İSTİKLÂL MARŞI

Korkma, sönmez bu şafaklarda yüzen al sancak;
Sönmeden yurdumun üstünde tüten en son ocak.
O benim milletimin yıldızıdır, parlayacak;
O benimdir, o benim milletimindir ancak.

Çatma, kurban olayım, çehreni ey nazlı hilâl!
Kahraman ırkıma bir gül! Ne bu şiddet, bu celâl!
Sana olmaz dökülen kanlarımız sonra helâl.
Hakkıdır Hakk'a tapan milletimin istiklâl.

Ben ezelden beridir hür yaşadım, hür yaşarım.
Hangi çılgın bana zincir vuracakmış? Şaşarım!
Kükremiş sel gibiyim, bendimi çiğner, aşarım.
Yırtarım dağları, enginlere sığmam, taşarım.

Garbın âfâkını sarmışsa çelik zırhlı duvar,
Benim iman dolu göğsüm gibi serhaddim var.
Ulusun, korkma! Nasıl böyle bir imanı boğar,
Medeniyet dediğin tek dişi kalmış canavar?

Arkadaş, yurduma alçakları uğratma sakın;
Siper et gövdeni, dursun bu hayâsızca akın.
Doğacaktır sana va'dettiği günler Hakk'ın;
Kim bilir, belki yarın, belki yarından da yakın.

Bastığın yerleri toprak diyerek geçme, tanı:
Düşün altındaki binlerce kefensiz yatanı.
Sen şehit oğlusun, incitme, yazıktır, atanı:
Verme, dünyaları alsan da bu cennet vatanı.

Kim bu cennet vatanın uğruna olmaz ki feda?
Şüheda fişkırarak toprağı sıksan, şüheda!
Câni, cânânı, bütün varımı alsın da Huda,
Etmesin tek vatanımdan beni dünyada cüda.

Ruhumun senden İlahî, şudur ancak emeli:
Değmesin mabedimin göğsüne nâmâhrem eli.
Bu ezanlar -ki şehadetleri dinin temeli-
Ebedî yurdumun üstünde benim inlemeli.

O zaman vecd ile bin secde eder -varsa- taşım,
Her cerîhamdan İlahî, boşanıp kanlı yaşım,
Fışkırır ruh-ı mücerret gibi yerden na'sım;
O zaman yükselerek arşa değer belki başım.

Dalgalan sen de şafaklar gibi ey şanlı hilâl!
Olsun artık dökülen kanlarımın hepsi helâl.
Ebediyen sana yok, ırkıma yok izmihlâl;
Hakkıdır hür yaşamış bayrağımın hürriyyet;
Hakkıdır Hakk'a tapan milletimin istiklâl!

Mehmet Âkif Ersoy

GENÇLİĞE HİTABE

Ey Türk gençliği! Birinci vazifen, Türk istiklâlini, Türk Cumhuriyetini, ilelebet muhafaza ve müdafaa etmektir.

Mevcudiyetinin ve istikbalinin yegâne temeli budur. Bu temel, senin en kıymetli hazinendir. İstikbalde dahi, seni bu hazineden mahrum etmek isteyecek dâhilî ve hâricî bedhahların olacaktır. Bir gün, istiklâl ve cumhuriyeti müdafaa mecburiyetine düşersen, vazifeye atılmak için, içinde bulunacağın vaziyetin imkân ve şeraitini düşünmeyeceksin! Bu imkân ve şerait, çok namüsaid bir mahiyette tezahür edebilir. İstiklâl ve cumhuriyetine kastedecek düşmanlar, bütün dünyada emsali görülmemiş bir galibiyetin mümessili olabilirler. Cebren ve hile ile aziz vatanın bütün kaleleri zapt edilmiş, bütün tersanelerine girilmiş, bütün orduları dağıtılmış ve memleketin her köşesi bilfiil işgal edilmiş olabilir. Bütün bu şeraitten daha elîm ve daha vahim olmak üzere, memleketin dâhilinde iktidara sahip olanlar gaflet ve dalâlet ve hattâ hıyanet içinde bulunabilirler. Hattâ bu iktidar sahipleri şahsî menfaatlerini, müstevlîlerin siyasî emelleriyle tevhit edebilirler. Millet, fakr u zaruret içinde harap ve bîtap düşmüş olabilir.

Ey Türk istikbalinin evlâdı! İşte, bu ahval ve şerait içinde dahi vazifen, Türk istiklâl ve cumhuriyetini kurtarmaktır. Muhtaç olduğun kudret, damarlarındaki asil kanda mevcuttur.

While You Read

A. Read the paragraph and choose the correct answer.

The paragraph is about .....

- a. compulsory school subjects      b. optional school subjects      c. both

When English pupils are in Grade 10, they have to take some school subjects. They are the compulsory subjects. They cover essential knowledge and skills so all the pupils need them for the future. For example, pupils have to study maths, English, science, careers education, citizenship, ICT (information and communication technology) and PE (physical education). There are also optional school subjects. They are art, music, drama, design and technology, history, geography, modern foreign languages and so on. High schools may offer different optional subjects. Pupils choose them according to their interests.

B. Read the paragraph again and complete the diagrams.

C. Read the following text and choose the best title for it.

a. My Daily Routine

b. My Study Habits

c. My Favorite Pastimes

Hi! I'm Lisa. I'm a student at a high school. My day starts early. I wake up at 7.30 a.m. and go jogging for half an hour before breakfast. Then I catch the school bus. My lessons begin at 9 a.m. We have compulsory subjects until the lunch break at noon.

We study our optional subjects from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. When I come back home, I have some snacks such as a sandwich and fruit juice. I listen to music and read a magazine. I start my homework at 4.30 p.m. I always do my homework. I also have a study plan and revise regularly for my exams.

At 7 p.m. I finish my studies and then I have dinner with my family. After that, we usually watch a movie together. I also surf the Net for my projects in the evening. I sometimes play chess with my father. I like it. My parents and I go to the theater from time to time. That's my mother's favorite pastime. Finally, I read a book before I go to bed at 11 p.m.

D. Read the text again and complete the diagram as in the example.

After You Read

A. Think about your daily routine and make notes below. Then work in groups of 4. Use your notes and present your daily routine to your group members.

READING

Before You Read

Read the following paragraph and write the advantages of planners.

PLANNERS

You can use daily, weekly or monthly planners. You can make a list of important events and tasks in them. Planners are useful for you in several ways. Firstly, they make your life easier because you write down everything you need to remember and you won't forget anything. So they take stress away from your life. Secondly, you will be more organized, and you won't waste time. Thus, you can spend more time with your family and friends. Thirdly, when you complete a task and cross it out in your planner, you will feel self-confident, and you will believe you can achieve your goals. All in all, planners are great to organize your life.

READING

Before You Read

Discuss the questions in pairs.

1. Have you read the stories of Dede Korkut?
2. Do you think the stories of Dede Korkut are interesting?

While You Read

A. Read the paragraph and answer the questions.

1. Where are the stories of Dede Korkut set?
2. When are the stories possibly set?

The Stories of Dede Korkut

Dede Korkut was a storyteller. He told epic tales about heroism among the noble men and women of the Oghuz Turks. The tales are set in Central Asia. It's not certain when Dede Korkut told his tales, but some studies show that the tales are set in the period from the 8th century to the 13th century. They passed orally from generation to generation, and they were probably written down in the 15th century. The stories of Dede Korkut are unique masterpieces of the Turkish culture.

B. Read the story. Write the name of the main character to complete the title.

....., THE SON OF KAZILIK KOCA

Bayındır Khan was the leader of the Oghuz Turks. One day, he invited lots of beys to a banquet at his big white tent. There were silk carpets on the floor. The guests were sitting on them. While they were eating, Kazılık Koca, the vizier, wanted to talk to Bayındır Khan. Kazılık Koca asked him to give permission for a raid. Bayındır Khan accepted, and then Kazılık Koca went away with his men. He decided to invade the Düzümüral Castle.

The Düzümüral Castle was on the coast of the Black Sea. The ruler of the castle was a big man. He was extremely strong and very good at fighting. Kazılık Koca attacked the castle, but he wasn't successful. At the end of the war, the ruler caught Kazılık Koca. He stayed in prison for sixteen years.

Meanwhile, his son grew up. His name was Yegenek. He was a brave young man. He thought his father was dead because no one told him the truth. One day, he learned everything while he was arguing with someone. Soon afterwards, he talked to Bayındır Khan and he gave Yegenek lots of men. Next, he attacked the Düzümüral Castle to save his father.

Yegenek fought heroically against the ruler of the castle and killed him. When Kazılık Koca went out of prison and found out that his son Yegenek saved him, they hugged each other. They were on cloud nine. Finally, they returned home together. Everyone was very happy.

C. Read the story again and answer the questions.

1. Who gave permission to Kazılık Koca for a raid?
2. Where did Kazılık Koca go?
3. How can you describe the ruler of the castle?
4. What happened to Kazılık Koca at the end of the war?
5. How can you describe Yegenek?
6. How did Yegenek learn the truth about his father?
7. What happened when he went to the castle?

D. Find the following verbs in the story and match them with their meanings (a-c).

1. invade (Line 5)

2. attack (Line 7)

3. find out (Line 14)

a. to get some information about something

b. to enter a place with soldiers to take control of it

c. to try to hurt or defeat in a war

E. Read the following text. Who is it about?

A Heroic Turkish Woman

This person is a legendary figure in the Turkish history. She was born in Erzurum in 1857. The Ottoman Empire was on a rocky road then. It was tired after many wars. And it went through another big war against the Russians in 1877 when she was 20 years old. The soldiers in the Ottoman army fought well, but they couldn't stop the Russian attack. The Russian soldiers were walking towards Erzurum when she decided to get into the fight.

It was 8th November 1877. Her husband was away because he was fighting on the front line. She had two little children, but she said, "They can grow up without their mother, but not without their motherland." She ran to Fort Aziziye with the people of Erzurum. They didn't feel afraid. They fought heroically and then the Russian soldiers ran away. She was one of the veterans.

She had four sons and two daughters. However, two of her sons died during the First World War. When a reporter interviewed her in 1937, everybody learned her story and after that, the Turkish people never forgot her. She got the title of the Granny of the 3rd Army in 1952.

She died in 1955 when she was 98 years old. Her mausoleum is in Fort Aziziye. You can also see her statue there. It was put up in Fort Aziziye in 2000. The Nene Hatun Historical National Park opened in Erzurum in 2009. Many people visit the park every year and remember her. Who's this heroic woman? She's Nene Hatun, the symbol of the brave Turkish women in wars.

F. Read the text again and fill in the timeline below with the events (a-g).

- a. Turkish people learned her story with an interview.
- b. She died.
- c. She was born in Erzurum.
- d. Her statue was put up in Fort Aziziye.
- e. The Nene Hatun Historical National Park opened.
- f. She fought against the Russian soldiers in Fort Aziziye.
- g. She became the Granny of the 3rd Army.

G. Find these words in the text. Then use the correct words to complete the sentences.

mausoleum                      front line                      veterans

1. Thousands of soldiers died on the .....
2. The government awarded medals to the ..... of the Civil War for their bravery.
3. A ..... is a special building that holds the dead body of an important person.

After You Read

WRITING

Read this unfinished story. Write a good ending in at least 120 words. Remember to check it for grammar and spelling mistakes before you hand it in next week.

Three days ago a few men broke into a famous pop star’s house in Miami. It was 2 a.m. so everybody was sleeping. The men kidnapped the pop star’s 5-year-old son. While they were going out of the house, the cook saw them. They started to fight. Then one of the kidnappers killed him and they ran away with the boy. All the people in the house heard the gunshot and woke up.

The pop star wasn’t at home that night because he had a concert in New York. When his wife called him, he flew back home. The kidnappers phoned and demanded 500,000 dollars. Next, the pop star called the police.

The mother told the police that she was sleeping when she heard the noise. She ran to her son’s room, but his bed was empty. When she entered the hall, she saw the cook was dead. She called her husband immediately. The housekeeper said she was reading a book in bed when she heard the gunshot. She looked out of the window and saw three men. They were running towards a black car with the boy. She immediately went to the hall.

READING

Before You Read

Discuss these questions with your partner.

Do you think life was easier in the past? Why/ Why not?

While You Read

A. Read the first part of the interview from the Teen Focus magazine. Choose the correct answer.

The text is about the ..... lives of people in the past.

a. social

b. educational

c. technological

Last week, the TEEN FOCUS magazine interviewed Taylor Brown, a well-known historian. He talked to us about the lives of people in the past.

Teen Focus : Mr. Brown, first of all, would you please tell us about the social lives of people in the past?

Taylor Brown: Sure. For a long period in the past, social life was usually family-centered. People used to spend most of their time with their families, and they sometimes visited relatives or friends in their hometowns. They generally spent their evenings having chats, telling stories or playing some sort of board games. They had almost no contact with other countries. Most people didn't use to travel to faraway places. When they went to a nearby town, they usually travelled on foot or horseback. The father was the leader of the family. Women had almost no power. They had to obey men. In towns, men used to work and earn money for the family. It was traditional for women to stay at home. They used to do the household chores and look after the children. Women in villages also worked in fields with men. People thought social customs were really important and they used to follow them.

B. Read the statements below. Then read the text again and circle T for true or F for false for each statement.

- |                                                                  |   |   |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|---|---|
| 1. People in the past were with their families most of the time. | T | F |
| 2. They usually spent their evenings doing housework.            | T | F |
| 3. They sometimes visited their relatives in faraway places.     | T | F |
| 4. They sometimes went to a nearby town by walking.              | T | F |
| 5. The mother used to lead the family.                           | T | F |
| 6. Men were responsible for earning money for the family.        | T | F |
| 7. In villages, women used to work in fields with men.           | T | F |
| 8. People used to find social customs unnecessary.               | T | F |

C. Read the second part of the interview. Choose the correct answer.

What's the following text about?

- a. the educational lives of people in the past
- b. the technological lives of people in the past
- c. both

Teen Focus : Yes, Mr. Brown. Now can you give us some information about the educational lives of people in the past?

Taylor Brown: Yes, of course. In the past, there weren't so many schools. According to some people, education wasn't that important so they didn't want their daughters to go to school. Unfortunately, girls weren't as lucky as boys. What's more, many children used to end their educational lives when they finished primary school. And then they began working for their families. In addition, students used to spend too much time doing homework. It was difficult for them to obtain information since they did not use to have personal computers and the Internet. They didn't have any technological devices at school such as calculators, projectors, printers and tablets, either.

Teen Focus : So, do you think technology changed the teaching and learning process, Mr. Brown?

Taylor Brown: Absolutely! At schools, students started to see interactive boards, instead of chalkboards not long ago. They began to use information technology in class. In this way, it has become faster to get information. Technological developments also make life easy. In the past, doing housework was extremely tiring. For example, people used to wash their clothes by hand. But then washing machines came out. Besides, technology has developed medicine so people can live longer. Actually, technology has dramatically changed how people work, communicate, travel, entertain and so on.

Teen Focus : Thank you very much for your time, Mr. Brown.

Taylor Brown: You're welcome.

D. Read the text again and answer the following questions.

- 1. Were there many schools in the past?
- 2. Why didn't some people want their daughters to go to school?
- 3. When did many children use to end their educational lives?
- 4. Why did students use to spend too much time doing homework in the past?
- 5. What did students start to see at schools instead of chalkboards not long ago?
- 6. What did they begin to use in class?
- 7. How do technological developments affect life in general?
- 8. What's the result of the technological developments in medicine?
- 9. What has technology dramatically changed?

E. Read the text in activity C again and look at the pictures below. Which technological devices does Mr. Brown mention? Tick (✓) the correct pictures.

After You Read

A. Look at activity A in While You Read again. Identify the differences between the social lives of people in the past and the ones in the 21st century. Make sentences as in the examples.

In the past, people used to spend most of their time with their families, but in the 21st century, many people don't spend so much time with their families because they're at school or work for long hours.

B. Look at activity C in While You Read again. Identify the differences between the educational and technological lives of people in the past and the ones in the 21st century. Make sentences as in the examples.

In the past, there weren't so many schools. Some people believed education wasn't that important so they didn't want their daughters to go to school. In the 21st century, there are lots of schools and people believe education is extremely important so everybody wants their children to get a good education.

E-PORTFOLIO ENTRY

While You Read

A. Read the magazine article and choose the correct answer.

The article is mainly about .....

a. the popular tourist attractions in Europe

b. the most popular vacation types

c. the most unusual vacation types

Planning a vacation? What type and where?

(1) Many people believe history is interesting so they prefer cultural vacations. They travel to the world's cultural capitals like Rome and Cairo. They visit historic sites and see fascinating objects from the ancient civilizations. They try to witness history. The most popular destinations for cultural vacations are the Taj Mahal in India, the pyramids in Egypt and Machu Picchu in Peru.

(2) Most travellers prefer beach vacations. There are various activities for beach lovers such as swimming, sunbathing, snorkelling, scuba diving, surfing, windsurfing, jet skiing, parasailing and kayaking. Everybody can have a great time on the beach. The most popular beaches in the world are Miami Beach in Florida, Bondi Beach in Sydney and Flamenco Beach in Puerto Rico.

(3) Some people would rather take cruise vacations. They get on a cruise ship and spend wonderful days or weeks travelling by sea. A cruise ship is just like a floating hotel. It has restaurants, shops, lounges, a library, a cinema, indoor and outdoor swimming pools. A modern cruise ship also has different facilities such as a fitness center, a spa, a bowling alley, an ice skating rink, tennis courts, basketball courts and climbing walls. The most popular destinations for cruise ships are the Caribbean Islands and the Mediterranean Sea.

(4) According to some travellers, safari vacations are great because they are interested in wild animals. A safari is an overland journey, usually in Africa. When travellers go on a safari, they watch and record wildlife. They join a jeep safari or a walking safari. Local guides help them to discover the African wilderness. They visit national parks and see hundreds of animal species there. They get the chance to feed baby lions and walk with wild animals like elephants and giraffes. The most popular safari tours are in Kenya, Zambia and South Africa.

What about you? What type of vacations do you prefer?

E. Read what the tour guide says. Label the buildings (A-D) and draw the route to the palace.

“Hi, everyone! We’ve just entered the historic site. As I’ve told you, this place was the biggest trade center of this region in the 4th century. Could you please open the map I’ve handed out to you on the bus?”

OK? Please listen to my instructions carefully and draw the route to the palace. We’re going to meet up in front of the palace at 5 p.m. so this is important. Now we’re near North Square. Don’t walk into Harbor Street as it’s closed to the public because of the renovation. So, turn right into Main Street. If you want to see the theater, take the first turning on the left. Walk past the gymnasium and turn right. You should see the theater. It’s still in excellent condition. I’m sure you’ll like it.

When you return to Main Street, go straight ahead towards South Square. You’ll see the town hall next to the temple on your right. Ancient people used to hold meetings and make important decisions together there. And you can see the hospital opposite the town hall. When you reach South Square, turn left into Royal Street. You’ll see the palace on your right. I’ll be waiting for you there at 5 p.m. See overleaf for detailed information about each part of the historic site. I hope you’ll enjoy your trip here. Bye for now.”

While You Listen

Listen to the conversation and underline the correct words. (Audio 6.7)

Teacher : OK, class. In our biology lesson today, we're talking about (1) global warming/ environmental problems. What do you think about this issue? Yes, Brandon?

Brandon : In my opinion, one of the biggest problems is that many people in the world (2) waste energy/ pollute the environment.

Teacher : Yes, Brandon. I completely agree with you. Scientists are really worried. Many people don't think about the consequences of wasting the energy sources. But the sources aren't endless. So we should (3) use renewable energy sources / organize environmental campaigns.

Brandon : Yes. We ought to be environmentally-friendly at our houses. For example, we should turn off the light when we leave a room. And we shouldn't (4) overuse natural resources/ leave the electrical appliances on standby. We should save energy.

Teacher : That's right, Brandon. If we don't use the energy sources wisely, (5) the Earth will be in trouble/ global warming will increase. People could face various problems. Yes, Carmen? What's your opinion?

Carmen : I think people waste lots of water at home every day. That's too bad. We should turn off the tap while we're brushing our teeth. We ought to (6) take shorter showers/ use dishwashers. In this way, we can save water.

Teacher : Yes, Carmen. You're right. Unfortunately, the world is running out of water. We should act before it's too late. Water is so valuable. If there's no water, there will be no life.

After You Listen

READING

Before You Read

Look at the list below and tick the sentences that are true for you.

When I have a problem, .....

(.....) I ask my friends for advice.

(.....) I ask my parents for advice.

(.....) I ask one of my teachers for advice.

(.....) I ask one of my relatives for advice.

(.....) I write a letter to the advice page of a magazine.

(.....) I solve my problem on my own.

While You Read

A. Read these letters to the advice page of a magazine. Answer the questions.

1. Who are all the letters for?
2. Are all the letters about similar problems?

Ask Debbie for Advice!

(1) Dear Debbie,

My sister and I don't get on well these days. We often have arguments. We used to have a good relationship, but now we can't talk to each other. I feel unhappy. She's two years older than me. She's made some new friends and she spends all her spare time with them. When I say something to her, she gets angry and shouts at me. I love her. Please help me. What should I do?

Pamela

(2) Dear Debbie,

I have a part-time job at a fast food restaurant. I work as a waiter at night. A few weeks ago, I discovered something. The other waiter steals food and he sometimes steals money. I don't know what to do. I need this job because I can't afford my education. So I don't want to quit the job. But I feel extremely uncomfortable here. I believe I should tell the boss. But if I tell the boss, the boy will know that I've talked to the boss. However, I'm afraid the boss will think I'm the thief. What should I do?

Dave

(3) Dear Debbie,

I'm having trouble with my mum. She thinks I'm still a child, but I'm 17. She asks too many questions. She'd like to know where I am all the time. She wants to learn all my friends. She listens to my phone conversations. She wants me to be at home at 8 p.m. This is very annoying. What should I do?

Lenny

(4) Dear Debbie,

We have a dog at home. We bought it a year ago because my son wanted it too much and he promised to look after it. It's a smart and lovely dog. I love it. But I have a problem. My son's forgotten his promise. He doesn't take care of the dog. He says he has to study hard for his exams. He's really stressed. I don't know what to do. I'm very busy. I work long hours and I get very tired, but I have to take care of the dog after work. I feel so bad. What should I do?

Miranda

(5) Dear Debbie,

My problem is that I've put on some weight in recent months and this makes me depressed. I have to study hard for my exams so I spend too many hours sitting at my desk. I want to lose some weight, but I have to go on my studies. I don't know what to do. Please help me. What should I do?

Lisa

NEVER FEEL HOPELESS. YOU CAN SOLVE YOUR PROBLEMS.

B. Work in groups of 5. Do the jigsaw activity.

- ✦ Each student in a group has a role: Student 1, Student 2, Student 3, Student 4 and Student 5.
- ✦ Look at the table below. Each student is responsible for his/her letter. (e.g. Student 1 is responsible for Letter 1, Student 2 is responsible for Letter 2, and so on.)
- ✦ Regroup: All Students 1 join in the first group, all Students 2 join in the second group, and so on.
- ✦ In these “expert” groups, read your letter together and complete your column in the table. Use a few sentences to summarize the problem.
- ✦ When you finish, join your first group again. Now each member knows about a different letter.
- ✦ Ask the members of your group, “What’s the problem in your letter?”
- ✦ Share the information and complete all the columns in the table together.

	Letter 1	Letter 2	Letter 3	Letter 4	Letter 5
Problem

C. Work in pairs and read Debbie’s replies. Match them with the letters (1-5).

(A) I think you should talk this problem over with your mother. I’m sure she loves you. You must know that she wants to protect you. You’re right. She shouldn’t listen to your phone calls. It’s a good idea to say you feel annoyed. You’d better ask her to trust you. You can also tell her where you’re going. That’s not too bad.

(B) In my opinion, you should talk to your boss about this situation. I understand how you feel. You don’t want the boy to lose his job. But that’s his fault, not yours. It’s also a serious crime. He must learn his lesson. You’d better tell the truth immediately.

(C) In my opinion, you should go on a diet, but not a strict one. You shouldn’t stop eating fruit because you need lots of vitamins and minerals while you’re studying so hard. It’s a good idea to cut down on sugar. And you should avoid eating fast food. You’d better drink at least two liters of water every day. I also advise you to walk for half an hour every evening.

(D) I think you should talk this problem over with your sister. But you should speak calmly and politely. You can say she’s important to you and you miss her a lot. I believe she’ll understand your feelings. It’s a good idea to suggest doing something fun together.

(E) In my opinion, you should talk this problem over with your son. But you must understand him. He’s going through a difficult period. You should explain how hard it is for you to do everything alone. It’s a good idea to make a to-do list together and share the responsibilities of the dog.

D. Work in pairs. Read the letters in activity A and the replies in activity C again. Complete the following sentences.

1. If Pamela talks to her sister calmly and politely, .....
2. If Dave doesn't tell the truth to the boss, .....
3. If Lenny tells his mum how he feels about the current situation, .....
4. If Miranda explains the situation clearly to her son, .....
5. If Lisa goes on a diet, .....

A. Read the following text and complete the sentences below.

The text is about two festivals.

The first one is called (1) ..... or (2) .....

The second one is called (3) ..... or (4) .....

Eids

Two religious festivals are celebrated in Turkey every year. One of them is called Ramadan Feast, and the other one is Sacrifice Feast. Actually, Muslims all over the world celebrate these two festivals. However, people in some countries call them differently. According to them, Ramadan Feast is Eid al-Fitr, and Sacrifice Feast is Eid al-Adha. These celebrations are known as Eids, and they're very important to the Islamic world.

Muslims fast in the daytime during the month of Ramadan. They also help the needy. They believe it's their religious duty to give alms to the poor. At the end of this holy month, Ramadan Feast is celebrated. It lasts for three days. Early in the morning on the first day, Muslim men go to mosques and perform special prayers. Children wear new clothes. They are given gifts like candies and coins. Schools and offices are closed so family members enjoy the celebrations together. Relatives, friends and neighbors visit each other to improve relationships. During this Eid, people eat special food like baklava and Turkish delight.

The other festival, Sacrifice Feast lasts for four days. It's celebrated at the end of Hajj, the religious journey. Millions of Muslims visit the holy city of Mecca in Saudi Arabia every year. Muslims try to go on this pilgrimage at least once in their lifetime. During the pilgrimage, animals such as sheep, goats and cows are sacrificed. Those unable to go on a pilgrimage sacrifice animals near their homes and give most of the meat to the poor. People enjoy festive meals together. The most popular dish is kavurma. Besides, many people have barbecues with their loved ones. Everybody has a good time at these Eids.

B. Read the text again. Tick (✓) the correct column for the sentences (1-10).

	True	False	No information
1. Muslims in different countries celebrate the two Eids.
2. Muslims help poor people during the month of Ramadan.
3. A feast is celebrated during the month of Ramadan.
4. Eid al-Fitr is a two-day festival.
5. Some people offer pastry to their guests at Ramadan Feast.
6. Eid al-Adha is a three-day festival.
7. It's celebrated when the religious journey starts.
8. It's a religious duty for Muslims to go to Mecca.
9. In some countries, camels are sacrificed.
10. Poor people are given meat at Eid al-Adha.

C. Read the text again and complete the table.

Festival	Festival Food

Aditi (40 minutes ago)

My favorite festival is Diwali. It's also called the Festival of Lights. It's the biggest celebration in India. All the houses are cleaned and then lots of candles and oil lamps are lit in each room. Families come together and exchange gifts. In the evening, there are thousands of candles in streets. Moreover, fireworks are let off everywhere. The atmosphere is fascinating. And don't miss the festival food ladoos. They're ball-shaped sweets. Yummy!

Li (2 hours ago)

Chinese New Year is the most popular festival in my country. It's also called the Spring Festival. All the streets and buildings are decorated with red during the celebrations. People perform dragon and lion dances in streets. They eat various traditional dishes like Peking duck. Many tourists come to our country for this festival. It's fascinating.

Olivia (5 hours ago)

I'm from Canada. We celebrate Halloween there on October 31. Children wear costumes and then knock on their neighbors' doors. They say, "Trick or treat?" They're usually given biscuits. Furthermore, many people carve pumpkins. They also decorate their houses and throw parties for Halloween. It's great fun.

Sam (8 hours ago)

Independence Day is the most important festival in the USA. It's annually celebrated on July 4 and is often known as "the Fourth of July". It's a day of family celebrations with picnics and barbecues. Various activities are also organized. For example, many people join watermelon eating competitions or swimming races. Besides, there are parades and fireworks displays. Lots of traditional food is served. Strawberry shortcake is the number one festival dessert.

Isabella (11 hours ago)

I'm Mexican. My favorite festival is Cinco de Mayo. It means May 5. At this festival, red, white and green clothes are worn. They're the colors of our flag. All the streets are decorated with balloons and flowers. We listen to music and perform our folk dances. We eat traditional dishes like tacos. We watch fireworks displays. We have a great time during the celebrations.

READING

Before You Read

You're going to read a text about the evolution of technology. What technological devices do you think the text mentions? Make a list with your partner.

While You Read

A. Read the text and check the words in your list. Were any of your guesses correct?

When people began to make technological devices, they certainly didn't know how much these devices would develop in the future. For example, when Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone in 1876, he probably couldn't imagine that people would use a mobile phone one day. An Italian engineer Guglielmo Marconi invented the radio in 1895. John Logie Baird, who was a Scottish engineer, made the first working television system in 1925. How would they feel if they could see today's radios or televisions?

As technology develops, the world develops. Here are some of the most important technological developments. Bell laboratories made the first video phone in 1969. Martin Cooper, who is an American engineer, designed the first handheld mobile phone in 1973. And in 2000, millions of people began to use mobile phones. In 2009, technology companies made the first smartphone, which performs many functions of a computer. Today smartphones are everywhere. They are used by people all over the world.

As for computer technology, the developments are unbelievable. In 1944, Tommy Flowers designed the first electronic digital computer which was programmable. In 1973, computer engineers made the first computer which had a keyboard and a mouse. And the first laptop was created in 1983. A British scientist Tim Berners-Lee invented the World Wide Web in 1989. 1991 is the year when WWW became available for everyone. The first wireless Internet network started in 2000. And the Internet has continued to develop rapidly since then. Now we live in the digital era, and computers are in all parts of our lives.

B. Read the text again and complete the sentences as in the example.

1876 is the year when Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone.

1. 1895 is the year when .....
2. 1925 is the year when .....
3. 1944 is the year when .....

C. Work in groups of 4 and write a title for the text.

D. Share your title with the class and listen to the other groups' titles. Then vote for the best title.

E. Read the following paragraph. Choose the correct answer.

The paragraph is about .....

- a. the positive effects of social media
- b. the negative effects of social media
- c. both

SOCIAL MEDIA

Social media includes many different web-based platforms such as social networking sites, blogs, microblogs, chat rooms and podcasts. Social media offers lots of benefits to users. For example, it helps people to interact with one another online. People also learn about important events and express their opinions on them through social media so they become active citizens. They can organize activities and invite many people to them. They develop communication and discussion skills. They learn to make friends and keep friendships. On the other hand, social media has some adverse effects on users. Firstly, many people waste too much time on social media. Therefore, they ignore their responsibilities like their work. Social media is also risky because some companies may sell users' personal information. In addition, when users post information on the Internet, a person who is clever enough can easily access it. And if that person steals someone's identity, he/she can turn the victim's life into a nightmare. To sum up, it is easy to get into trouble over social media, but social media platforms are an excellent way to keep in touch with friends and relatives when you use them safely.

C. Read the following paragraph and write a good title for it.

Nowadays many people are interested in creating a digital story. It has become one of the most popular hobbies. People use digital technology to tell stories. If you want to design your own digital story, first you should decide what you want to tell. Think small. You're not writing a novel. Your story will be only 3 to 5 minutes long. Second, you should write your story. It can be a personal tale. Or you can present an idea. Third, you should create a digital audio clip. You need to use a microphone to record your sentences. Then you should choose the images like your digital photos which you'll use in your story. Next, you should use a video editing program to combine the sound with the images. After that, you should add background music. If you want, you can also add titles, transitions and effects. Finally, you should publish your story on a video-sharing website. So you can share it with everyone in the world. Why don't you design a digital story during your next vacation?

D. Work in groups of 4. Write a story collaboratively and then turn it into a digital story. Present it to the class next week. After that, upload it to your blog.

While You Read

A. Read the text and underline the correct alternative.

The text is an extract from a biography / an interview.

— You're a person who is known by all the scientists in the world, and you succeeded this before the age of 30. What are the milestones in your life, Professor Canan Dağdeviren?

— Well, when I was 5, my dad gave me a book. This was a real milestone in my life. The book was about Marie Curie, the only female scientist with two Nobel prizes. While I was reading, I was fascinated by her husband Pierre Curie. Actually, he's my personal hero. He discovered piezoelectricity although he got no education in a lab. That affected my life so much! Mainly about my decision to study physics at university. By the way, I've always chased my dreams. I've had many difficulties, but I've never given up.

— Do you mean that you had some ideas about your current inventions at the young age?

— Yes. When I was a child, I found out that my grandfather died of a heart attack at the age of 28. I told myself, "I'll make something for people with heart diseases before I'm 28. I promise." For this reason, I invented a device. It's a pacemaker which is tied to a heart and recharged with heartbeats. In this way, my childhood dream came true. And I thought, "My device can work on a heart. So why not the other organs of our body?" I've worked on many projects since then.

— Yes. One of them is a very thin skin sensor that can be placed on a kneecap or an elbow. It can detect skin cancer.

— That's right. The sensor tells us if there's something wrong within our body.

— How interesting! You're very successful. That's why you were on the Forbes Magazine's list, "Top 30 Under 30 in Science" in 2015. In the same year, you were also named to the "Top 35 Innovators Under 35" by MIT. Moreover, you have over 25 national and international awards. You're amazing.

— Thank you very much indeed. I represent my country well in the world. That makes me so proud.

* MIT (Massachusetts Institute of Technology)

G. Read the text and choose the correct option.

The following text is .....

a. an interview

b. a biography

c. a story

Aziz Sancar

Aziz Sancar is a great Turkish scientist. He's a biochemist and molecular biologist. He was born in Savur, Mardin in 1946. He grew up as one of the eight children of an impoverished family in a small town. He had his primary and secondary education near his hometown.

He started Istanbul School of Medicine in 1963, and he graduated from Istanbul University in 1969. Then he studied molecular biology at the University of Texas in the USA and completed his doctorate there in 1977. After that, he started his postdoctoral work at Yale University School of Medicine in 1977. He carried out studies on DNA repair there, and he became an associate professor. In 1982, he started to work at the University of North Carolina, where he currently serves as a professor of biochemistry and biophysics.

Aziz Sancar got the North Carolina Distinguished Chemist Award in 2001. He was also the first Turkish scientist who became a member of the United States National Academy of Sciences in 2005. And in 2006, he was elected to the Turkish Academy of Sciences. He established the Aziz and Gwen Sancar Foundation with his wife in 2007 to promote Turkish culture. He also founded Carolina Turkish House near the university campus to support Turkish students there.

Professor Aziz Sancar got the Nobel prize in chemistry in 2015. He was awarded for his mechanistic studies of DNA repair. He says, "DNA repair is really important to protect the human body against cancer."

While You Read

A. Read the following text and choose the best title for it.

- a. Traditions of different countries
- b. Different cultures around the world
- c. Clothing in different cultures

The most common item of clothing in India is the sari. It's a single piece of fabric. It's around nine meters long. Indian people wear the sari in many different ways. It's popular all around India. You can see it even in a fashion show on TV.

The kilt represents the Scottish culture all over the world. It's the traditional costume for men at festivals in Scotland. If you visit Scottish highland games, you can see lots of men in kilts. The traditional musical instrument in Scotland is the bagpipe. Bagpipe players also wear kilts.

The kimono is the most famous symbol of the traditional Japanese culture. It first appeared in Japan in the seventeenth century. Men and women wear it particularly on special occasions like weddings. Kimonos have various designs. The crane design is the most popular one. It symbolizes good fortune and long life.

Flamenco dresses form an essential part of the Spanish culture. Flamenco is a well-known style of dance in Spain, and female flamenco dancers usually wear these costumes. They're also very popular with Spanish women. For example, many local women put on colorful flamenco dresses during the spring festival in Seville, in the south-west of Spain.

B. Read the text again and fill in the table.

Country	Item of clothing

F. Read the following text and underline the correct alternative.

The text is mainly about Bianca's shopping habits / favorite clothes.

Hello! I'm Bianca from Romania. I'm eighteen. I like shopping, but I don't waste my pocket money. I spend it wisely. Before shopping, I always decide what I need. Moreover, I'm not brand-conscious. I believe it's wrong to spend too much money on specific brands. According to me, it's ridiculous.

I generally buy most of my clothes during out-of-season sales. I advise everyone to do that. Yes, it's tiring as you usually shop till you drop then. However, it's great to take the best advantage of discounts. In addition, I sometimes go window shopping with my best friend. It's interesting to see various combinations of outfits. That helps me to use my clothes in different ways.

In my opinion, fashion is not important. I don't follow the latest fashion trends. I just try to wear the clothes which suit me. I usually put on sporty clothes in daily life. Jeans and trainers are my favorite ones. On special occasions, I also prefer wearing a white blouse with traditional motifs as many Romanian girls do.

G. Answer these questions according to the text.

1. Does Bianca spend her pocket money wisely?
2. Is she brand-conscious?
3. When does she generally buy most of her clothes?
4. Does she follow the latest fashion trends?
5. What kind of clothes does she usually wear in daily life?
6. What are her favorite clothes?
7. What does she prefer wearing on special occasions?

After You Read

My mother used to make a cake every Saturday, but she doesn't any more.

My father didn't use to walk to work, but now he does.

THEME 5

Question Tags

We use question tags at the end of a statement.

We form them with an auxiliary verb (is, are, was, were, do, did, have, etc.) or a modal (can, should, must, etc.) and a personal pronoun (you, he, they, etc.).

We use question tags when we are not sure about something or when we are asking for confirmation.

If the statement is positive, the question tag is negative.

Your parents have been to Portugal before, haven't they?

Mr. Cheng talked to our manager about the problem, didn't he?

There is a terrible traffic jam here between 5 p.m. and 7 p.m., isn't there?

If the statement is negative, the question tag is positive.

You aren't going to Wendy's party this evening, are you?

Your mother hasn't seen the holiday brochures, has she?

Veronica can't play a musical instrument, can she?

◆ Note the following question tags. It's a good idea to learn how to use them.

I am right, aren't I?

Your father never watches horror movies, does he?

Let's eat pizza after school today, shall we?

Turn the music down, will/can/could you?

Don't forget to post the letter, will you?

Somebody was watching us through the window, weren't they?

Nobody knows Mel's address, do they?

This is a difficult situation, isn't it?

These aren't your keys, are they?

You have to speak politely here, don't you?

Write the correct question tags.

1. You can help me with my Spanish project, ..... ?

THEME 6

Giving advice

We can give advice with should/shouldn't.

You should drink milk every day.

You should learn English very well if you want to work abroad.

We should be respectful to each other.

You shouldn't tell lies. You should be honest.

You shouldn't eat fast food.

You shouldn't smoke if you want to be healthy.

Should I see a dentist?

What should I do?

Who should I talk to?

Different ways to ask for advice:

Could you give me some advice about my stomachache?

Do you know any tips on how to get better at French?

What do you advise me about my financial problems?

What would you advise me to do?

What do you think I should do?

Different ways to give advice:

I think you should talk to a psychologist.

You ought to sleep for at least eight hours every night.

You ought not to waste your time on computer games.

You had better take this medicine twice a day, otherwise you'll get worse.

You'd better not eat so much chocolate.

It's a good idea to stop drinking coke.

Why don't you consult an accountant?

What about joining a gym?

How about doing some exercise before you go to bed?

If I were you, I would tell him the truth as soon as possible.

Work in pairs. Read the situations below. Use different ways of asking for and giving advice to complete the dialogues. Then act out your dialogues.

5. You'd like to improve your mental health.

A: .....

B: .....

THEME 7

Passive Sentences

When we describe an action or a process, we can use a Passive sentence if we want to emphasize the action itself rather than who is responsible for doing it.

We form a Passive sentence with the verb be and the past participle of the main verb of the active sentence.

(You can see the list of irregular verbs on page 157 for the past participles.)

Active sentences	Passive sentences
You peel the cucumbers.	The cucumbers are peeled.
You chop the potatoes.	The potatoes are chopped.
You fry the peppers.	The peppers are fried.
We grate the onions.	The onions are grated.
We melt the butter.	The butter is melted.

THEME 8

Relative Clauses

We use relative pronouns (who, which, that, whose) and relative adverbs (where, when) to introduce relative clauses.

who/ that	people
which/ that	things/ animals
whose	possession
where	places
when	time

Defining relative clauses give information that is necessary to understand what or who is being referred to.

He's the boy who/ that works at the butcher's.

The novel which/ that she wrote is fantastic.

She is my digital friend who/ that has the coolest avatar.

The girl whose father is a famous politician is a gifted pianist.

The restaurant where we had our dinner yesterday was extremely expensive.

I'll never forget the day when I first met Michael.

Non-defining relative clauses give extra information about the person or thing they refer to, so we use commas before and after non-defining relative clauses.

(We can't use the relative pronoun that in non-defining relative clauses.)

Mrs. Smith, who is our next-door neighbor, complains a lot about my dog.

Switzerland, which is a very small country, has almost no social problems.

Do you know my geography teacher, whose brother is a national athlete?

Antalya, where tourists have the holiday of a lifetime, is one of the most popular holiday destinations in our country.

A. Read the following sentences. Which ones include non-defining relative clauses? Add commas where necessary.

1. Simon's mother who lives in Liverpool has seven grandchildren.
2. The movie which is about the life of a famous musician is on at all the cinemas in this city.
3. Have you talked to the woman whose son became the champion at the chess tournament yesterday?
4. My friend Darren who went to the same primary school as me has just set up his own company.
5. My brother was born in Ankara which is the capital of Turkey.
6. 1998 is the year when my father started to work as a teacher.
7. Paul's car which cost him a lot has broken down three times this month.

B. Circle the correct alternative.

1. Is Moby Dick one of the novels who / which you have read?
2. Madrid, where / which my aunt lives, is a very beautiful city.
3. Monday is the day where / when many people feel stressed.
4. My grandfather, who / whose is dead now, came from Wales.
5. This cupboard, which / that is under the staircase, is so dirty.
6. I'd like to talk to the boy who / whose mother is very ill.
7. Brad Pitt, that / who is married to Angelina Jolie, is a handsome and talented actor.
8. These are the photographs which / where I took in Australia last summer.
9. Mr. Cruise, who / whose grandson is one of my classmates, has just started to work with my uncle.
10. I liked the hotel where / which we stayed last weekend.

THEME 9

Talking about imaginary situations

We use Second Conditional sentences to talk about unreal or imaginary situations that are not likely to happen in the present or the future.

if- clause	main clause
If + the Past Simple	would/could + base form
If you were more careful,	you wouldn't make so many mistakes.

If I were a superhero, I would protect all the people in the world from the wicked.

We can use were instead of was in the if-clause of second conditional sentences.

If I had superpowers, I would use them to help people.

If I could fly, I wouldn't be late for my appointments.

You would lose some weight if you ate less bread.

If I had some free time, I'd travel abroad with my family.

If Tony were older, he could vote.

Expressing wishes

We use the Past Simple after the verb wish when we want to make a wish about a present or future situation (when we want the situation to be different).

I wish I were taller.

I wish we lived in a big city.

I wish I were a superhero.

I wish I could fly.

I wish I could speak German.

I wish I didn't have to get up so early.

I wish I had a lot of money.

We can use were instead of was in these sentences as well.

A. Use the correct form of the verbs in brackets to complete these sentences.

- If I ..... (win) the lottery, I ..... (buy) a villa.
- Where ..... you ..... (go) if you ..... (have) a week off?
- What ..... you ..... (do) if you ..... (find) a wallet in the street?

- Which country ..... you ..... (choose) if you ..... (have) the chance to buy a house there?
- If my father ..... (not/ work) here, he ..... (not/ get) so tired.

B. Read the sentences below and make a wish for each situation.

- I want to learn to play the violin very well.
I wish .....
- I don't have a laptop, but I'd like one.
.....
- I'm unhappy because I'm not fit.
.....
- I want to start scuba diving, but we live far away from the coast.
.....
- My room is so small.
.....
- I'd like to go on holiday, but I have to work.
.....
- My hair is too curly. I'm not happy about it.
.....
- I want to be more confident.
.....
