True Friendship

I have two best friends called Julia and Robert. I like spending time with them. We usually meet at a café and chit-chat. We talk about lots of interesting things. Julia is honest and funny. She tells interesting jokes and makes me laugh all the time. Robert is a bit laid-back, but I love him very much. He's a cool boy. I get on well with both of them. Julia and I usually share similar hobbies and interests. We enjoy going cycling, reading books and visiting art exhibitions together. Robert is interested in rock and jazz music. He is going to a rock concert next Saturday. Robert and I like playing sports. Basketball and football are our favourite. Julia hates football. The three of us like going to the cinema.

Robert and I like science fiction movies, but Julia prefers western movies. I think our friendship is very strong. We accept each other's differences with respect. By the way, Julia, Robert and I are going to attend a birthday party tomorrow. Julia is very excited because she loves parties.
