A- READING

A1. A man had a traffic accident in Vietnam 18 years ago. He was taken to hospital in an ambulance and had an operation. He stayed at the hospital for a while but he was still in pain while leaving the hospital. He often felt sharp pain in his abdomen for years. At last, the doctors took an X-ray of his abdomen and realized that there were scissors inside him . That was the doctors' fault, they had forgotten the scissors inside him! So, there was only one solution, the scissors should be removed at once. The man relied on the same hospital and the same doctors again. After 18 years, the doctors removed the scissors. The man is healthy now.
