Give each team a set of picture cards and face them down on the desk. One student from team A turns over a card without showing it to anyone and comes up to the board. The student acts out what's happening in the picture without writing words or letters and without speaking. Team A has one minute to try to guess the mime using the present continuous. The first team to guess the sentence wins a point. When a team gets ten points, they win the game. Make sure they use the present continuous tense.

Audio ScriptTrack 1

A: What are you doing?

B: I'm preparing a presentation about some famous people's lives.

A: Who is this young man in the picture?

B: Actually he was a very famous American man. Let's see... He was born in 1942 in Louisville. His former name was Cassius Marcellus Clay and nickname was 'The Greatest'. His father was a sign and billboard painter. His mother worked in cafes. He started boxing at the age of twelve. His first amateur match was in 1954. He was successful in the Golden Gloves tournament in the light heavyweight class in 1956. He went to Italy and competed in the 1960 Olympic Games and received a gold medal. He was only eighteen. His trainer described him as: 'He floats like a butterfly, stings like a bee'. He defeated his two strong rivals in 1963 and 1964 and won the World Championship. After this victory, he changed his religion and became a Muslim. His disease occurred in 1984. And...

A: That's enough. Of course, I know him. He devoted his life to boxing, human rights, and charity works. He died in 2016.

B: Yes, right. Now, look at that photo of this woman? Who do you think she is?

Track 3

Interviewer: Do you want to travel the World? Peter Albert, an adventurer blogger tells us about wonderful places today. Welcome to our programme. Which country do you come from?

Peter: I am from Scotland. I was born in a town in the South of the country.

Interviewer: What do you do for a living?

Peter: I'm a travel blogger. I travel around the world and write about my travel experiences. I wrote two travel books. They are very popular.

Interviewer: What is your favourite place in the world?

Peter: There is no place like home with its tall mountains, great views, and islands, but I enjoyed Taj Mahal in India. It is the tomb of the emperor, Shah Jahan's wife. I think he loved his wife so much because it is fascinating and it's a symbol of love.

Interviewer: Oh, yes Taj Mahal is one of the wonders. Did you visit all the new wonders?

Peter: Not all. I visited the Great Wall of China five years ago. It protected the Chinese Empire against its enemies for many years. It's very high and thousands of miles long. I visited Colosseum in Rome three years ago. It is an oval amphitheatre. I think the Egyptian pyramids are incredible, especially Giza. It is one of the Ancient Wonders of the World and still standing today. I visited another great pyramid in an ancient city in Mexico, Chichen Itza. And Machu Picchu... It's a wonderful ancient city in the clouds in Peru.

Interviewer: Did you go to the Mausoleum of Halicarnassus in Turkey?

Peter: It isn't possible because it no longer exists. It is on the seven wonders of the ancient world list, but six of the seven structures don't exist anymore.

Interviewer: Oh, God. You're right. What about Petra?

Peter: I am planning to visit another ancient city, Petra in Jordan this summer. And I want to see the tall white statue, Christ the Redeemer in Brazil.

Interviewer: Do you have any advice for travellers?

Peter: You need money, so don't waste your money on clothes or the latest mobile phone. Save money and go wherever you want and try new tastes around the world.

Interviewer: Thank you very much.

3 LISTENING

a Natural wonders of the world need votes to be in the world list. Listen to the radio programme and match the names of the natural wonders with the pictures.

Audio Script

Track 5

Lena: Hello and welcome to REM Radio. I'm Lena Lane. Today we have lots of news for you, but first let's check the recent situation of the contest of the 7 natural wonders. There are lots of candidates. Now we are getting through to Brian. He is reporting from Australia. Yes, Brian. What's going on there?

Brian: Hello Lena, there is only one week for the election. People are very excited here in Queensland and want votes for the Great Barrier Reef. I want to ask one of them now. Oh, yes. Why should we vote for the reef?

Man: Great Barrier Reef is the largest coral reef in the world. It is very long, about 2600 km. You can explore underwater by snorkelling or scuba diving or take a boat tour. Bring your underwater camera and record amazing World of fish and coral.

Brian: When is the best time to come here?

Man: Anytime of the year you can come because it is tropical here and rarely very hot or cold.

Brian: Thank you very much. Lena?

Lena: Thanks Brian. Now, Ann is speaking from Zimbabwe. Are people excited there?

Ann: Hello Lena. Of course, they are. They want votes for Victoria Falls. It is the largest waterfall in the world. It's 1.7 km wide on the border between Zimbabwe and Zambia. It is really great. Let's talk to someone here. Hello, why and how should we experience the waterfalls?

Woman: First of all, it has an impressive view. There are two national parks around. You can explore it by helicopter or walk the paths. You will also see wild animals.

Ann: When should we come here to see it clearly?

Woman: In spring the water is high, but it is very hard to see it clearly. June and July are the best time to get a clear view. Thank you for coming here. Vote for us!

Ann: Thank you, good luck! Lena, can you hear me?

Lane: Yes, Ann. Thank you for the interview. Let's go to Arizona this time. Hasan is reporting. Hasan, how is the atmosphere there?

Hasan: The people are working very hard to receive votes. They're talking to tourists and making so many phone calls. Let's talk to one of them. Hi, do you think Grand Canyon will be in the Natural Wonders of the World list?

Boy: Are you kidding me, it's the best one. The canyon is 446 km long. It's not the longest one maybe, but its colour is unique in the world. You can't find any similar landscapes anywhere else. A slow flight by helicopter will take you into a breathtaking view. A water rafting trip on the river can also help you to explore it.

Hasan: And when do you suggest us to come here as a tourist?

Boy: Whenever you want. In winter the scenes are amazing, however in summer months it is easier to see around. Don't forget that one week isn't enough to explore the canyon.

Hasan: Thank you! As you hear, the people are hopeful here and waiting for more tourists by the end of the contest. Lena?

Lane: Just like the other wonders, Hasan. Thank you! We don't have enough time for the other wonders. Tomorrow we will get through to Mexico for Paricutin Volcano, Brazil for Harbour of Rio de Janeiro. Then we will talk to a historian about the Northern Lights and Mount Everest. We are looking forward to hearing the results. Now, for the national news, here's our correspondent...

Tell students to listen to the radio programme carefully to write the names of the wonders. Say that they will hear more details about 3 of the wonders and they will hear just the names of the other 4 wonders. Tell students that while they are trying to catch the names, they can also take notes on the information about the wonders for the following tasks in the student's book.

Mum: What's the matter with you, Zoe?

Zoe: I'm not feeling well, mum, so I came home early.

Mum: Let me have a look your fever. Oh, you've got a fever!

Zoe: I'm getting the flu I think. I'm cold. Can you give me my cardigan, please?

Mum: No way! If you have a fever, you should take off thick clothes. Anyway, you had better see our family doctor. Come on, we're leaving.

Zoe: I can go there on my own.

Mum: All right. I'll have an appointment right now.

(On the phone.)

Receptionist: Dr. Pole's clinic. How can I help you?

Mum: Good afternoon! Zoe's mother calling. Can I have an appointment for Zoe today?

Receptionist: Oh hello, Mrs Parker. Just a second, please. Hm. Is it possible to come here at 5 p.m.?

Mum: That's great. Thank you.

Receptionist: You're welcome.

(In the clinic)

Doctor: Hello! What's wrong, Zoe?

Zoe: I'm not feeling well and I'm getting cold. My mum says I've got a fever.

Doctor: Let me have a look! Open your mouth, Zoe.

Zoe: Aaaa...

Doctor: You've got swollen tonsils. Do they hurt when you swallow?

Zoe: A little bit.

Doctor: You have got a fever as well. You should have a rest. You shouldn't drink cold drinks. Ask your mother to cook chicken soup with lemon juice. It will help you. I'll write a prescription. You should take the medicine I'll give you.

Zoe: Sure. Thank you.

Doctor: Get well soon, Zoe.

5 GAME

Play groups of four or five. Tell students that they are going to play an enjoyable game. Have them play the game in groups of four or five. Ask them to write numbers from 1 to 6 on some pieces of paper and fold them and put the folded paper in a box (a pencilcase can be used). Tell them to draw the paper from the box in turns and look at their numbers. If it is number 2, they will go to the second square or if it's number 4, they will go to the fourth square. Then, ask them to answer the questions. Then ask students to put the they have drawn in the box again. The second student draws the folded paper from the box. If he/ she draws number 5, he/ she starts to count and answer the fifth question. Every person has 30 seconds. If he/ she can't answer in 30 seconds, he or she loses the game. The first person to reach the finish line is the winner.

Students' own answers.

6 WRITING

Read the proverbs about health and write a short paragraph (between 70 and 80 words) about what the proverbs mean.

Have students read the proverbs. Make sure that they understand what to do this exercise.

Tell them to give examples of proverbs about health in their language.

Possible Answer

For instance; "Good health is above wealth" means; someone can have wealth, but if he has some health problems, nothing is important for him or her because everything seems meaningless for his or her except health. This old saying, "After lunch rest a while,

"after dinner walk a mile" is quite true because in the daytime after having food you are active at school, work or home, but in the evenings you have nothing else to do except to go to sleep. The food is not digested properly, so you shouldn't eat heavy meals. In addition, walking in the evenings will be a good habit.

Audio Script

Track 6

I have a ¹dream, a song to sing
 To help me cope with anything
 If you ²see the wonder of a fairy tale
 You can take ³the future even if you fail
 I believe in angels
 Something good in everything I see
 I believe in angels
 When I know ⁴the time is right for me
 I'll cross the stream, I have a dream
 I have a dream, a fantasy
 To help me through reality
 And my ⁵destination makes it worth the while ⁶Pushing through the darkness still another mile
 I believe in angels
 Something good in everything I see
 I believe in ⁷angels
 When I know the time is right for me
 I'll cross the stream, I have a dream
 I'll cross the stream, I have a dream I have a dream, a song to sing
 To help me cope with anything
 If you see the wonder of a fairy tale
 You can take the future even if you fail
 I believe in angels
 Something good in everything I see
 I believe in angels
 When I know the time is right for me
 I'll cross the stream, I have a dream
 I'll cross the stream, I have a dream

Audio Script	Track 9
The presenter: Good afternoon, everybody. Welcome to our programme "Let's live and learn." Today we're talking about emergency cases and first aid. Our guest is an emergency physician. Welcome to the programme, Dr. Abbott.
Dr. Abbott: Thank you.
The presenter: It's said that most accidents happen at homes.

Dr. Abbott: The statistic shows that home accidents are more than the other accidents.

The presenter: We should know what we can do for a person who needs help. Doctor Abbott, what is first aid?

Dr. Abbott: When we are injured or suddenly unwell, we want and need someone to help us. If someone knows what to do, first aid is all about helping people in situations like this.

The presenter: Can we say First Aid is important to save people's lives?

Dr. Abbott: Definitely true. You can save someone's life if you are trained in first aid.

The presenter: Could you tell us what we can do in case of an emergency?

Dr. Abbott: Sure. I'll show you an example of one of the emergency cases. As you know, the summer season is coming, so we can face someone drowning, so let me show on a manikin what you can do such an emergency. Firstly, call an ambulance immediately then turn the drowning person's ¹head to the side to let any water to drain from his or her ²mouth and nose. ³Turn the head back to the center. Secondly, begin mouth-to-mouth resuscitation on land. Resuscitation is to make someone ⁴breathe again. Strongly breathe four ⁵times into the mouth of the ⁶injured person as you pinch his or her nose. After four strong breaths, put your ⁷ear near the mouth and watch the ⁸chest for any breathing movement. Thirdly, check the pulse for signs of life. Until an ambulance arrives at the scene of accident, ⁹repeat the cycle.

The presenter: I'm sure the information you have given will help us when we face this situation.

Dr. Abbott: I strongly recommend people to join First Aid training.

The presenter: Definitely. Thank you for joining our programme and giving information to us.

Dr. Abbott: You're welcome. I hope I could be useful.

Answer Key

No, I don't always agree with my friends in a group work. I want them to care about my ideas, too.

b Read and order the paragraphs to make a meaningful dialogue.

Allow students time to read and order the paragraphs to make a meaningful dialogue. Monitor students. If they have difficulty in understanding, help them out. Then check the answers with class.

Answer Key

(Paragraph 1 is given)

Paragraph 2

Sandra: Oh, Richard I don't think we need to make an invitation list. All the students in the class are free to join the party. If we write on the notice board, we can easily inform the students about it.

Richard: You're right.

Sandra: How about holding the party at Star Kitchen Café?

Richard: It doesn't have enough space for the party.

Sandra: I agree, but it's not expensive. It's good for students.

Paragraph 3

Richard: Alright. We have agreed on the place of the party. Let's plan the menu.

Sandra: What about eating chicken and chips?

Richard: I don't agree with you. It's not a good menu for the graduation party. How about eating fish and chips? Many people like it.

Sandra: OK! If you say so. How about eating some dessert?

Paragraph 4

Richard: I like apple pie as dessert.

Sandra: I don't like it at all. I like chocolate cake.

Richard: That's fine. Sandra. Do you have any idea about how we should decorate the café?

Paragraph 5

Sandra: I like simple decorations.

Richard: I don't agree with you. This is our graduation party. We need colourful decorations.

Sandra: OK! Richard. You win. What shall we do about the music?

Paragraph 6

Richard: Let's call a DJ for our party. We're going to dance and enjoy it.

Sandra: We don't need to hire a DJ. We already have talented friends. Some of our friends can play the violin, guitar, drums. So, we can ask them to play their instruments instead.

Paragraph 7

Richard: OK! Sandra. We have a deal on the music.

Sandra: See you at the party.

Richard: See you.

Audio ScriptTrack 1

Mom: What's on TV tonight?

Angela: “Do it now.” My favourite. Today, Maylo and his daughter will make a robot.

Mom: It sounds very enjoyable but hard.

Angela: Yes, we will see. I will try to do it with them.

Mom: How nice. I'm sure you can. Do you have the things you need?

Angela: Yes, mom. Hush! Hush! I don't want to miss it.

A part from an episode of a DIY programme.

Maylo: Are you ready, Isabel?

Isabel: For sure! I'm very excited. What are doing today, daddy?

Maylo: Look at the materials on the table and guess what?

Isabel: Himm. Two AA batteries, a toy motor with wires, an electrical tape, two buttons, glue gun, a toilet paper roll and some crayons. Are we doing a kind of a robot?

Maylo: Bingo!

Isabel: It must be very difficult. We can't do it with these materials at home.

Maylo: Don't worry, honey. We can do it. You'll see. Let's start with the battery pack. Attach it to motor. I mean attach the red wire to red wire, blue to black.

Isabel: Ok, dad. Give me some time. Red to red and blue to black. That's all right.

Maylo: Look, the shaft of the motor looks like a needle. Now, slide the shaft through a hole in the button and fix with some glue.

Isabel: Am I doing it right?

Maylo: Yes, perfect. Trust yourself. It's time to paint the toilet paper roll. It'll be the body of our robot.

Isabel: Yes, it is almost done.

Maylo: What a lovely pink it is! Finally, glue the motor and battery pack to body.

Isabel: I can't believe! I've built a robot. It's very easy. Does it work?

Maylo: Let's see. Turn it on.

Isabel: Done! I can do whatever I want if I try enough. Thanks, dad. You're a great teacher.

2. TV programmes could improve imagination.	2. Youth/ Children get misinformation.
3. Easy and cheap way to entertain.	3. Watching too much causes TV addiction
4. Youth/ Children feel less lonely.	4. Youth/ Children could be antisocial.

8 If you had a TV channel, how would your schedule be? Answer the questions below.

Tell students to imagine that they have a TV channel and they could broadcast the programmes they choose whenever they want. However, they should have some criteria to make their schedule. Tell them to think of these criteria and answer the questions.

Students' own answers.

1. Channel Istanbul. I like Istanbul and I will live in Istanbul in the future. It would be a regional channel.
2. In the morning cartoons and educational programmes for children and women. Because they are generally at home in the morning. In the afternoon, programmes that teach them how to manage their budgets could be useful. In the evening family programmes are suitable. TV brings the whole family together. Thus, the programme should address each member of a family.

a Prepare your own TV schedule for two days. You can write the programmes you watch or create new programmes. Think of your answers for the questions above while preparing the schedule.

Tell students to make their own schedule for a week day and a weekend day. Remind them that they should take some aspects into consideration such as target audience, target age, and the functions of the programmes.

Students' own works.

b Present your schedule with a slide show or poster in the class. Tell the reasons of your programme choices.

Tell students to prepare a slide show or poster to present their studies.

LISTENING & SPEAKING

1 LISTENING))

a Listen to the interview of a school science magazine. Tick (✓) the innovations you hear.

Write on the board: "There will be house robots in the future". "Students will not go to schools." Elicit the use of future simple.

Tell students that they're going to listen to an interview about life in the future and tick the innovations they hear. Ask them to look at the pictures and say what the innovations are about.

Audio Script

Track 3

Interviewer: Hi, we're talking about the life in the future. Do you follow the innovations in science and technology?

Mark: Yes, as much as I can.

Interviewer: What do you think the life in the future will be like in thirty years? For example, what do you think the schools will be like? Will students go to schools?

Mark: I think students will go to schools but only once a week. They should go, because a positive class environment has an important role in learning. Teachers will give projects to do, and subjects to study. The other days students will study at home, they will search on the Net or go out to gather information or necessary materials for their projects. They will interview with experts if necessary. Students will study whenever they want. There won't be certain learning time...

Interviewer: Sorry, I didn't catch that, can you repeat the last point?

Mark: Well, I said there won't be certain learning time; everything in their lives will be learning tools. Two days a week as a whole class, they will exchange information, ask questions, present their studies through video teleconferencing.

Interviewer: Sorry to interrupt again, but what will the teachers' role be?

Mark: Teachers will be ideal leaders and teach the learning techniques.

Interviewer: It sounds nice. Well, how will houses be different?

Mark: In the future, people won't prefer living in the houses with Bosphorus, forest or ocean view. Anyway there will be no nature or sightseeing to see in thirty years. People will be happy with artificial reality.

Interviewer: Can I just say something here?

Mark: Go ahead.

Interviewer: I hope, your prediction about the nature won't come true.

Mark: So do I. Well, as I was saying, the houses will have screen wall panels that you can change the view whenever you want.

Interviewer: Well, What will health sector be like?

Mark: Scientists will find out the cures of many diseases and people will benefit from the cures. Technology and science will save lives of people and they will live longer.

Interviewer: Do you think robots will have feelings like people?

Mark: They will have a big role in our lives at homes, at hospitals or at shopping centres. They will help us, maybe they will decide to do something, but that's all. They will never have feelings like us.

Interviewer: Thank you for sharing your thoughts about the future.

Mark: Wait a minute. Which magazine is it?

Monica: I have great news.

Brittany: Really! What is it?

Monica: I've got a job offer in Turkey.

Brittany: Unbelievable! Which city? Please say Istanbul.

Monica: Hold your breath! I'll probably be the external relations manager of the biggest catering firm in Istanbul.

Brittany: Hurray! We will live together.

Monica: Not so fast! I haven't decided yet. I'll ask many questions to you about the city and the country before saying yes.

Brittany: Yeah, of course! Ask away.

Monica: First of all, the weather is very important to me, you know. How's the weather over there now?

Brittany: It's mild and the temperature is 20 degree today. The weather forecast says that it is going to be nice and warm in April this year. Moreover, Istanbul is great in this season.

Monica: What is the typical weather of this season?

Brittany: Let me see. Rains are common and nights are cool. However, it's not mostly humid. You'll probably need only a light jacket if you feel chilly. During day time it is about 17-18 degrees.

Monica: Is winter in İstanbul very cold?

Brittany: Sometimes it snows, but it is not extremely cold. Stormy days are not so many.

Monica: Is the summer hot?

Brittany: Oh, yes. It is sometimes boiling hot and humid. Summer showers are also common.

Monica: Does it often rain in autumn?

Brittany: It often rains in September and November. Autumn is windy and cool. Cloudy days are common, but still you can enjoy good weather most of the days.

Monica: Except the summer it sounds nice. I don't feel comfortable in summer because of the temperature.

Brittany: What do you want to learn more about Istanbul?

THE WORLD OF TEENAGERS

Robert: Hi Nancy, how's it going? Oh, you look worried. Is everything OK?

Nancy: Not really. I'm a little bit worried about the rules of my new school.

Robert: Me, too. There are so many rules in my school as well. And if you break the rules, you get punishment immediately.

Nancy: I see. Rules are everywhere. What are the rules of your school?

Robert: For example, we can't (prohibition) use mobile phones in school. It is strictly forbidden to use them, especially in classes.

Nancy: It is the same in my school too but I think it is better not to use them in classes because they can be really distracting.

Robert: I totally agree. I can concentrate on classes much better without my mobile. Moreover, we can't (prohibition) hand in our homework after the deadline. Our teachers are really very careful about the deadlines. They always say that we must (necessity) be punctual in order to be successful in real life.

Nancy: It is the same in my school too. Our teachers want us to be organised and punctual, too. I know they are right, but it is sometimes difficult to be on time.

Robert: Moreover my school is very sensitive about hygiene. We have to (obligation) keep the school environment free from litter.

Nancy: I think this rule is also very necessary.

Robert: Hey, we were complaining about the rules a few minutes ago.

Nancy: Yes, they make me feel stressed.

Robert: But we said that they are necessary, didn't we?

Nancy: Yes, we did.

Robert: So what is the problem? I think we must (necessity) accept that the school rules are all for the sake of students. We should stop complaining about them. Can you imagine a school without any rules?

Nancy: Not of course. I know we have to obey (obligation) them for our own sake, but they can sometimes be hard to follow.

b Work in pairs. Write a similar dialogue and practice.

Students write a similar dialogue in pairs and act it out.

Now I try to go to the rivers once a week. Last month I decided to join a fishing competition. I wanted to try something different and hoped to catch a different kind of fish. I thought it would be better to drive to the place that the competition took place, so a friend and I went by my car. There was a big crowd. My friend suggested looking for a place under a big tree and promised to find a big shade. Soon we camped in an area where the fish loved swimming.

Suddenly my friend jumped into the river, and started to swim. I didn't mind it because I expected him to catch an enormous fish. However, we went back home with a huge Wellington boot in the evening. I loved having this experience, and I recommend doing it to everybody.

Hi, my name is Defne, from Ankara. We are celebrating the festival for the Turkish youth, and remembering Atatürk today. It's the arrival of Atatürk in Samsun and the beginning of the War of Independence. So, as the citizens of Turkish Republic, this day is important for us. In 1981, it was also the 100th anniversary of Atatürk's birth. Young Turkish athletes are carrying the national flag from Samsun to Ankara. Please, join us at this meaningful event and learn more about the day and our culture.

STUDENT B

Hi, my name is Aras, from Erzurum. Many people are celebrating this festival by attending military parades in the streets. Flags are decorating the shops, public offices, and people's houses on this day. It reminds us the Turkish victory in the Battle of Dumlupınar. It was the final step in Turkish War of Independence.

STUDENT C

Hi, my name is Elif, from Edirne. Today's youth tomorrow's future and Turkey is celebrating its children with this happy day in colorful ceremonies and festivals. It's the opening date of the Turkish Grand National Assembly. Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, the founder of the Republic of Turkey, presented this festival to Turkish children. A lot of children are coming from other countries to join us.

STUDENT D

Hi, my name is Fatih, from İzmir. We are celebrating one of the national festivals with flags and musical bands. It's the 93th anniversary of the declaration of the Turkish Republic. School children are performing theater, sketches, poetry readings, and traditional Turkish dances.

Students' own answers.

LISTENING & SPEAKING

1 VOCABULARY

Listen to the conversation between special agent, David Serval and journalist Susan Clark. Then, match the words with the definitions.

Draw students' attention to the vocabulary before listening. Then tell them to listen to the dialogue between Susan and the detective David Serval. Ask them to find the definitions of the vocabulary while listening to recording.

Audio Script

Track 1

Susan: Hi everybody! I'm Susan Clark. Today, our guest is the detective David Serval. Welcome to the programme, Mr. Serval.

David: Thanks for having me.

Susan: Everybody wonders the lives of detectives. Can you give us some details about your job?

David: Our job is a bit different from the jobs of ordinary people. We discover information about crimes. We also catch the people who commit crimes, I mean criminals, so we don't have a regular job.

Susan: There are also suspects, right?

David: Yes, there are also people who are thought to be guilty of crime so we try to figure out whether they are guilty or not.

Susan: Mr. Serval, when does an act become a crime?

David: Well...When somebody performs an illegal act and breaks the law, that person commits a crime.

Susan: Is there an interesting case you can tell us?

David: Let me think. Oh yes. I remember a case I'll never forget. It was about four years ago.

Mrs. Parker who comes from a very rich family phoned our office. She was upset because a priceless inherited necklace got lost.

Susan: She must have lost her necklace somewhere. Why did she phone you?

David: She suspected her maid of stealing it. She started to work in the mansion a few weeks ago.

Susan: Oh I see.

David: Everywhere was full of her fingerprints in Mrs. Parker's bedroom. Fingerprints are important for finding the criminal.

Susan: Could you explain us the importance of a fingerprint?

David: As you know it is a unique mark left by dirt or oil from someone's finger so it is a clear evidence. At first I also thought she was guilty. However, she was working in that home. Thus, it was not a fact that showed us clearly that she was guilty. When I extended the investigation, there was no evidence to show the maid was guilty.

Susan: What happened then?

David: A few weeks later, Mrs. Parker phoned me. She said "I have good news for you; I found my necklace in my car. Probably, I fell it down by accident. I'm sorry to make you engaged."

Susan: Her maid, Sue was not guilty you mean.

David: Yes, she was innocent.

LEAD IN

Answer the following questions.

Ask the four questions in lead-in part to your students. Encourage them to talk about the activities in the pictures.

Possible Answers

1. Yes, I know the first, but I don't know the second./ No, I don't know any of the two...
2. There is one difference between them. In drive-in cinema people watch a film inside their cars; on the other hand, in open-air cinema people watch a film outside, not in their chairs.
3. I prefer drive-in cinema because it is more comfortable than open-air cinema.
4. Yes, once I watched a film in open-air cinema. I really liked it. But, I have never been to a drive-in cinema, I would like to try.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Drive in cinema is an activity that people watch a film inside their cars. They watch the film on a huge screen in open air. There is a huge screen in open-air cinema, too. But people don't watch the film inside their cars, instead they sit on a chair in open-air and watch the huge screen.

Optional Activity

Encourage students to use these expressions throughout this unit. Ask them to underline the expressions they have learned in EVERYDAY ENGLISH part.

Answer Key

Rosa: In my opinion, this building used to be a dormitory.

Jack: I'm afraid, I disagree.

Rosa: Look at the painting. It is the same with the ones in schools.

Jack: As for me, it used to be a hospital.

Rosa: You are wrong! The corridor is too long.

Jack: I think otherwise. Here is an inpatient corridor.

Rosa: I don't think so.

Jack: I'm sure it used to be a hospital because the doors are large.

Rosa: But why?

Jack: The beds can be easily removed out the doors when there is an emergency.

Rosa: Quite so!

Optional Activity

You can suggest a discussion topic to students in order to encourage them to use these expressions. Some examples for the discussion topics: "Speak about your image of a perfect teacher/ friend." "Living in old times versus living in 21st century". Also, you can bring a mysterious photo of an old abandoned place as in the example in the students' book and want them to guess what it is and make them tell their opinions with their reasons. Here are two example pictures.

2 GAME

"Do You Know Me?"

Write three sentences about your old habits or state on the board. One of the sentences is not about you. Other students guess which of the sentences are about you.

Students write their own past habits on the board in turns, but some of them don't belong to them. Make students guess which ones belong to the student who writes on the board. This game makes students realize the structure and function of "used to". You can start the game by yourself. This is a warm up activity to motivate students for the lesson and use the structure productively.

3 VOCABULARY

Match the names of the games with the pictures.

1. Croquet, 2. Dominoes, 3. Pickup sticks,
4. Twister, 5. Scrabble, 6. Tic-tac-toe

4 SPEAKING

Work in pairs. Ask these questions to each other.

Possible Answers

1. Yes, I sometimes play scrabble with my friends at home.
2. It is a word formation game of letters. It is really a enjoyable and educational game.

REMEMBER THIS!

Draw students' attention to the "REMEMBER THIS!" box. Tell them to try to remember the grammar rules of past form of "verb be". You can prepare extra worksheets to use for this lesson. You can write extra sentences on the board to show and ask students to remember the past form of "verb be".

5 LISTENING)

- a Granddad and grandson are looking at the family album and talking about the old times. Listen and fill in the blanks to complete their conversation.

Audio Script

Track 1

Archie: What is it in your hand?

Elrick: I found an old family album over there behind the sofa. Let's look at it together.

Archie: Another time Elrick. I'm really tired today.

Elrick: Come on! Is that you sitting on a wall, granddad? How much slimmer you were.

Archie: You are such a kiddier. I'm still fit. Surely I used to be younger and more handsome.

Elrick: What were you doing on the wall?

Archie: I was trying to see your grandma. She was watching a movie at the open air cinema. I was in love with her.

Elrick: How nice and lovely you were!

Archie: Do you know open-air cinema?

Elrick: Not much.

Archie: Aww! What a pity! In my day, there used to be open air cinemas once a week. We didn't use to have televisions, telephones, or computers. We often used to go to the open-air cinemas. It was the most popular public entertainment.

Elrick: In that case there didn't use to be any electronic stuff, what did you have for fun?

Archie: We used to play Tic-Tac-Toe, twister, croquet, dominoes, pickup sticks, scrabble and so on...

Elrick: What social children you were!

Answer Key

- | | |
|----------------|--------------------|
| 1. found, | 5. grandma |
| 2. were | 6. open-air cinema |
| 3. used | 7. computers |
| 4. on the wall | 8. have |

- b Listen again and write true (T) or false (F). Correct the false ones.

Answer Key

1. T
2. F (Because he is very tired.)
3. F (Once a week)
4. T

CHECK THIS OUT!

Draw students' attention to this box. Ask them to deduct the grammar structure and function of "used to". You can give them some extra example sentences to study on.

- 6 Work in pairs. Write a simple dialogue as in the CHECK THIS OUT! box. Write the activities you used to do when you were a child. Use the proverb "Old habits die hard". Act your dialogue out.

Ask students to practise their knowledge about "used to" and the proverb in a dialogue and want them to act their dialogues out.

You can use the optional game below to develop their speaking skills using the grammar structure "used to".

7 SPEAKING

Work in pairs. Look at the past and present photographs of Istanbul. Talk about the differences.

Ask students to talk about the past and present life in Istanbul. You can change the city name in this activity according to the city you are in. You can bring past and present photographs of your city and want students to talk about them. This will motivate students to talk as they know their own neighbourhood better.

Suggested Answer

In the past there wasn't Bosphorus Bridge, people used to cross the sea via the boats. Now people drive on the Bosphorus Bridge. People didn't use to do shopping much as there weren't many shopping malls. People used to come together at home as there weren't many cafeterias. The streets weren't crowded. People used to walk to places they wanted to go. People didn't use to have cars. Now there are plenty of different types of transportation. Also, almost everyone has a car today.

8 LISTENING))

Archie and Elrick are visiting Archie's hometown. Listen to their conversation and tick the place(s) there isn't now.

Audio Script

Track 2

Elrick: Was there a shopping mall there when you were a child?

Archie: There was a little grocery store. We used to buy bread every morning from there.

Elrick: It must be easier to do shopping in grocery store than to do shopping in a supermarket.

Archie: It is true.

Elrick: Did you use to play games with your friends in this yard?

Archie: No, there wasn't such a yard when I was a child. Instead, there used to be an old townhouse and an old lady used to live in it.

Elrick: How about my grandma?

Archie: She used to live in here. But, the building isn't the same. This must be new. Also there was an old public fountain there. I used to meet with your grandma in front of it. But, I can't see it now.

Answer Key

grocery store, townhouse, grandma's house, public fountain

9 WRITING

Prepare some interview questions about memories and old habits. Make an interview with an old person in your family by using the questions and share your interview results with your classmates.

This is a follow-up activity. You can tell students to do it at home as homework. Tell the students to ask the questions to their grandparents or parents if they don't have grandparents. Certainly they ask the questions in Turkish as their grandparents may not know English. But, they should translate their answers into English. Ask them to write minimum 8 questions.

Suggested Answer

1. What is your earliest memory from your childhood?
2. Did you use to be a hard-working student when you were in primary school?
3. Did you use to go for a walk everyday as you do nowadays?

Optional Activity

If you would like you can apply this activity in your class.

“A Puff from the Past”

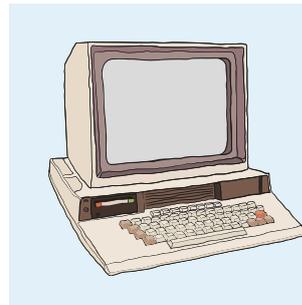

In this speaking activity, students talk about how things were in the past using “used to” “didn’t use to”. Before the lesson make, one photocopy of the drawings for each group of three and cut the cards as indicated. In the lesson, divide students into groups of three and distribute them the cards and tell them to shuffle them. Demonstrate them how to play the game by taking a card and describing it. For example; families. “Families used to be large consisting of grandparents. The communication among the family members didn’t use to be weak.” Then tell students to do the same. They take turns to pick up cards and talk about how it was in the past. For each sentences made with “used to/didn’t use to” correctly, give one point. Limit the time to 30 seconds for each sentence. Give a student from each group the responsibility of timing and awarding points. If a student talks less than 30 seconds, he or she gains no point. In the end, the one who has the most points is the winner.

Track 6

Man gave names to all the animals
In the beginning, in the beginning.
Man gave names to all the animals
In the beginning, long time ago.

He saw an animal that liked to growl,
Big furry paws and he liked to howl,
Great big furry back and furry hair.
“Ah, think I’ll call it a bear.”

Man gave names to all the animals
In the beginning, in the beginning.
Man gave names to all the animals
In the beginning, long time ago.

He saw an animal up on a hill
Chewing up so much grass until she was filled.
He saw milk comin’ out but he didn’t know how.
“Ah, think I’ll call it a cow.”

Man gave names to all the animals
In the beginning, in the beginning.
Man gave names to all the animals
In the beginning, long time ago.

He saw an animal that liked to snort,
Horns on his head and they weren’t too short.
It looked like there wasn’t nothin’ that he couldn’t pull.
“Ah, think I’ll call it a bull.”

Man gave names to all the animals
In the beginning, in the beginning.
Man gave names to all the animals
In the beginning, long time ago.

He saw an animal leavin’ a muddy tail,
Real dirty face and a curly tail.
He wasn’t too small and he wasn’t too big.
“Ah, think I’ll call it a pig.”

Man gave names to all the animals
In the beginning, in the beginning.
Man gave names to all the animals
In the beginning, long time ago.

Next animal that he did meet
Had wool on his back and hooves on his feet,
Eating grass on a mountainside so steep.
“Ah, think I’ll call it a sheep.”

Man gave names to all the animals
In the beginning, in the beginning.
Man gave names to all the animals
In the beginning, long time ago.

He saw an animal as smooth as glass
Slithering his way through the grass.
Saw him disappear by a tree near a lake...

- b What can be the last animal referred to in the last line?*

Ask students to guess the last animal referred to in the last line of the lyrics.

snake

- c Write one more line for this song.*

Edward: Enjoy your meal sonny.

(the telephone rings)

Jason: This must be grandma as she said she would call us. (Answers the call) Hello grandma!

Sophie: Hello Jason. What's up?

Jason: Nothing much. We're about to eat a pizza.

Sophie: Are you with your father?

Jason: Yes, I'll put you on speaker.

Sophie: Hello from somewhere in the world my sweeties! How is it going?

Edward: Not bad. I know you can't be at home. Where are you this week?

Sophie: I'm a crazy retired grandma! Can you both see the phone? I'll send you some photos of here. Guess where I am.

Jason: OK, fire away!

Sophie: OK, picture 1.

Edward: This might be a pyramid.

Sophie: Yeah, you are on the right track.

Jason: Then you must be in Egypt.

Sophie: Well, you've failed. Now look at picture 2.

Edward: As for me, this may be the ruins of an ancient civilization.

Jason: Or, this might be an abandoned house in a village.

Sophie: You're right Edward.

Jason: Are you in Greece?

Sophie: OK, you've failed again. Look at picture 3.

Edward: Ahh, so relaxing. Nature is excellent.

Jason: You must be in paradise.

Sophie: ☺ A paradise on earth!

Edward: Might you be in Miami?

Sophie: Oh, no! OK this is your last chance. Picture 4.

Edward: Yeah! I know this. This must be Mayan Mask Temple, mustn't it?

Overview

Vocabulary: words related to transportation; vacation types, words related to holidays

Listening: Listening to and completing a dialogue to make a reservation, getting simple information on travel

Pronunciation: practicing intonation in question tags

Speaking: making a reservation before travel; talking about the things they would like to do on holiday

Reading: matching vacation types with the pictures; highlighting the means of transport in the text; discovering the differences between easily confusing words

Grammar: question tags; present perfect tense

LEAD IN

Answer the following questions.

Make up a story of how tired you get while coming to school and going back home. Talk about your need to take a few days off. Tell students to look at Module A. Have a discussion with students about the topic of the module. Ask: What might we be studying in this unit? Tell them to answer the lead in questions. Ask them to state their reasons while answering.

LISTENING & SPEAKING

1 VOCABULARY

a Underline the means of transport in the dialogue below.

As a whole class, make a list of the means of transport on the board. Group them as 'land, sea, and air'. Tell students to scan the text and underline the means of transport. Go over new vocabulary. First, ask students to try to guess unknown words from the context before using a dictionary.

Answer Key

car / train / plane / coach

b Listen and write the names of the means of transport.

Students are going to listen to the sounds of eight vehicles. Ask them to listen carefully and guess the sounds of different vehicles. Play the recording and have students check their answers.

Audio Script

Track 1

Recording of the sounds of 8 vehicles.

Answer Key

Number 1 plane
Number 2 motorcycle
Number 3 bike
Number 4 ship
Number 5 lorry/truck
Number 6 train
Number 7 helicopter
Number 8 car

c Unscramble the letters and find the means of transport.

Set a time limit of 2-3 minutes. Have students work on the scrambled letters to find the means of transport.

Answer Key

1. Train 3. Subway 5. Jeep
2. Coach 4. Scooter

REMEMBER THIS!

In this box, some verbs and prepositions are presented to make a short revision of the verbs and prepositions on travel.

Remind students that in general;

we GO by				we ARE in a bike	car	train	plane	car	van	lorry	taxi ship	sea	tram	lorry	we ARE on we GO on foot				train	plane	bus	boat

2 READING

a Match the types of the holiday with the pictures.

Students look at the pictures and read the list of holiday types. Tell students to tell any other holiday types if they know. Tell them to write the type of holiday under each picture. Check students' answers.

Answer Key

1. Camping holiday
2. Sightseeing holiday
3. Beach holiday
4. Skiing holiday
5. Safari holiday

To extend the activity, ask: What do people usually do on each kind of holiday? What items do people need when they go on these types of holiday?

- b Read the phone call between Alison and Kenzy and then the blog. Decide if the sentences about Kenzy are true (T) or false (F). Correct the false ones.

Ask students to read the phone call. Write these questions on the board: Who is Kenzy calling? Have they seen each other lately? Why not? What does Kenzy want Alison to do? After students answer the questions, read the blog and decide if the statements are true or false. Ask students to correct the false statements.

Answer Key

1. True
2. True
3. False. There are photos of her childhood with friends.
4. False. Kane broke his ankle while playing beach volleyball.
5. False. She has only one photo from the winter holiday.

- c Read the dialogues below and discuss what kind of holiday they might be going to.

Put students in pairs and have them read the short dialogues and find which holiday people might be going. Ask them to share the clues they used with class.

Answer Key

1. The customer is going on a safari holiday.
2. Their son is going on a camping holiday.
3. Son is going on a skiing holiday.

As a follow up activity, students can make a few sentences by giving clues- but not the name- about a holiday type for other students to guess it.

3 SPEAKING

- a Talk to your friends about the type of holiday you prefer, where you would like to stay, and things you would like to see.

Talk about your holiday preferences first to help students to understand what is expected.

Give students a few minutes to think about the answers. Encourage them to use other holiday types they might think of. Get them work in pairs. Tell them to mention the topics given in a chart. Later, ask students to share their answers with the whole class.

4 LISTENING))

- a Listen and fill in the blanks to complete the missing parts of the dialogue.

Before starting the exercise, ask students: Do you know what a travel agent does? Which other holiday related jobs do you know? How do people plan their holiday? Why do some people go to a travel agent's to plan their holiday? Where do you and your family usually go on holiday? How do you plan your holiday? Play the recording and tell students to complete the dialogue while they are listening.

Audio Script

Track 2

(At home)

Mr. Mill: We haven't talked about our holiday this year yet.

Mrs. Mill: Yes. We should start planning. What type? Where?

Mr. Mill: Well, I haven't thought about it. Have you?

Mrs. Mill: Neither have I. How about going to a travel agency and seeing what they offer.

Mr. Mill: It sounds good.

(At the travel agent's)

Mr. and Mrs. Mill: Hi! We are Mr. and Mrs. Mill and we want to plan a ten-day holiday.

Travel agent: Hi, Mr. and Mrs. Mill. What type of holiday are you planning?

Mrs. Mill: We both like sun, sea, and swimming. We want a beach holiday. And some sightseeing as well.

Travel agent: I suggest that you go to Turkey if you haven't been there. It is a perfect place for you.

Mr. Mill: No, we haven't. How long does the flight take from here to Turkey?

Travel agent: A bit long, about 13 hours - direct flight- but it is worth it.

Mr. Mill: Sure. I have heard of it before. And the accommodation?

Travel agent: There are hotels, holiday resorts, and all the other ways of accommodation. Here are some brochures about Turkey.

Mr. Mill: OK. We will have a look and then get in touch with you again.

Answer Key

- | | |
|--------------------|------------------|
| 1. ten-day holiday | 4. accommodation |
| 2. sightseeing | 5. with |
| 3. how long | |

b Cover the dialogue, listen again, and answer the following questions.

Have students read the questions 1 to 5. Tell them to cover the dialogue and just listen to the recording. Ask students to write the answers down. Then, tell them to do peer check of the answers. Set a time limit of 3-4 minutes to give feedback to each other. Check the answers as a whole class.

Answer Key

1. They will be on holiday for 10 days.
2. She thinks Turkey is the perfect place to meet their holiday expectations.
3. Yes, it does. It takes about 13 hours.
4. Yes, there are many options from holiday resorts to local houses.
5. No, they haven't decided yet.

5 SPEAKING a Role play:

Organize class as Student As to be someone who wants to go on a holiday and Student Bs as a travel agent. Give enough time to students to get ready. Student As organize some questions to ask. The questions might be:

- What attractions does the country have?
- Has it got important monuments to see?
- What is the natural landscape like?
- What kind of activities can I do there?
- Where can I stay?
- What facilities can I find at the hotel?
- How long does it take to get there by train?
- What is the weather like in winter? etc.

Encourage students to add their own questions. Write the questions on board as a list. Tell students to answer these questions which might be asked to them. The answers don't have to be correct about the country. Students can provide imaginary information. Ask one student A and one Student B to come to the board. Have them role play. Monitor, but don't interrupt students' fluency. Take notes on students' mistakes to go over as a class afterwards.

b Give a short presentation to your class.

This exercise can be given as homework. Students might bring some photos as well to talk about their holidays. While presenting, monitor but don't interrupt students' fluency. Take note of any general language points to go over later.

READING & WRITING 1 PRONUNCIATION))*a Listen to the rising and falling intonations of the questions.

Draw students' attention to the pictures. Ask them: For the first picture, does the girl know if the bus goes to Kızılay or not? (No, she doesn't) For the second picture, what is the weather like? (It is nice, I can see it myself) Let them listen to the intonations of the two questions and see the difference. Ask them to repeat. Explain the rule for the intonation.

Audio ScriptTrack 3

1. This bus goes to Kızılay, doesn't it?
2. It is a nice day, isn't it?

b Complete the sentences to write the rule for intonation of question tags.

Ask students to fill in the sentences about the rules of falling and rising intonation.

Answer Key 1. rising 2. falling c Listen to the intonations and decide if they are "real" questions or just to "confirm".

Tell student to be careful about the intonation of tag questions to differentiate whether they are real questions or were asked just to have confirmation.

Audio ScriptTrack 4

1. You said you are hungry, didn't you?
2. Samuel lives in an apartment, doesn't he?
3. Your son is in my class, isn't he?

- d Write five sentences that you think are true about your friend. Ask them to your friend to see how well you know him or her. Use tag questions with falling intonation.

Before starting the exercise, draw students' attention to the box to revise the formation of question tags.

REMEMBER THIS!

In this box, usage and formation of question tags are presented to have a quick revision of what students have already learned.

After revising the box, ask students to write five sentences- in any tense/negative or positive - about a friend who they think they know well. Later, have them ask confirmation questions with falling intonation and see if they are right or wrong. At the end of the task, ask them: How well do you know your friend? How many things have you guessed correctly?

2 READING

- a You are going to read Sarah's letter to a friend. Look at the list of words taken from her letter and guess what the letter is about.

Tell students to look at the list of words taken from Sarah's letter. Ask them what the words have in common or what the words remind them. Let students have a brainstorming and a discussion about the things that the words remind them. Ask individual students to share their guesses.

Answer Key The letter is about Sarah's holiday.

- b Read the letter above and put the following sentences into the correct place in the letter.

Get students read the letter and the list of sentences quickly for general understanding. Don't let them to use a dictionary for any words since the aim is to encourage guessing meaning from the context. Tell students to re-read the letter and find the place of each sentence in the text. Allow students time to read for detailed understanding. Check the answers as a whole class.

Answer Key 1. B, 2. E, 3. C, 4. D, 5. A

- c Find the definitions of the highlighted words in the letter.

Students are expected to work on travel related words. Students work individually, matching the highlighted words to the descriptions. Check answers by asking individuals to read the word and definition aloud.

b Work in pairs. Role-play a dialogue to fill in the registration form B. One of you is the receptionist and the other is the guest.

Students work in pairs. One of them is the receptionist and the other one is the guest. Set a time limit for students to work on the topic. When the time is up, have them role play and fill in the registration form in their books. Don't interrupt students' fluency. Make a note of any accuracy problems to go over later.

3 READING

a Read what Judi tells about her neighbour. Underline the sentences in 'present perfect' form.

The aim of this study is to develop students' reading skills and present the target structure within the context. Tell students that there is a new tense here, but don't teach them the structure; have them draw inferences from the text.

CHECK THIS OUT!

In this box, students see a short dialogue in the present perfect tense and read when to use the tense.

Answer Key

My next door neighbour is never at home. She is a real traveller! She has been to at least 30 countries so far. When she comes back, she tells us everything about her visits and brings lots of souvenirs.

While travelling so much, she has met some famous people as well. Once she has met my favourite actor Bruce Willis on the plane. She was on the plane going to Italy last year and Bruce Willis was sitting next to her seat. This is so unfair!

She is not only a traveller but also an adventurer. She has done many different activities including some extreme ones like bungee jumping or cave diving. Five months ago she had a very bad accident and stayed in a hospital for a month, but has anything changed? Is she at home now? Of course not! She has gone to Africa!

b Read the text again and answer the questions.

Tell students to read the text again to answer the comprehension questions. Write the answers on the board as it is a new topic. Ensure that they understand the structure correctly.

Answer Key

1. She has been to at least 30 countries.
2. Yes, she usually shares her experiences with the others.
3. Yes, she has. Once she has met Bruce Willis on the plane.
4. No, nothing has changed in her life.
5. No, she isn't at home now. She has gone to Africa.

4 SPEAKING

a Below is the seventh week score table of two teams from the premier league of Planet Zodia. Look at the table and talk about the teams as in the example.

Draw students' attention to the score table. Encourage them to produce sentences. To motivate and lead students, write a few sentences on the board. e.g. Zodiapower has won 7 matches so far. They have scored 25 goals and they have conceded 6 goals.

b Talk about your favourite team's matches.

Students would be much eager to talk about their favourite team and matches. Have them use the new structure in their own sentences. Ask questions to motivate them to keep talking.

5 Study the CHECK THIS OUT! box and complete the conversations with "been" or "gone".

Draw students' attention to the box. Teach them how to use "been" and "gone" correctly. This is a highly confusing topic among English learners. Working on it in detail can be needed. Send a student out of the classroom. Tell him to go out of the classroom and come back in a minute. Elicit the question "Where has he gone?" since he is not there. After the student comes back, elicit the question "Where have you been?" since he is there. Give a few minutes for the students to work on the exercises. They might work in pairs if it is still challenging for them. Go around and monitor their work.

Answer Key

1. gone , 2. been, 3. gone, 4. been

TODAY'S IDIOM

In this part, students are presented an idiom on travel with its definition. Read the definition and example. Discuss the meaning with students. Have them write a sentence with the idiom.

6 Are the underlined verbs true or false? Tick the true ones, correct the false ones.

Ask students to decide whether the verbs are correct or incorrect. Give them a few minutes to work on the sentences. Ask individual students to state their answers.

Answer Key

- | | |
|--------------------|--------------------|
| 1. ✓ | 4. ✓ |
| 2. Incorrect. Been | 5. Incorrect. Been |
| 3. Incorrect. Been | 6. ✓ |

7 SPEAKING

Ask your friend which cities/countries she or he has been to.

Have students practice the usage of 'been to' by asking questions to each other. You can play the game of 'find someone who' on the topic. Write 5 popular places in the city where the teenagers have probably been to, or 5 cities they might have been to. Tell students to give you names of the students who have been to these places. Tell them to go round the classroom and ask as many students as they can in five minutes to give you names.

READING & WRITING

a Answer the following questions.

Remind students that discussion questions are there to lead them to share their ideas. There is no right or wrong answer to them. Create a positive atmosphere for students to tell their ideas freely.

b Read the text and write the reasons of travelling from the box below into the blanks in the text. There is one extra.

Look at the list of reasons together with students. Work on the new words and discuss the meaning of each reason. Have students read and complete the text choosing reasons from the list. Remind them that there is an extra reason that is not mentioned in the text.

Answer Key

1. Learning
2. Health
3. Religious purpose
4. Developing new perspectives
5. Challenging oneself
6. Work
7. Rejuvenate

- c Which of the reasons in Exercise b are more motivating for the people in your country? Give examples as you discuss your answers to the question.

Make sure that students understand the discussion question clearly. Give them some time to think. Ask them to their ideas.

2 SPEAKING

- a Read the dialogue and find the names of the places. Write them under the pictures. Have you ever been to any of these places? Share your answers with your friends.

Tell students to look at the picture of the two girls first and ask: Who are they? What are they doing? Tell them to read the dialogue. Have two students read it aloud. Go over any pronunciation mistakes. Ask students if they have been to these places. You might get some 'yes' answers. Ask more questions. Draw their attention to the past simple questions to ask about details.

Answer Key

1. The Bosphorus Bridge
2. The Golden Horn
3. Cappadocia
4. The Topkapı Palace

- b Read the dialogue again. Write true (T), false (F) or doesn't say (DS).

Tell students to read the dialogue again for deeper understanding and tell them to write T, F, DS at the end of the sentences.

Answer Key

1. T, 2. DS, 3. T, 4. F, 5. F, 6. F,

- c Who might have said these? Write "Sally" or "Polly".

Tell students to check the dialogue to find out who might have said these sentences.

Answer Key

1. Polly, 2. Polly, 3. Sally, 4. Polly, 5. Sally,

- d Work in pairs. Say where you have been to, what you have done there, and give other details in simple past.

Draw students' attention to the sample dialogue. Tell them to work with a partner to create a dialogue. Ask students to get ready to be student A or B. Tell them to use the information given in their students' book. Give some time to get ready for the details. Call them to act their dialogue out to the class. Monitor and take notes of the pronunciation mistakes to correct when the dialogue is over.

The dialogue keeps going depending of the students' imagination, creativity, and curiosity.

3 WRITING

- a Answer the following questions.

Have students read the questions and give answers.

- b Read the following e-mail from Henry who has been in Japan since last month. Answer the questions below.

Have an individual student to read the e-mail aloud. Ask them: Who wrote the e-mail? To whom is the e-mail addressed to? Where is Henry now? What has he done there up to now? Draw attention to the tenses used in the e-mail.

Answer Key

1. Weather, friends, places, plans
2. He has been to Japan for a month.
3. Yes, he has.
4. He went with his friends.
5. They are going to see Kabuki.
6. Yes, he has used acronyms, short forms, and informal language.

- c Choose a city and write an e-mail from there to your friend.

Tell students to choose a city and imagine that they are there. Remind them the way to write an informal e-mail letter which they draw inferences from the previous exercise. Go around and check while they are writing and have them read their e-mails to the class when they finish.

Overview

Vocabulary: words related to train travel

Listening: listening and identifying movement of things/people in the text/dialogue

Speaking: dealing with situations likely to arise when making travel arrangements, acting out a dialogue in groups to make a travel plan

Reading: reading a text and being able to fill in flight/train schedules for different routes in a foreign country

Writing: being able to prepare a travel guide

Grammar: just/already/yet in present perfect tense

LEAD IN

Answer the following questions.

Make up a story of buying a ticket online and getting on a wrong train. Tell students to look at the name of the module and ask if they know the meaning of the phrasal verb 'set off'. Explain them that it means 'to start a journey'. Ask them: "What might we be studying in this unit?" Discuss what is needed to set off and what kind of arrangements are needed.

Have students look at the questions and tell them to answer.

LISTENING & SPEAKING 1 LISTENING

Listen to the dialogues and answer the following questions.

Tell students that they are going to listen to 3 different dialogues to answer some questions. Have them read the questions first to get ready for what they are going to answer. Remind them not to try to write the whole answers while they are listening. Ask them to take short notes while listening for the first time. On the second listening, they check their notes. Tell them to have separate time to write the answers. Go around the classroom and check and monitor their works. Have one student read the question aloud, have another one to answer.

Audio Script

Barcelona Airport	21:30	İstanbul Sabiha Gökçen Airport	11:05		TK 1287	32B

b Put a tick next to the flight option they choose in the table.

Ask students which flight Tim and Claire choose.

Answer Key The third option

c Check the meaning of "layover flights" and "stopover flights" from your dictionary.

Tell students to use a dictionary to check the meanings and see the differences between two flight words.

Answer Key

Layover flight: switch planes during your journey

Stopover flight: if your layover is more than four hours

3 SPEAKING

What are the pros and cons of travelling by plane? Discuss with your friends.

Tell students to think about the advantageous and disadvantageous points of travelling by plane. Then, make a list on the board for everybody to see. By looking at the list on the board, students produce sentences.

4 Read the dialogue below between Lisa and her grandpa. Underline words related to "time".

Tell students to have a quick look at the dialogue. Draw their attention to the box to study the meanings of the words.

CHECK THIS OUT!

In this box, students are introduced words related to time which are used in the present perfect tense.

After studying the words and their meanings from the box, tell students to underline words related to time which are used in the present perfect tense.

Answer Key

Lisa : Grandpa, Have you cooked the sausages, yet?

Grandpa: Yes, I have just finished cooking them. Are you ready to eat? Have you cleaned your hands yet? Have you set the table?

Lisa: No, we haven't set the table yet, but I have already washed my hands. Give me some, please; I am starving!

Lisa: Eek! Horrible! I have just seen something on my bread!

Grandpa: Honey, it's only an ant. Haven't you ever seen an ant?

Ask these questions to check their understanding. Are the sausages ready? Is the table ready? Are Lisa's hands clean?

5 Look at the pictures below and write what has just happened under each picture.

Tell students to write what has just happened under each picture. Go around and check their work. Write the correct answers on the board to give feedback.

Answer Key

1. He has just washed her hair.
2. He has just fallen off the bike.
3. They have just married.

6 Lin is going abroad on a holiday. She has done some preparations, but not finished all. Write sentences with "yet" and "already".

Tell students to check Lin's to do list. Tell them she has done the things with the (✓) but not others.

While students are on task, go around and make the necessary corrections individually. Ask them to read the sentences aloud.

Answer Key

1. She hasn't changed money yet.
2. She has already bought a guide book.
3. She has already organised care for her pet.
4. She hasn't bought a plane ticket yet.
5. She has already booked a hotel.
6. She has already applied for the passport.
7. She hasn't prepared an itinerary yet.
8. She hasn't asked for some advice yet.

7 Circle the correct word.

Tell students to work on words related to time. Ask them to circle the correct word for each sentence inferring from the sentence.

Answer Key

- | | | |
|-----------------|----------------|---------|
| 1. already | 3. yet | 5. just |
| 2. just/already | 4. already/yet | |

8 What time is it now? Say what you have already/just done, and you haven't done yet up to this time of the day.

Ask students the time and let them think what they have/haven't done until now. Remind them to use words just, already and yet.

READING & WRITING

1 READING

a Answer the following questions.

Read the questions and give students some time to think about them. Have students tell their ideas. Ask them if they've heard of the proverb before. Be sure that the proverb is clearly understood. Ask them if they agree or not. Encourage them to talk by giving some real life experiences.

b Read the pieces of advice from some experienced travellers and find a topic for each from the list below.

2 Mary wants to take a gap year and has some questions to Susan who took a gap year before starting university. Do the following tasks.

a Find Mary's missing sentences from the box below and complete the dialogue

Have students look at the dialogue with the missing parts. Help them to get a gist of the dialogue.

Tell them to read the missing lines as a list. Go over any new vocabulary or phrase. Tell students to read the dialogue in detail and place the sentences into the correct lines.

Answer Key

1. D, 2. C, 3. A, 4. E, 5. F, 6. B, b What other questions would you ask Susan?

Tell students to put themselves in Mary's shoes and ask them which questions they would ask Susan. Students share their questions. Possible questions might be; What are the benefits of a gap year? How did you finance yourself? How did you plan your gap year?

3 Work in pairs. Imagine you are planning to go on holiday in a foreign country and your partner has been there before. Prepare a dialogue asking about his/her experiences. Role-play it in the classroom.

The aim of this activity is to work on 'asking about others' experiences'. Give students plenty of time to organize their work. Go around and monitor the students. Help them to use various tenses correctly.

4 SPEAKING

a Which adjectives do you use to describe a place? Make a list as a class.

Tell students to think of adjectives used to describe a place. They can be either positive or negative, but write adjectives as groups. Remind them that being positive or negative may change from person to person if they express opinion. Make a list of adjectives and write them on the board.

5. This is the most amusing place I have ever been to.

c The Thompsons are trying to make arrangements for the weekend. Read their dialogue and write if the sentences are true (T) or false (F).

Talk about the Thompsons first. Tell students to have a quick look at the picture and cover it immediately. Ask them how many people there are in the family. Have group of students read the dialogue pretending to be the son, daughter, mum, and dad. You may extend the work by asking students to memorize the dialogue and role play it in the classroom. Give students some time to work on the sentences.

Answer Key

1. False, 2. False, 3. True, 4. True, 5. True

- d Work in groups of four. Imagine that you are in your school Travel Club and trying to organise a school trip. Each of you has different ideas about the place(s) to go. Discuss and choose a place to go.

Tell students that they are going to work in groups of four. Ask them to use the phrases or expressions to state opinion, agreement, and disagreement, suggesting, offering, accepting, rejecting, giving reason etc. they have learned so far. Sample expressions to use might be;

Shall we ...

How about....

I don't think it would

In my opinion..

I don't agree...

5 LISTENING)

- a Listen and fill in the blanks below.

Tell student that they are going to listen to a mum reading a bed time story to her daughter. While listening to the story, students are to fill in the blanks. Teach them that these are prepositions of movement. After students fill in the blanks and check the answers, have them read the story once again.

Audio Script
Track 8

Girl: Can you read me one more, mum, please.

Mum: OK. But this is the last.

Girl: OK. Last

Mum: In a land far, far away, there is a pretty girl who doesn't want to sleep. Her mother decides to solve this problem and calls the sleep fairy, Nicy, to the little girl's room.

Nicy's house is far away from theirs, so she sets off early in the morning.

Nicy walks out of her house. There is a river flowing down the hill in front of her house. She walks over the bridge into the forest. She walks through the forest and then she reaches the river. She sails across the river, climbs up the hill, and goes past the witch's house. She walks towards the little girl's house, gets into the house, climbs up the stairs, and finds the little girl in her bed. She touches the little girl with her magical cane and she goes into a very comforting sleep.

However he had to make a choice and with the support of his uncle, he decided to go on with tennis. His uncle also encouraged Nadal to play left-handed as it is an advantage on the tennis court.

When he was just 14, the Spanish tennis federation requested that Nadal move to Barcelona to continue his tennis training. His family didn't accept this request. They did so because they didn't want him to leave his education. Because of this decision, he got less support from the federation. Didn't it make him feel discouraged? Not exactly and nothing could stop him in his successful tennis career. He has won several titles, and also the 2008 Olympic gold medal in singles. He is a part of

Track 7

Speaker: Hi, we are running a street contest about sports. Would you like to join?

Contestant: Yes, I would love to.

Speaker: OK, we are going to ask you three questions about the benefits of sports and if you know all of them, you will win a free registration to our sports centre for two months.

Contestant: Well, OK. Of course. Let me think... I am not very sure. Then, OK.

Speaker: OK, here comes the first one. Which illnesses does doing sports protect us from?

Contestant: I can count many of them, but basically they are diabetes, heart diseases, cholesterol, and cancer and...

Speaker: OK, that's pretty good.

Contestant: But it is impossible to protect yourself totally. It just lowers the risk of these diseases.

Speaker: OK, thanks for the explanation. Second question, which sport is useful for everyone?

Contestant: Walking of course. You can walk at any age. However, you should consult your doctor first.

Speaker: Oh, that's amazing. Here comes the last question. But, we will ask you a difficult one. Are you ready? Which hormone does sport increase? It is also called the happiness hormone.

Contestant: Endorphins 😊 Doing sports also lessens the risk of having heart attacks. It helps you lose weight. Hey I have to tell you something. I am a doctor 😊 LISTENING & SPEAKING 1 LISTENING))*a Listen to people talking about social manners and number the related pictures.

Tell students that they will listen to four people speaking about their experience about manners. You can also ask your students "which speakers experienced bad manners and which ones good manners." Play the recording two times.

Audio ScriptTrack 2

Speaking 1. Hi everyone! I'm Kanye. Every day, I get on the train from Moor Park to Pinner as I'm a student. The train is usually crowded and noisy. But yesterday a man annoyed everybody around him. He talked on the phone aloud. Just imagine! I couldn't even hear the music on my headphone. This was an impolite manner. If you travel by train, you shouldn't talk on the phone so loudly.

Speaking 2. Hello! I'm Edie. We're a big family. It was sunny last weekend and we decided to go on a picnic with our children. We set off and we were happy. When we arrived at the picnic area by a lakeside, we felt bad about the litter around. We spent all day collecting the garbage. How thoughtless the people are! People should be sensitive to the environment. If you want to protect the environment, you had better not throw your litter around.

Speaking 3. My name is Leo. I have broken my leg. For the last two weeks I can walk only with baton. On Thursday I had to go to the nearest supermarket. It was the most difficult day of mine. When I arrived at the cash point, I saw the long queue. I thought I couldn't stand, but a boy gave way to me and let me take his turn. This made me so happy. I really needed that. He was a very considerate person. If you see a person who has a disability in a queue, you ought to give way to him. We really need it.

Speaking 4. Hi Youngster! I'm an old woman. I have trouble in walking due to the pain in my knees. Going up and down the stairs is the most difficult movement for me. Sometimes, I am in the verge of falling. It takes me a long time to go up and down the stairs without any help. Luckily, this morning a gentle boy helped me to go down the stairs of the bus. If he didn't help me, I might have fallen. He was a polite and sensible boy. I really thank him. If you encounter an elder, you should give a hand to her.

Answer Key

A. 2, B. 3, C. 4, D. 1

b Listen again and write the advice people gave in their speeches.

This time students are expected to deduct the given advice. If they don't understand, you can play the recording one more time.

Answer Key

Audio Script

Track 6

Elsie: Welcome to Elsie and James' radio program. What is the question today, James?

James: Today the questions will be about how to be polite. Hey, teenagers we are waiting for your questions. You know we find a way!

Elsie: Oh! Someone is calling. Welcome on board, ☺ your captain is speaking. Hehe! Can you introduce yourself?

Max: I'm Max from Exeter. I'm a high-school student.

James: How can I help you?

Max: Actually, I get on well with my friends. But, sometimes they complain about my making humour. I'm at peace with myself. I poke fun at myself. I like making fun of my friends too. I don't want to be at odds with my friends.

Elsie: It is good to be at peace with yourself. But, never forget, everybody can't be at peace with themselves. You should use humours carefully.

James: Additionally, you had better know the boundaries. You ought not to aim to cause offence and use suitable language for different situations.

Max: Yes, you're right. I will be careful about what you said. Thank you. So glad we have you!

Ellie: Thank you Max.

James: It is really hard to be a humorous teenager.

Ellie: Oh! Another call! Hello! Can you introduce yourself?

Millie: Hello! I'm Millie from Westminster. I'm fifteen.

James: Do you have trouble in being new at school as you are a ninth grade student.

Millie: Actually, no. I'm frequently late for my appointments. OK, this is my bad, but when I get there I apologise for being late. But I don't understand why they get angry with me after I apologise.

Ellie: If you arrange to meet somebody at a certain time, be sure you are on time or even a few minutes early. People consider you as disrespectful if you aren't punctual. If you are going to be late for some reason, you should let people know. Apologise for being late but you shouldn't over do your apologies.

Millie: You're right. It has never occurred to me that they would think I'm disrespectful. I will let people know that I will be late hereafter. The most important, I will try not to be late.

James: You are awesome!

Millie: Thanks for your advice. Bye!

Inform students that Ellie will host a program on the radio about disabled celebrities around the world. Play the record twice.

Audio Script	Track 7
Ellie: Hello from "A Couple of Words" radio program. I'm Ellie. Today we will talk about disabilities. Do you have a disability or a medical condition? If yes, you are not alone. Many people with disabilities have contributed much to society. These include singers, celebrities, world leaders, actresses or actors and so on. Of course, they still live with, battle, and overcome their disabilities every single day of their lives. Today we will recognize some of these famous disabled people and their success stories. OK, let's start with Ludwig van Beethoven. What an amazing musician and composer. By his late 20's his hearing began to deteriorate and he became totally deaf in 1817. He composed 9. symphony, his well-known composition, when he was deaf. You all know Stephen Hawking. He had been a healthy boy until he was 21. He became ALS patient and lost his movement ability and became wheelchair dependent. This didn't prevent him from being a successful physicist. He wrote the book "A Brief History of Time" and he won many prizes. Have you ever heard about Turco-Mongol conqueror and founder of Timurid Empire? His right hand was paralytic and his right leg was lame, so people called him as Tamerlane. Regardless of his disabilities, he was a successful conqueror, commander, and emperor. We have talked about some famous people around the world who overcame their obstacles. They are the symbols of hope. Unless we overcome obstacles, we can't be successful. Goodbye audiences of "A Couple of Words". See you next time.

Lucy: So-so!

The Counsellor: Is there anything I can help you with?

Lucy: I don't take pleasure in doing things that I used to like.

The Counsellor: Did this situation start with the finals week?

Lucy: Yeap!

The Counsellor: Then this situation is temporary. You shouldn't be worried. You must be suffering from exam anxiety.

Lucy: What do you suggest me?

The Counsellor: If you have spare time, you should do something with a person you like.

Lucy: OK, I will do this.

The Counsellor: Studying regularly is the most important thing for reducing the exam anxiety. To do this, you ought to prepare an individual study schedule.

Lucy: Thank you, sir. I will prepare one as soon as possible.

The Counsellor: If you have trouble in preparing an individual study schedule, I can help you.

Dialogue 3

3. Suggested Answer: Teens are changing every day. They try to find who they are.

Audio Script

Track 10

Ellie: Hello from the radio program "We Find A Way!". James and I, Ellie, will talk about you teens and your parents today. Some teens have troubles with their parents. We will find a way for you to solve your problems.

James: You're right, Ellie. Hi teens. First and foremost, I want you to know that what you're feeling right now is 90% temporary.

Ellie: I agree with you, James. Everything they are crying about will make them laugh in about five years. They are still in the process of developing their personality. So they can change easily.

James: So do their feelings.

Ellie: When you go to college, you will settle into who you are. Not now!

James: But, when you are in high school, it is like you're going personality shopping.

Ellie: Therefore, sometimes your parents can't catch up with your changes in your moods.

James: Oh, your parents! Unless they are treating you really badly, you will understand their concerns. You'll regret years when you quarrelled with them.

Ellie: You should know that they know some things more than you and they don't want to see you hurt.

James: I remember having some conversations with my parents. We sometimes said the same thing, but I always misunderstood.

Ellie: You'll miss them when you go away for college.

James: Let's have a break, Ellie. See you after the song "Let's call the whole thing off" by Ella Fitzgerald and Louis Armstrong. Enjoy the song.

Ellie: See you, teens.

Track 11

"Let's Call the Whole Thing Off"

Things have come to a pretty pass
Our romance is growing flat,
For you like this and the other
While I go for this and that,

Goodness knows what the end will be
Oh I don't know where I'm at
It looks as if we two will never be one
Something must be done:

You say either and I say either,
You say neither and I say neither
Either, either Neither, neither
Let's call the whole thing off.

You like potato and I like potahto
You like tomato and I like tomahto
Potato, potahto, Tomato, tomahto.
Let's call the whole thing off

But oh, if we call the whole thing off
Then we must part
And oh, if we ever part, then that might break
my heart

So if you like pyjamas and I like pyjahmas,
I'll wear pyjamas and give up pyjahmas
For we know we need each other so we Better call the whole thing off
Let's call the whole thing off.

You say laughter and I say larfter
You say after and I say arfter
Laughter, larfter after arfter
Let's call the whole thing off,

You like vanilla and I like vanella
You saspiralla, and I saspirella
Vanilla vanella chocolate strawberry
Let's call the whole thing off

But oh if we call the whole thing off then we must part
And oh, if we ever part, then that might break
my heart

So if you go for oysters and I go for ersters
I'll order oysters and cancel the ersters
For we know we need each other so we
Better call the calling off off,
Let's call the whole thing off.

I say father, and you say pater,
I saw mother and you say mater
Pater, mater Uncle, auntie let's call the whole thing off.

I like bananas and you like banahnahs
I say Havana and I get Havahnah
Bananas, banahnahs Havana, Havahnah
Go your way, I'll go mine

So if I go for scallops and you go for lobsters,
So all right no contest we'll order lobster
For we know we need each other so we
Better call the calling off off,
Let's call the whole thing off.

Answer Key

This weekend probably will be the worst and the most tiring of all. We've been so busy for the last two weeks that we even haven't eaten dinner as a family all together. My wife, Laura, has a seminar upstate, so she had been getting ready for it and this Friday she will be back home. I have worked overtime almost every day. My teenage son, Jack and daughter, Lily had been preparing for the exam week. The house is in a mess. If we don't do all the chores together, no one will be able to finish cleaning alone in time. So, we all will share responsibilities. The kids will have to tidy up their bedrooms and change their beddings. I for myself will vacuum the carpets, clean the windows and I mustn't forget to water all the plants. I have to change cat's litter, too. Poor CoCo! My wife will clean the kitchen, cook dinner, and do the laundry. I like ironing the clothes so I will do it. She will hang out the clean clothes and fold the dried ones. I will take out the garbage as I do every day. My daughter always helps her mum dusting the shelves. I suppose she will do it again. Also, my son likes mopping the floors. I think he will do it, too. We have a little backyard. I will mow the lawn and sweep the pathways. My son will help me as always.

We always share the household chores. Every day we all have some responsibilities. Our children are aware of their responsibilities and they carry out what they should do. They make their beds every morning before they leave for school and they help setting the table. If Laura does the cooking, I always wash the dishes and our children always help setting the table. We are a family living in the same house, so my wife is not the only person responsible for the household chores. We should all pitch in together.

b Read the text and find the names of the family members from the text.

Ask students to find who does which household chore and by this way want them to identify the people.

Answer Key 1. Laura 2. Lily 3. Jack 4. Oliver

c Read the text and answer the questions.

Ask students to read the text for specific information and answer the comprehension questions.

Answer Key

1. Because the house is in a mess.

2. This Friday she will be at home.

3. Oliver likes ironing the clothes.

4. LAURA: does the laundry, cooks dinner, cleans the kitchen, hangs out the clothes, folds the dried clothes.

OLIVER: vacuums the carpets, cleans the windows, waters all the plants, changes cat's litter, irons the clothes, takes out the garbage, and mows the lawn.

JACK: cleans and tidies up his bedroom, changes his beddings, sweeps the pathways.

LILY: cleans and tidies up her bedroom, changes her beddings, dusts the shelves.

5. He thinks Laura is not the only responsible for the household chores.

2 WRITING

- a Suppose that your house is in a mess and you should clean your house this weekend. Plan the chore sharing among your family members. Write a paragraph between 100 and 150 words.

Ask students to write their families' household chores sharing for one weekend.

Students' own answers.

- b Prepare your family's "to do list" for this weekend.

2. If you have a spot, we always find a way!
3. If you take fresh walnuts in your hand without rubber gloves, they blacken your hands.
4. If you pour sugared tea and it dries, the spot becomes permanent.
5. If your spot is new and tea is sugar free, you can wipe it with lemon juice and rinse with cold water.

Audio Script

Track 13

Ellie: Hello from our radio program "We Find a Way!".

James: We have a guest today. She is a master cleaner. She is from Quick Solutions University. She is Assoc. Prof. Dr. Mrs. Pure. Welcome Mrs. Pure.

Mrs. Pure: Thank you!

James: If you have spots on somewhere and don't know what to do, listen to Mrs. Pure's every word.

Mrs. Pure: I see an ink spot on your sweater Ellie.

Ellie: Ooww! What a scandal! What if we are doing a TV program?

Mrs. Pure: If you have a spot, we always find a way!

James: Hehe!

Ellie: What should I do?

Mrs. Pure: Well! Wipe it with some lemon juice and milk. When you rinse it, the spot will disappear.

James: Really?

Mrs. Pure: Uh-hu!

Ellie: I will do it.

James: Here some messages from our listeners. They have asked many questions. Let's start with the first one. Our listener Adam asks "I have picked up fresh walnut, my hands has turned to black. I couldn't remove the colour. What do you suggest?"

Mrs. Pure: If you take fresh walnuts in your hand without rubber gloves, they blacken your hands. You should wipe your hands with vinegar and wash them with cold water.

Ellie: Here is another question from our listener Nancy, "I have poured tea on my new white sweater. What should I do?"

Mrs. Pure: If you pour sugared tea and it dries, the spot becomes permanent. If your spot is new and tea is sugar free, you can wipe it with lemon juice and rinse with cold water.

James: These are all life-saving tips. After a break, we will be together again. Enjoy the song "If you go away by Terry Jacks". This song goes out to your spots 😊

- c Decide which sentences above are general truth or possible condition.

Ask students to find which sentences are general truths.

Track 14

LYRICS OF THE SONG

If you go away
 On a summer day
 Then you might as well
 Keep the sun away
 All the birds that flew
 In the summer sky
 And our lovers knew
 And our hearts were high
 And the days were young
 And the nights were long
 And the moon stood still
 With the night birds song

If you go away (3)
 But if you stay
 I'll make you a day
 Like no day has been
 Or will be again
 We'll sail on suns
 We'll ride on the rain
 We'll talk to the trees
 We'll fly with the wind

But if you go away
 And I love you so
 They'll be nothing left
 In the world you know
 Just an empty moon
 Full of empty space
 Like an empty look
 I see on your face

If you go away (3)
 But if you stay
 I'll make you a day
 Like no day has been
 Or will be again
 We'll sail the suns
 We'll ride on the rain
 We'll talk to the trees
 We'll fly with the Speaking: comparing different countries' specialties

Writing: writing a recipe

Reading: matching pictures with vocabulary about food; finding out cuisines of different countries

Grammar: passive voice

LEAD IN

Answer the following questions.

Ask students to think what the human universals are. Remind them that the existences of anatomical human commonalities are out of this discussion topic. According to the level and interest of your group, share the 'additional information' with them to lead students to further studies. Encourage them to discuss the topic.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Abraham Maslow developed the Hierarchy of Needs model in 1940-50s in the USA. It is still valid today for understanding human motivation.

Biological and Physiological needs - air, food, drink, shelter, warmth, sleep, etc.

Safety needs - protection from elements, security, order, law, limits, stability, etc.

Belongingness and Love needs - work group, family, affection, relationships, etc.

Esteem needs - self-esteem, achievement, mastery, independence, status, dominance, prestige, managerial responsibility, etc.

Self-Actualization needs - realising personal potential, self-fulfilment, seeking personal growth and peak experiences.

c Listen to Alice and Oliver at the supermarket. Tick the food and drinks they mentioned in Exercise a.

Tell students that they are going to listen to a couple at the supermarket. Refer students back to Exercise a. Have them tick the food and drinks in the list as they listen.

Audio Script	Track 2
Alice: Oliver, look at all those food around. They all look mouthwatering! Oliver: They are leek, marrow, and onion, Alice! You are very hungry, that's the reason. Let's do the shopping quickly and go home. Alice: I want to spend some time here looking around. Can you see the fried chicken over there? We must buy it. Oliver: OK Alice, we will. Look at your shopping list. What do we need for the week? Alice: We need to buy some fruit. Those strawberries look so fresh. Shall we buy some? Oliver: OK. Go and get some. Don't forget to buy some kiwis as well. They are my favourite. Alice: We need some yoghurt and olives, too. Oliver: OK. I'll get them. Wait for me at the cash point and leave that chocolate in your hand, Alice! Alice: You are a real pain in the neck! a Look at the pictures and answer the questions below.

As a warm up to the text, ask the questions to students and discuss their answers. Encourage them to talk about their ideas freely. It might be a good opportunity to revise some structures such as comparative and superlative forms, present perfect tense for experiences, expressions of asking and giving ideas, agreeing, disagreeing, and other functions.

b Read the descriptions of the foods in the pictures. Write the names of the foods and countries in the blanks.

Ask students to read the descriptions. By looking at the pictures, students try to guess the name of foods. Countries that the foods belong are not easy to guess. Draw students' attention to some clues which might help them. For example, Bologna- a city in Europe, spicy curry soup- usually from Far East; salsa and chilli pepper associated with South America etc. Check the answers by asking individual students to read.

Answer Key

Alice and Oliver mentioned :Leek, marrow, onion, fried chicken, strawberry, kiwi, yogurt, olive, and chocolate.

d Put the words in Exercise a in the correct category. Add two more to each category.

Tell students to work on the items in Exercise 1 and categorise them as "Diary Products, Vegetables, Fruit, Sweet/Desserts, Drinks and Others." Ask students to add two more for each category. Any food and drinks are acceptable.

Answer Key

	BROCCOLI

3 SPEAKING

- a Work in pairs. Ask and answer questions about your favourite food and drinks as in the example.

As students have learned and revised many words related to food and drinks, ask them to talk about their favourites. Draw their attention to the example in their books. Give students time to think of the questions to ask to their pairs. Set a time limit of 3-4 minutes. With one pair of students, produce a sample dialogue at the board. After the sample dialogue, tell students to work with a partner to have similar dialogues. Go around and monitor students' work.

- b Use your dictionary and check the meanings of the adjectives in the table below. What does each category describe? Write a heading from the box.

Ask students to use their dictionaries to check the meanings of adjectives to describe food. Divide the class into four groups and ask them to check the words in their groups. Then tell them to explain the words to the other groups. Finally, ask students to write the correct heading for each group of adjectives.

Answer Key

1. Texture , 2. Flavour, 3. Opinion , 4. Smell

- c Talk about some food or drinks you like or dislike and state the reasons with the adjectives in Exercise b.

Encourage students to tell some food or drinks they like or dislike by using the adjectives in Exercise b. Remind them to use the adjective of opinion first when they list the adjectives.

- d Tell three food items or drinks.

Give some time to students to think about the food items and drinks. Then, ask them to add the names. Since this is a personal preference, there is no right or wrong answer. Have them talk about the reasons of their preferences, their experiences, or any related topic.

- e Think of a food. Describe it to your friends without telling its name. Use the texture, smell, and flavour adjectives in your description. Let your friends guess the food.

To demonstrate how to play this game, go first. Keep a food in your mind and describe it by using several adjectives. Students try to find the food. The one who knows the item comes to the board and describes his or hers. E.g. We usually eat many of them for breakfast. It is oily. Some people call it a fruit, some vegetable. It is salty and I think it smells divine. (OLIVE)

READING & WRITING

1 READING

- a Answer the questions below.

Students are going to read a dialogue about cooking. As a warm up study, ask the questions to students to discuss. As a further lead in practice, the following questions might be asked: "What do you think about cooking? Who cooks in your family? Have you ever cooked anything? At what age do people learn cooking?"

- b Read the dialogue and underline the verbs about cooking.

Tell students that they are going to read a phone call between a mother and daughter. Have students read the dialogue. Help with the pronunciation of new words. Ask them to underline the cooking verbs that the mother and daughter use in their dialogue.

Answer Key

wash, remove, slice, cut, add, put, mix, pour, serve

- c Look at the pictures and write the verbs about cooking from the text. There are two more verbs which are not included in the text.

Ask students to write the cooking verbs under the pictures. Remind them that there are two more verbs which are not included in the text.

Before doing the exercise, lead students to the box. Study the box with students.

CHECK THIS OUT!

In this box, students are introduced to the passive verb forms. The steps of a process were given to students to draw inferences about the new verb form. Ask them to read the steps of making a Jack o'lantern (Halloween lantern) which is presented in the passive verb forms. Refer back to Exercise 2. The aim of this exercise is to get students work on the passive verb form and direct their attention to the environmental issues. Have students read the sentences in the exercise. Draw their attention to the subjects who/which don't perform the action/verb in the sentence. Give students some time to work on the sentences. Check the answers as a whole class.

Answer Key

1. was destroyed
2. haven't been planted
3. will be planted
4. is being organized

3 Match the parts to see how the green house effect happens and its result.

Write 'green house effect, climate change, carbon food print, environmentally friendly' on the board ask students if they have heard of these terms before. Have a discussion of 3-5 minutes. Then, tell students to look at the table in their book and read the parts. Work on the new words if there are any. Have students match the parts to make sentences. After matching the parts, have students take turns to read the sentences and check the answers.

Answer Key

1. Too much carbon dioxide is released into the atmosphere by the human activities.
2. Carbon dioxide is absorbed by the plants through the leaves.
3. Forests are cut down for different reasons.
4. Heat is trapped near the soil by the green house gases.
5. Serious climate changes are caused by the green house effect.

DO YOU KNOW THIS?

In the box, one of the biggest reasons of the green house gases is presented. Encourage students to discuss the other reasons and things to be done to stop green house gases. Lead students to use passive sentences.

4 Choose the suitable verb from the list below and fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verbs.

Ask students to find the correct verb for the blanks and use them in passive form. Remind them to be careful of the tenses. Make a revision of the verb forms if necessary. Go round and check their progress.

Answer Key

1. has been given
2. were destroyed
3. will be built
4. be taken

5 Answer the following questions and test your general knowledge.

Tell students to answer the questions by themselves to see their score. The exercise is to revise passive voice therefore, remind them not to guess the answers to the question if they are not sure.

Answer Key

1. b) Walt Disney
2. a) Antonio Vivaldi
3. c) Mediterranean Region
4. c) Ertem Eğılmez
5. b) the UK
6. b) China
7. a) Pablo Picasso
8. b) the kidneys
9. a) a dog
10. a) tennis

6 Write two more questions by using 'passive' and ask them to your friends.

Tell students to add two more questions structured in the passive form.

7 WRITING

Write how the banana milkshake is prepared by using the pictures and verbs given.

Tell students to look at the pictures which are in correct order to make a banana milkshake. Remind them to use passive verbs and write the necessary steps.

Answer Key

1. First, a banana is peeled.
2. Then it is sliced.
3. After that, they are put into a blender and blended.
4. Later, ice and milk are added in the blander.

Track 3

Betty: Hi Linda, what's up?

Linda: Hi Betty. Nothing much. What are you up to?

Betty: Mum's gone out to visit a friend and I wanna make a surprise cake. Can you text me the recipe of your White Cake?

Linda: Are you kidding? It is too long to text. Shall I send the picture of it?

Betty: There is something wrong with the Internet connection here today. Can you read it?

Linda: OK. Wait, I'll take the cooking book. Here it is. Are you listening?

Betty: Yep, keep going.

Linda: Oven is heated to 160 °C.

A cup of milk, 6 egg whites, and 3 teaspoons of vanilla are put into a bowl and mixed until it is blended.

2 cups of cake flour, 1,5 cups of granulated sugar, 4 teaspoons of baking powder, and 1 teaspoon of salt are put in a mixer and 1 tablespoon of unsalted butter is added.

They are all mixed together for one or two minutes. 1/2 cup of milk is left behind and the remaining milk is added to the mixture. It is kept mixing for two more minutes.

Remaining half cup of milk is added and mixed for another minute. Batter is poured in the pan and is baked for 30 minutes. That's all.

Betty: Thank you Linda. It is a piece of cake! Let me start at once. I'll let you know the result. Bye.

Linda: Bye, Betty. See you later.

4 LISTENING)

a Listen to the Radio LMB giving a recipe. Write the missing words of the ingredients list while listening.

Tell students that they are going to listen to a guest giving a recipe. Ask them to write the missing words in the ingredients list while they are listening.

Audio Script	Track 5
A: Hello and welcome in today's radio-show here at Radio LMB with Mike Ribiza. We have a guest here today to give you a delicious recipe. Hello Jessica. You are the mother-of-four and a natural cook, aren't you? What is the name of the food?

B: Actually it doesn't have a name. I made it up myself. It is very easy to cook, kids like it, and that's it.

A: It is home-made and healthy. That's important. And we can ask to our listeners to give a name, shall we?

B: It would be nice.

A: Ok everybody. Listen to Jessica's recipe and e-mail us your suggestions on the name. You already know our e-mail address. Yes Jessica we are listening to you.

B: OK. This dish makes 8-10 servings. Let me start with the ingredients. We need 2 large sweet potatoes, 2 large carrots, 2 teaspoons of chopped rosemary, 1 tablespoon of olive oil, some salt and pepper, and 1 tablespoon of balsamic vinegar.

A: They are all from the kitchen. You don't need to go out for shopping. That's nice. Now here come the steps!

B: First, the oven is preheated to 180°. Then, all the vegetables are washed, which is very important, and chopped in small pieces. All the chopped vegetables are put in a large bowl. A large bowl because you are going to mix them there well. Chopped rosemary, oil, salt and pepper are added to the bowl and mixed thoroughly. Vegetables are poured in a large baking pan. They are baked, uncovered- don't let the air get into the oven-, for about 1 hour or until vegetables get soft. Before serving, vegetables are mixed with balsamic vinegar. Finally, it is served with fresh lettuce leaves. Bon appétit.

A: Thank you Jessica for this healthy and delicious food. It made my mouth water.

And, you listeners don't forget, we are waiting for your suggestions for the name. Now on the show, comes...

Answer Key

2 large SWEET potatoes

2 large carrots

2 TEASPOONS of chopped rosemary

1 tablespoon of OLIVE oil

SALT and pepper

1 tablespoon of balsamic VINEGAR

b How many servings does this dish make?

The question 'How many servings does this dish make?' might not be familiar to the students. Explain that the question asks 'How many people is this dish for?' Play the recording once more if necessary to find how many servings the dish makes.

Answer Key

8-10 servings

c Listen again and put the steps in the correct order.

Remind students that it would help to pay attention to the sequencing words like 'first, then, after that, finally' etc. to put something in the correct order. Play the recording once again and ask them to put the steps of cooking in the correct order.

Answer Key

1. g, 2. d, 3. b, 4. f, 5. c, 6. e, 7. a, 8.e

d Suggest a name for the dish.

Ask students to give a name to the dish. There is no right or wrong answer in this exercise. Have them use their imagination.

Possible Answers

tasty veggies, sweet veggies, veggie love, tasty veggie miracle

As an optional activity, students who are interested in cooking and using technology might enjoy preparing a video. It can be done as homework and presented in the classroom.

LISTENING & SPEAKING

1 LISTENING)

a Listen to Edward and Lisa talking about food etiquette around the world and fill in the missing words or phrases.

Tell students that they are going to listen to a dialogue between a brother and a sister. Play the recording and have them fill in the missing words or phrases.

Audio Script

Track 6

Edward: Hey sis. What are you doing? Are you reading a diet book again?

Lisa: Ha-ha, very funny. I am reading a book about food and drink culture, customs and etiquette around the world. If you yourself read some things in your entire life, you will learn not to eat all those junk food.

Edward: Thanks for reminding! You know what? You drew my attention. What rules of etiquette are there in other countries?

Lisa: There are lots of examples. Let me read a few interesting ones. Here it says "It is good to burp at the dinner table in China." If you don't burp, the host will think that you didn't like the food.

Edward: Burping? That's interesting.

Lisa: Here is another one from China again. "Flipping the fish while cooking is really bad luck. If you flip, the fishermen's boat will capsize," they say. Look! This one is good for you bro. "In some parts of Asia, slurping while eating noodle is considered polite."

Edward: Don't mess with me Lis!

Lisa: OK. OK. "If you don't shake the cup of the coffee when you finished, they will keep on pouring you more."

Edward: Where on earth does it happen?

Lisa: Bedouins in Middle East. Last piece is from Portugal. "If you ask for salt and pepper on the table, it is considered offensive because it means you are questioning the cook's ability."

Edward: And in our country "Bananas should be eaten with a fork and knife". Let me go and get one, and eat it traditionally!

Answer Key

Answer Key

- | | |
|-------------------|--------------|
| 1. Burp | 3. Junk food |
| 2. Draw attention | 4. Keep |

a Discuss the following questions.

In this exercise students are expected to talk about culture, customs, and etiquette around the world. Start asking about traditions in general. Tell students to think for a while and then talk about it. A few sentences are acceptable as students may not be old enough to discuss the subject in depth. Ask: "How do the traditions emerge?" to start the discussion. Students are led to the topic of food culture, custom, and traditions.

Possible Answers

1. Traditions are important because they give people the feeling of belonging to a community. They are also important as a heritage from the ancestors.
2. Almost in each fields of life people have traditions; how to eat, how to sleep, how to dress, weddings, funerals, hosting, parenting, etc.
3. Some more food etiquette around the world:
In France one must keep hands on the table at all times. Not in laps.
In China don't finish all your food, leave a small amount on your plate to show that the host is generous and gave you more than enough.
In India be sure to finish your meal because wasting food is disrespectful.
In Poland do not begin eating until everyone has taken food on their plates and the host invites you to start.
4. The honoured guest is served first, then the oldest man, then the rest of the family. At the end of the meal, it is appropriate to thank the host or hostess for a wonderful meal. The guest says "Bless your hand," and the host answers "May what you eat bring well-being." You should arrive on time if dinning is done at home.

b Discuss and match the food etiquette to the countries.

Tell students to read the food etiquette and try to guess which countries they belong to. Encourage them to associate the etiquette with countries by pointing out some words in the sentences e.g chopstick, or their general knowledge about countries. These exercises are there to lead, encourage, and motivate students to talk. Any topic related contributions are all welcome.

Answer Key

- | | | |
|-------------|----------------|----------|
| 1. China | 3. Turkey | 5. Korea |
| 2. Thailand | 4. Philippines | 6. Japan |

c Prepare a poster showing different countries and some food etiquettes. Display and present it in your class.

This exercise can be done in the classroom or given as homework. Tell students to prepare both contextually and visually attractive posters. Give clear directions about how to prepare the posters. One should see the whole world map and a short food etiquette attached on the countries.

3 READING

a Do you believe in superstitions? Even if we don't, we know many superstitions. Match the superstitious results with the conditions.

Ask students what they think of superstitions. Some might believe, some might not. Don't let them criticize or judge each other. Create a positive atmosphere to express themselves freely. Tell them to match the superstitious results to the conditions. Have students work on them individually. Later, ask them to peer check. Finally, check the answers as a whole class.

Answer Key

1. e, 2. a, 3. f, 4. c, 5. d, 6. b, b Read the dialogue between Lisa, an exchange student in Turkey, and Nazlı. Find the superstition excluding "knocking on the wood".

Tell students to read the dialogue and find the superstitions which are mentioned in the dialogue. Work on the new words. Encourage students to try to guess the meaning from the context. If they can't, let them use dictionaries.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Paganism is an ancient religion. This ancient religious outlook remains active in the world today both in advanced civilisations such as Japan and India and in less advanced tribal societies world-wide.

Answer Key

Crossing fingers

c Are the sentences true (T) or false (F) according to the dialogue?

Ask questions to students to check their comprehension of the dialogue.

Answer Key

1. True, 2. False, 3. False, 4. False, 5. True, 6. False

4 Study the sentences in the REMEMBER THIS! box and complete the rule.

Draw students' attention to the box. Before studying the information within the box, ask them what they remember about the structure. Make a further revision if necessary.

REMEMBER THIS!

In this box, the structure and usage of Type I conditional are presented to students to revise. Remind students what the condition and the probable result are.

Ask a student to read the two clauses. Remind students that these two clauses can change places. If the main clause comes first, comma isn't necessary. Tell students to fill in the blanks by looking at the sample sentences.

Answer Key

We use SIMPLE PRESENT TENSE in the conditional clause, and WILL in the main clause to talk about real or probable situations in the present or future.

TODAY'S QUOTE

After doing Exercise 4, you can refer to the quotation from Yogi Berra (1925-2015), the famous American baseball player. Discuss what he means by this sentence. Ask them if they know any quotations, idioms, proverbs, or expressions in their mother language which have similar meanings. Encourage students to explain them in English.

Possible Answer

One should have plans to realise, intentions and aims to achieve in life.

5 Match the conditions to the probable results.

Allow students a few minutes to read the two halves and then match them. The aim of this study is to be able to match the possible situations and probable results. Make them peer check first and then check the answers as a whole class.

Answer Key

1. d, 2. f, 3. b, 4. c, 5. a, 6. e

6 Read the probable situations and add a result.

The aim of this activity is to state the possible condition by using present simple, and to produce the probable results by using "will" correctly. Tell students to study the example and do the others as in the example.

Possible Answers:

1. If I have time tomorrow, I will visit you.
2. If his father comes home early, he will take them to the zoo.
3. If Gram leaves Susan, she will be very sorry.
4. If I finish the housework before noon, I will go out with my neighbours.
5. If you don't keep my secret, I will tell yours.

7 Play the chain game. Start with the sentence "If I have time tomorrow, I will go to the cinema." "If I go to the cinema, I will buy some popcorn."

This is an easy class game that can be played with any number of students. Say the sentence "If I have time tomorrow, I will go to the cinema."

Ask the first student to use your main clause part as a conditional clause. He or she will start "If I go to the cinema, ____." The next student uses the main clause and state a result. Keep on doing like this until the last student produces a sentence.

8 READING

a Do you know any festivals around the world? What festivals are there in your country?

As a lead in to the text, ask the questions to students. Some very popular festivals a round the world might be stated. If they don't know or remember any, remind them some and talk about the festivals.

UNIT NOTES

Overview

Vocabulary: electronic devices

Listening: noting down the reasons why people need technological devices

Speaking: talking about preferences about technological items

Reading: reading about areas in which technological items are developed and used

Writing: writing a formal e-mail

Grammar: relative clauses; expressing cause and effect

LEAD IN

Answer the following questions.

Draw students' attention to the picture on the right top of the students' books' page. Ask them what they see in the picture. Ask them which devices they use a lot in daily life. Finally, encourage them to discuss the term Digital Era for a few minutes. Optionally, write Digital Era on the board and do a brainstorming activity.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

WHAT IS DIGITAL ERA?

The time period characterized by the existence of digital technology.

LISTENING & SPEAKING

1 VOCABULARY

a Look at these photos and write the names of electronic devices in the blanks.

Draw students' attention to the pictures. Ask students to find out the names of the electronic devices in the pictures. It is expected from the students to name the devices in this part which are commonly used in daily life. Answers can be written on the board so that students will be able to match the devices with the photos.

Answer Key

- | | |
|-----------------|-----------------------------|
| 1. Mobile phone | 5. Flash disk /memory stick |
| 2. Tablet PC | 6. Laptop |
| 3. Camera | 7. Game controller |
| 4. TV | |

b How often do you use these devices in your daily life? Is there a device that you never use in the pictures?

Ask your students how often they use these devices. Ask them whether there is any device which they never use. Ask them to explain their reasons of not using these devices.

c Match the two halves of the sentences to identify the devices and their functions.

This part is the introduction part of relative clauses which students are going to see the examples in many activities. Ask your students to find the halves of the sentences according to the functions of the devices. The aim of the activity is to encourage students to discover the function of the structure as well. The function of which in the sentence can be asked to the students and it can be noted that relative clauses function as adjectives do because both adjectives and these clauses define a noun.

Answer Key

1. e, 2. d, 3. c, 4. b, 5. a

2 What can you do with the devices given in the table below? Write down their functions and share it with your friends. Use the phrases given below in your descriptions.

Students go over the box in which they see a list of gadgets. Ask your students why they use these gadgets and what their functions are. Encourage them to use the phrases that are given in the box. One of them is given as an example. Tell students that the phrases can be used more than once.

3 LISTENING))

a Look at the picture and describe what you see in the picture. Do you think this person needs technology in his life?

Ask students to look at the photo and encourage them to talk about the young man in the photo. Encourage them to discuss whether the person in the photo needs technology or not.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Language Etiquette for Disabled People in English Language

In English language, it is not appropriate to say “handicapped people” as it has some associations with “cap in hand” which is associated with “begging”. Rather than saying “handicapped or invalid”, it is appropriate to say “impaired people”. Rather than saying “mentally handicapped”, it will be better to say “people with learning difficulties”.

- b Listen to the podcast of a teenager who is talking about why we need technology. Complete the sentences.

Explain students that they are going to listen to the podcast of a teenager who is talking about why we need technology. Students complete the sentences as they listen and they write down the reasons why people need technology and technological items. The aim of this activity is to make an introduction to expressing cause and effect as well.

Audio Script

Track 1

In today’s podcast, we will discuss why we need technology. Technology has been a debated topic for long. Few people think that technology is more harmful than its being useful. I believe we need technology due to many things. Today I am going to introduce you some people in my life so that you will understand how they use technology and why they need them. I have a friend whose name is Sandra. Sandra needs her hearing aid all the time as she has hearing impairment. She can go on her education and life with the help of her hearing aid. There are a lot of devices invented for people with disabilities. This technology is called “assistive technology”. These items increase the functional capacities of these people. Stephen Hawking, for example, can give lectures to students by typing his words to a keyboard because he cannot move or speak. I have a classmate called Laura. Since she is physically disabled, she can go on her education with the help of her wheel chair. Technology is not just necessary for people who have disabilities. We all need technology. Let’s look at the life of my family as an example. We need our home appliances such as washing machine, vacuum cleaner, dish washer, etc. We save a lot of time when we use them, so we need them all the time. At school, visual materials are very effective in learning; thus, all my teachers use smart boards in our lessons. Farmers also need to use technological devices in agriculture owing to the huge demand for food. There is an increase in population. As a result, food demand is increasing day by day. These are just a few benefits of technology. To sum up, although it has some harmful sides, this is just a drop in the bucket.

Answer Key

1. I believe we need technology due to many things.
2. Sandra needs her hearing aid all time as she has hearing impairment.
3. Stephen Hawking, for example, can give lectures to students by typing his words to a keyboard because he cannot move or speak.
4. She can go on her education since she has a wheel chair.
5. We save a lot of time when we use them, so we need them all the time.
6. At school, visual materials are very effective in learning, thus; all my teachers use smart boards in our lessons.
7. Farmers also use technological devices in agriculture owing to the huge demand for food.
8. There is an increase in population. As a result, food demand is increasing day by day.

CHECK THIS OUT!

Different ways of expressing purpose are used in the sentences given in the box. Ask students to read the box and do the speaking activity.

4 SPEAKING

Are you for or against technology? Do you think we need technology? Why, why not? Explain your reasons using the expressions in bold in Exercise 3b.

In this part, students will be able to talk about whether they are for or against technology and we need technology or not. Optionally, students can be divided into two groups according to their opinions and they can exchange their ideas by doing a debate activity. Encourage your students use the expressions stated in the CHECK THIS OUT! box.

5 EVERYDAY ENGLISH))

- a Look at the photo of two friends and guess what they are talking about.

Ask students to look at the photo on the top of the page in the students' book. You can ask the following questions in order to encourage them to join the lesson:

- ◆ Can you describe the people in the picture?
- ◆ What are they doing?
- ◆ Why are they looking at the laptop screen?

- b Listen to the dialogue of two friends about their preferences in using technological tools and fill in the blanks with the correct words.

Ask your students to listen to the dialogue and fill in the blanks. The dialogue is about talking about preferences and expressing personal opinions. Play the recording twice for students to record their answers. Check answers as a class.

Audio Script	Track 2
Jim: I am planning to buy a new tablet so that I can save my documents easily.
Katie: I don't prefer using a tablet for my documents. I 'd rather use a PC than a tablet. I believe this is more practical.
Jim: Oh, this is not my cup of tea. I 'd rather use a tablet for sure because I just want to carry my documents everywhere I go easily. You know I stay in dormitory and I have to carry my stuff at the weekends. Also, in my room there is no table. According to me, using a PC is not very comfortable on a bed.
Katie: Oh, I see. So, you can buy a smart phone instead. It will be very handy then.
Jim: I have a smart phone, but for me it is not very useful for documents. I generally do not prefer mobiles for reading documents as the screen is too small to view them.
Katie: Yes, I think buying a tablet is the best option then.
Jim: Yes, it is. So, I am planning to go shopping tomorrow. Do you prefer coming with me or staying at home?
Katie: I 'd rather stay at home . I have a lot of homework. I believe it would be better for me.
Jim: OK, then. See you later!

Answer Key

- | | |
|-----------------|--------------------------|
| 1. don't prefer | 4. for reading documents |
| 2. I'd rather | 5. Do you prefer |
| 3. I'd rather | 6. stay at home |

- c Listen again and underline the expressions in the dialogue which state personal opinions.

a Listen to three teenagers talking about social media and find out if they are for or against social media.

This is the introduction part of the listening activity. In this listening, students listen once and decide whether these three teenagers are for or against social media. Play the recording once and check answers as a class.

Audio Script

Track 3

Mark: I believe social media is useful if it used properly in a limited way. I believe it has many advantages. It enables you to keep in touch with your friends and your family members. You can upload your photos very easily and share them with your friends and even tag them! You can also post messages about your own ideas, which helps people to know you better. This is amazing dude!

Derya: I hate social media. It completely damages people's privacy. Using social media causes security problems, too. Someone can steal your password and hack your social media account. I really can't understand the rationale behind sharing all the moments of one's life either. If I want to share my happiness with my friends and my family, I prefer face to face communication for sure. How can a person be happy without seeing the gestures of his friends? Oh! You can think we have smileys now rather than gestures. Nowadays people prefer to use them to describe their feelings in social media. I believe that's also awful. It hides people's real feelings, that's all.

Helen: Everybody is against media, but all of them use it. If you have an addiction to social media, it can harm your life. In my opinion social media is not harmful if you act carefully while using it. Firstly, you should set your privacy regulations carefully. You can have just a few people that you really want to be your friends or to follow you. Using social media has many advantages. For example, when you upload photos, there is no risk of losing them. It is a good way of storing memories. Also, you can easily know what is happening worldwide. Moreover, you also have a chance to ban people so that they can't communicate with you. You have a chance to communicate with whom you would like to and express your ideas about everything. As a result, I believe we are very lucky because we live in a digital era.

Answer Key

Mark - for, Derya - against, Helen - for

- b Whose ideas are they? Write Mark (M), Derya (D) or Helen (H) next to the statements.

Ask students to read the sentences before the recording. Play the recording second time. In this part, students find out whose ideas they are. The first letters of the names are given in the answer key.

Answer Key

1. D, 2. M, 3. D, 4. H, 5. D

- c What do you think about their answers? Whose ideas do you agree with the most? Why?

Ask students what they think about the ideas of these teenagers and whose idea they agree with most. Encourage students to explain their reasons.

- 3 Complete the following sentences with your own ideas.

In this part, students are expected to use the words they have learned in the vocabulary part in their speeches. Give an example for the first sentence. For example, I ban someone from my social media account when she or he uses a bad language. Ask students to complete the missing parts of the sentences with their own ideas and share them with their friends.

4 SPEAKING

Discuss the answers to the following questions with your friends.

This is the discussion part of the module. In this part there are several questions about social media users and the ones who don't prefer to use social media. First ask your students whether they use social media or not and ask them to raise their hands if they do. Probably, there will be more students who use social media. Ask the ideas of your students individually.

Optional Activity

To encourage critical thinking, the discussion activity can be done in the form of a debate. Two groups (one of them is against and one of them is for the media) can be created and a jury can analyze how they defend their ideas.

5 PRONUNCIATION))

Linda: Carol, can you please turn on the TV?

Carol: OK. Oh, Look! There is a cartoon about superheroes in a minute.

Incisu: Let's watch it. I like superheroes. They are brave and strong.

Linda: Yeah, Why not! They have supernatural powers and they try to make the world a better place. I like that!

Carol: I wish I were a superhero. Heroes can do things that others can't do. Fantastic!

Íncisu: Hey! I'm also a hero today. I helped my mum in the kitchen.

Carol: Íncisu, you're so cute! You really have courage to face with difficulties like superheroes! (Laughs)

Íncisu: (Screaming and Laughing) Yay! I'm a superhero!

Linda: Sssh! Íncisu you're not a hero! Be quiet! It's beginning.

- b Listen to the next part of the conversation. Now they are watching a short cartoon about superhero(ine)s. Tick (✓) the abilities of the hero(ine)s they mention.

Tell students that they are going to listen to the second part of the conversation. Read them the instruction and let them listen to conversation twice and tick the abilities they hear.

Audio Script	Track 2
Linda: Look! ¹ He's invisible , wow!
Carol: Yeah! ² He can also throw fireballs from his hands , unbelievable!

3. hit/ would get
4. were/wouldn't let

4 PROJECT TIME

Imagine that you are a superhero(ine). What kind of supernatural powers would you have? What kind of suit would you wear? What would you do with these supernatural powers? Describe yourself to your friend so that he/ she can draw your picture as a hero. Then let him/ her tell himself/ herself and you draw him as a hero. Present your hero posters in class.

Tell students that they are going to prepare a poster of themselves as a superhero(ine), but before that let them talk about their supernatural powers and their physical appearance as hero(ine)s with their partner. If they wish, they can also draw their pictures.

TODAY'S PROVERB

Write the proverb on the board and discuss its meaning. Ask students if they know any other proverb which has a similar meaning to this one.

Students' own answers.

5 LISTENING))

a Do you like going to the cinema? Which film have you seen last? Did you like it? Why/ Why not?

Ask students the questions and encourage them to talk about the movies they have seen recently. Students' own answers.

b Fill in the missing parts in the dialogue below by using the words in the box. Then, listen and check.

Ask students if they remember any movies in which they got bored while watching. Draw their attention to the photo of the activity and ask them where these people are, what they are doing, and how they feel. Then, read the information about the listening activity and ask students to read the given words and the dialogue quickly. Then play the recording. Let students listen to it twice.

Audio Script

Ahmet: Do you like the film, Robert? I'm a bit ¹ bored.

Robert: The scenes are fine, but the main hero is ² awful.

Ahmet: Well, I didn't like him as well. If I were him, I ³ would cure the diseases. What would you do if you were in his ⁴ shoes?

Robert: Not sure, but ⁵ probably if I had supernatural powers, such as healing I could ⁶ help those sick people.

Ahmet: Oh! Come on, the ⁷ break is over. Let's see what will ⁸ happen in the next part. I wish they ⁹ could help those sick people and ¹⁰ rescue them.

Robert: Yeah, we'll see. Let's go.

6 Work in pairs. Choose a film which you and your friend have both seen and talk about it. Tell your ideas about the characters, scenes, plot, etc.

Read the instruction to class and while students are talking in pairs monitor them and encourage them to make hypothetical sentences by comparing themselves with the characters of the movies. Give them some time to express their feelings and thoughts.

7 VOCABULARY

a Match the adjectives with their definitions.

Students are expected to expand their vocabulary. Help them guess the meaning of the adjectives and match them with their definitions. After that, check their answers as a whole class and make sure students understand the meaning of the words by letting them use the vocabulary in a sentence. Before they give examples, give sample sentences to guide them.

Answer Key

E	B	A	O	W	G	L	O	N	M
Z	A	M	A	D	H	A	E	G	G
I	N	S	P	I	R	I	N	G	S

Allow students to complete the puzzle either in pairs or individually. They can also exchange their books and check the answers of their friends.

8 GAME

Play “Hang Man” with the adjectives above. You can add other adjectives you know as well.

Ask students to suggest some other adjectives to describe superhero(ine)s and list them on the board. Then tell them that they are going to play “Hang Man” with these adjectives. Divide the class into two groups and play the game.

9 WRITING

Write a paragraph between 100 and 150 words describing your imaginary hero(ine). Then, form groups of 4 or 5 with your friends and write a scene with your characters and act it out in class.

Give the writing part as an assignment and then do the acting part in class or guide them both as a class activity. Tell students that they are going to write a paragraph about their hero(ine)s. Remind them to use the vocabulary that they studied in this module. After they finish their writing, have some of them read their paragraphs. Then form groups of 4 or 5 and ask them to write a scene using their characters. While they are working in groups, walk around and help them if necessary. When they all finish, ask each group to come to the board and act out their scenes one by one.

LEAD IN

Answer the following questions.

Draw students’ attention to the title of the module and ask them what they understand. Make sure they know the meaning of “patriot” and “land”. Then ask them the lead in questions.

Answer Key

1. a, 2. b, 3. Students’ own answers.

TODAY’S PROVERB

Read the proverb and discuss it in class. Ask students to share their ideas.

LISTENING & SPEAKING

1 SPEAKING

This is a warm up for the listening activity in which clarification expressions will be practised. For this reason, you can act out as if you do not hear your students well and use some of these expressions before you start doing the exercises. Then, ask your students to look at the picture and let them talk about it. Make them guess the people and let them answer the questions.

2 LISTENING

a Listen to the conversation between Melanie, her friend Sabri, and his grandpa and tick (✓) the sentences you hear.

Read the instruction and ask students to tick the expressions they hear.

Answer Key

1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9

b Listen to the conversation once more and then answer the questions.

Ask students to read the questions first. Then, play the recording once more and make sure students answer the questions.

Answer Key

1. He is 87 years old.
2. Their project topic is "Patriots of Turkey".
3. He cried all day.
4. No, because he can't hear well. So, he doesn't understand what they are asking.
5. They'll search on the Internet.

Track 6

Sabri: Grandpa, do you remember the day Atatürk died?

Grandpa: I'm not quite clear what you say.*
Can you speak up a bit? *

Sabri: What I ask is, do you remember the day Atatürk died?

Grandpa: Oh! Of course I do.

Melanie: How old were you then, grandpa?

Grandpa: I didn't catch what you said.
Could you please repeat that?.

Melanie: How old were you?

Grandpa: I'm 87 years old.

Melanie: Grandpa, I have a question. I asked how old were you when Atatürk died.

Grandpa: Oh, I see. I was only a child; an eleven year old boy, but I do remember. I cried all day. He was a real patriot, a great leader. He was a military genius. Everybody was crying.

Sabri: We are going to make a presentation on patriots of Turkey, grandpa. We are looking for comments about Atatürk and searching for the quotes of some world leaders. We have a few questions. Will you help us?

Grandpa: Could you say that again?

Sabri: It's OK. No problem grandpa.

Melanie: Let's search on the Internet Sabri. Well, thanks grandpa.

Grandpa: Excuse me? I don't get what you say.

Sabri: We are in our room. Bye, grandpa.

Grandpa: OK. Go and study your lessons. Well done kids.

3 READING

a Read the article that Sabri and Melanie prepared about Atatürk for presentation. Then, choose the sentence which summarizes it best.

Let students skim the article quickly and answer the question individually.

Answer Key Sentence 1

b Answer the following questions according to the article.

Ask students to read the text in detail and discuss it in class. Give students time to answer the comprehension questions. Then check their answers.

Answer Key

1. to meet Atatürk
2. genius people
3. because it has such a great leader
4. Atatürk was the hero of him because he admired Atatürk when he was young.
5. because of the reforms he did

c Make a search and find more quotes about Atatürk or about another patriot from your history and prepare a poster about him or her.

This activity can be either done as an assignment or a group work in class. Let students search for the topic and do the activity. Then ask them to present their projects in class.

CHECK THIS OUT!

First, explain what "clarification" means and then read the instruction. Teach the difference between asking and giving clarification. Choose two students and ask them to read the sample dialogue.

4 LISTENING

- a Students taking a history class are at an Art Museum with their teacher. They are looking at the paintings of important people. The museum is very crowded because it is the weekend. Read the conversation below and fill in the missing parts with the clarification expressions.

Before you read the instruction, let students talk about the picture and then ask them if they have been to a class trip before. Ask them to share their experiences. After that, explain what is going on in the reading and get them fill in the missing parts. Tell them to use clarification expressions which they will come up with and which best suit the blanks.

- b Listen to the conversation and check your answers.

When students finish filling in the missing parts of the passage on their own, play the recording and let them check their answers.

Audio Script	Track 7
Ms. Osborne: OK. Class, have you got any questions?
Student 1: Ms. Osborne, shall we visit the patriots' room?
Ms. Osborne: ¹Can you speak up a bit?
Student 1: Are we visiting the patriots' room?
Ms. Osborne: ²I'm not quite clear what you mean.
Student 1: What I'm trying to ask is if there is a room where the private objects of these heroes are exhibited.
Ms. Osborne: Oh, yes. We'll be there in a minute. Come and follow me.
Student 2: Teacher, when are we having lunch? I'm starving.
Ms. Osborne: ³I don't get what you say.
Student 2: I'm hungry Ms. Osborne.
Ms. Osborne: Well, let's have lunch first. We are all tired and hungry. We can go on our tour later.

TODAY'S QUOTE

Talk about Mevlana in class. Mention his philosophy and sayings. Let students use their dictionaries and try to find out what he means in his quote. Tell them that they can discuss it in pairs and help each other.

Answer Key

- Suggested Answer Lion is a very strong and a powerful animal which is always the winner. However, the fight within a person himself is so big that it is easier to beat a lion than himself, his ego.
- Students' own answers.

5 SPEAKING

Choose one of the situations below and prepare a dialogue with your partner. Use the clarification expressions in CHECK THIS OUT! box. Then act it out in class.

Students are expected to choose one of the given situations and write a dialogue first. Then they act their dialogues out in class. Tell them to use the expressions in CHECK THIS OUT! box. Walk around and help students if they need it.

6 DISCUSSION TIME

Work in pairs. Categorize the moral, national, and cultural values below. Add one more value to each column and discuss them in class.

Read the words given and make sure that students know their meanings. Ask students to find some other expressions similar to them which express moral, national, and cultural values. Categorize them on the board. Encourage them to discuss the values together.

Answer Key

Moral Values	National & Cultural Values

2 SPEAKING

Work in pairs. Talk about patriotism with your partner. Search about a hero(ine) in your history. Present him or her to class.

This is a pair work activity. Brainstorm about the patriots from your history together with students. Write some of their names on the board and talk about patriotism for a while. Then, encourage students to work in pairs and discuss the topic together. After they decide on a name and make a search about a hero(ine), get them present their work. You can also give preparation part of the presentation as an assignment.

3 WRITING

What makes someone a hero(ine)? Write a composition about 150-200 words. First make an outline for your composition and take notes. Write 3 paragraphs; first an introduction, then a body, and finally a conclusion.

Give a brief explanation of the steps that students are going to follow while writing their composition. Ask them to give a title to their composition and take some notes about the topic. You can ask the question "What makes someone a hero(ine)?" to class and make a sample outline on the board to guide them. In addition, inform students about introduction, body and conclusion paragraphs. Give necessary help and walk in class while they are writing.

Overview

Vocabulary: words and phrasal verbs used to describe heroism.

Pronunciation: practicing word stress with compound words

Listening: listening and filling the missing parts of the given lyrics; placing the headings to the passage, finding out the true and false statements of a listening text.

Speaking: expressing unreal wishes at present; expressing opinions about everyday hero(ine)s; talking about their ideas on a given idiom and/or a proverb.

Reading: guessing the meaning of the phrasal verbs from the context; identifying true and false statements according to the given article; finding out the ideas in a poem.

Writing: composing a poem about wishes; writing a short article about a hero(ine) from the daily life; comprehending the meaning of a proverb and writing a paragraph about it.

Grammar: expressing wishes in present; distinguishing present and future wishes.

LEAD IN

Answer the following questions.

In order to introduce students to the new module, ask the lead in questions and have them discuss their ideas.

LISTENING & SPEAKING 1 SPEAKING

a Look at the picture below. Who do you think they are? Do you think they are married? Why are they dressed like that?

Ask students to look at the picture and talk about the couple in the picture. Get them tell their opinions.

Suggested Answer

They are a married couple and heroes to their children.

b Read the quote from Bobby Bonilla. Whom does he talk about as the real heroes? Try to explain his quote.

Before discussing the quote, give brief information about Bobby Bonilla. Later, get them discuss his quote in pairs first and then tell their opinions to class.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Bobby Bonilla is a famous American baseball player who played in 6 All Star Games and won 3 Silver Slugger Awards (given to the best offensive player). He gained million dollars and he was the highest paid player between the years 1992 and 1994.

Suggested Answer

He is talking about parents as the real heroes to their children.

2 LISTENING))

a Listen to the poem and explain what it means.

Ask students if they like poems. Then tell them to read the poem in pairs and explain what they understand from it to each other.

Audio ScriptTrack 8

I wish I were a pigeon
Dancing above the clouds,
In order to find you
I wish I could fly
Up and up through the sky.
I know you are my angel now,
Floating above.
I wish I were a hero,
Who could find you
And bring back somehow.

Suggested Answer

In this poem the poet misses his beloved who is dead. He wishes he could fly and find her in the sky.

CHECK THIS OUT!

Before writing poems about wishes study the CHECK THIS OUT! box with students.

b Write a poem with your partner in which you express your wishes about a better world.

This activity can either be given as an assignment or can be asked to be done in class in pairs. Tell them that they are going to write a poem. Monitor students and help them if they need it.

3 SPEAKING

What are your wishes? Make a list and compare your lists with your friends. Try to make similar sentences like the ones in the CHECK THIS OUT! box above.

First tell the meaning of “wish” and give examples using wish clauses. Talk about your wishes, then study the CHECK THIS OUT! box together. Show the difference between present and future wishes and read the examples. After that, ask students what their wishes are and get them talk about them.

4 LISTENING

a Look at the photos below. What do you think has happened and what is going on? Talk about each picture.

Ask the question and tell students to look at the pictures and talk about them. Ask them to guess the disasters in each picture and guess their headings.

b You are going to hear three radio news about some hero(ine)s who helped people during a disaster. Listen and match the headings with the pictures.

Read the instruction and play the recording. Tell students to find the answers individually.

Answer Key

Audio Script

Track 9

1. Fire at the kindergarden (Picture B)

Kindergarten was saved from fire at Toronto yesterday afternoon. Investigations found the cause of the fire to be an electrical fault. “Luckily it was quickly reported and there was a fast response as the damage could have been a lot worse.” said the officer. He also said “The roof is damaged a lot, but the buildings can be repaired. Thank God everybody is safe. The kindergarden teacher Ms. Jones saved all the kids’ lives by opening the rear door of the building. She risked her life and rescued them all. She is a real heroine.” The Toronto Fire Department managed to extinguish the flames within an hour. “The damage could have been a lot worse.” said a woman who lives nearby. “Many thanks to the teacher; she immediately called the fire department.” 2.

2. Suffering for food (Picture C)

After the hurricane in South Korea, help from many authorities was sent to the area. There were also secret heroes who helped people as well. “I remember a lady who didn’t sleep for days and cooked for us.” said one of the survivors. “We were injured and put into a tent. She was there all the time. Nobody knew her real name. We called her ‘Angel Heart’. She supplied food and clothes to people who were suffering.” said another victim. Due to the cold weather, people were all staying inside the tents since many buildings were damaged or destroyed totally.

3. Rescue from the Flood (Picture A)

A man was rescued from his van after it got stranded in floodwater. The incident happened in Malaysia, following the heavy rain that hit on Tuesday. Rescue Service crews were called to the scene at 5 pm. A spokeswoman for the service said “One of the crew jumped into the water and rescued the driver from the van moments before the floods washed it away. The rescue service crews saved many other lives as well. They were real heroes.” There is still a danger because of the unpredictable weather” say the authorities and ask people to leave their homes and go to safer places.

5 WRITING

Think of such stories about everyday hero(ine)s from your daily life and tell these stories to your partner. Then, work together and write a short paragraph about your hero(ine)s. Use 100-120 words.

Ask students whether they like the hero(ine)s in the listening activity. Give an example of an everyday hero of your own and encourage students to talk about such stories and heroes. They can talk about the hero stories they heard or experienced. After a while, tell them to pick a story in pairs and write a short paragraph about an everyday hero similar to the ones in the listening part.

6 SPEAKING

- a Do you know who Plato is? What do you think he wants to say in his quote below?

Allow students to discuss the quote in pairs after you give a brief information about Plato. Give them chance to inform their friends if they know about him. Make sure that they know the meaning of “wise” and “accomplished”.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Plato was one of the most important philosophers who was born in Athens, Greece in 420s (BC). He was the student of Socrates and the teacher of Aristotle. He was one of the most important figures of western science, philosophy, and mathematics.

- b Write your own saying about heroism and discuss with your friends.

Students are expected to write their own quotes. Give them time and tell them that they can use their dictionaries. Have them share their sentences with others.

Optional Activity

Ask students to prepare a quotation board in class and write their quotes on it. Get them write 3-4 quotes a day and change it every day until they finish writing the quotes of every one in class.

READING & WRITING

1 READING

- a Talk about the picture on the right. Who do you think this man is? What is he doing?

Tell students that they are going to read an article about a hero from daily life. Read the instruction and let them guess the answers. They can also talk about the picture in pairs.

- b Read the title of the article. What do you think the article is about?

Before reading the text, have students read the title and try to guess the theme of the reading. Students' own answers.

2 VOCABULARY

Fill in the blanks with the words in bold from the text.

Students are expected to skim the text and find out the definitions of the words. They can work in pairs if they need help.

Answer Key

1. hand-tooled
2. magnificent
3. grin
4. admire
5. charming

- 3 Write true (T) or false (F) next to the statements below.

After silent reading, ask some students to read aloud the text and make sure that they understand the context. Give them time to do the exercise individually.

Answer Key

1. T, 2. F, 3. F, 4. T

4 LISTENING)

- a Listen to the song and fill in the missing words.

Give brief information about the song and the singer. Then, ask students to listen to the song and do the exercises.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Mariah Carey is a very popular well known American singer. Hero is one of her hit songs which was recorded in 1993 in her 3rd album. In her song, she says that if we look inside ourselves we will find out our inner power which helps us to find our ways. We have this strength inside because we are all the real heroes. We just need to notice and remember that.

Track 10

Hero

There's a hero
If you look inside your heart,
You don't have to be afraid of what you are.
There's an answer,
If you reach into your soul
And the sorrow that you know will melt away
And then a hero comes along,
With the strength to carry on.
And you cast your fears aside,
And you know you can survive.
So, when you feel like hope is gone,
Look inside you and be strong.
And you'll finally see the truth,
That a hero lies in you...
It's a long road,
When you face the world alone;

No one reaches out a hand
 For you to hold...
 You can find love
 If you search within yourself.
 And the emptiness you felt will disappear...
 And then a hero comes along
 With the strength to carry on.
 And you cast your fears aside
 And you know you can survive.
 So, when you feel like hope is gone
 Look inside you and be strong.
 And you'll finally see the truth
 That a hero lies in you.
 Lord knows
 Dreams are hard to follow,
 But don't let anyone tear them away.
 Hold on,
 There will be tomorrow.
 And in time you'll find the way.
 And then a hero comes along,
 With the strength to carry on.
 And you cast your fears aside,
 And you know you can survive.
 So, when you feel like hope is gone,
 Look inside you and be strong.
 And you'll finally see the truth,
 That a hero lies in you.
 That a hero lies in you...
 That a hero lies in you...

Get students' attention to DO YOU KNOW THIS? box and give both the British and the American spelling of favo(u)r.

5 READING

a Answer the following questions.

This is a pre-reading activity to warm students to the following reading part. Before they do the questionnaire about shopping, ask them what is shopaholism and who is a shopaholic. Then, have them answer the questions and discuss their results with friends.

Students' own answers.

b Work in pairs. Do you know anyone who is addicted to shopping? Talk about him or her with your pair.

This is a pair work discussion activity. Monitor students and give them time to discuss their experiences and ideas.

c Read the article and put the paragraphs in the correct order.

After talking about the topic, ask students order the paragraphs and ask them to read the article individually.

Answer Key

SHOPAHOLISM

3 Some shopaholics are happy even they see shopping packages. Contrary to what is thought, shopaholism can be seen not only in women but also in men. Men prefer mobile phones, electronic goods, automobile parts while women prefer clothes, shoes, perfumes, and household goods. Surveys show that self-esteem of these people is generally low.

1 Shopaholism is a serious problem as well as a psychological disturbance to be treated. People feel relieved, happy, and strong by shopping. However, after a while their mood changes into the opposite.

4 An ordinary woman can shop on average between four and six hours while a shopaholic can do it from 10 am to 7 pm. Besides, it is not necessary for shopaholics to have a certain budget. If necessary, they can borrow money and go shopping. They can go shopping again and again even there are unopened packages at home.

5 These people need professional help. In general, drug treatment or psychotherapy are applied to them. Recently, in some European countries, group therapies are made for shopaholics as well.

2 Shopaholism is also called oniomania. It manifests itself by spending money unnecessarily and uncontrollably. When people feel angry, anxious, or sad, they often feel the need to shop and have pleasure and enthusiasm while shopping and feeling of guilt, distress, and embarrassment in the long run.

6 Write the instructions under the pictures to complete the sentences.

Before starting the activity, create some situations so that you can report some sentences. You can do the following optional activity after students complete the sentences in Exercise 6.

Answer Key

1. He told us to give the books to him.
2. He asked me to read the message.
3. She warned me to drive carefully.

GAME "WHO SAID WHAT"

Before you start the optional activity read CHECK THIS OUT! box to class. Write the reporting verbs and sample sentences on the board. Then, tell students that they are going to play a game and give a piece of paper to each student on which an instruction is written. You have to prepare these activity sheets before coming to class. Have a sponge ball with you, if you don't have any soft ball, you can make it from a piece of paper. Read your instruction then throw the ball to a student and ask him/ her to report your instruction. Then tell the student to throw the ball to another friend and read his/ her instruction. The student who catches the ball reports the instruction.

CHECK THIS OUT!

Read the definition and the sample sentences about reported speech. Give some other extra examples and act out some reporting situations with students.

7 SPEAKING

Margaret and her grandma Dorothy are making cookies. Report their instructions to your friend. Then write them down.

Ask your students to look at the picture and do the activity. After they finish completing the sentences, have them check their answers in pairs.

Answer Key

1. Dorothy asked Margaret to put some butter into the bowl.
2. Dorothy warned her to mix them slowly.
3. Dorothy told her not to pour hot milk.
4. Dorothy told her to add some sugar to the mixture.
5. Margaret asked her to give form to the cookies.
6. Margaret told her not to turn on the mixer.
7. Margaret told her to pass her the flour.
8. Margaret asked her to give her some eggs.
