COOKING TIPS

I'm a chef at a big restaurant. I want to share some secrets with you. I hope they will be useful for you in the kitchen. First, when you take the egg from the fridge, don't put it directly in boiling water. Let the egg wait for a while in the kitchen before boiling it. If you boil the egg as soon as you take it from the fridge, it cracks. Second, if you want perfect mashed potatoes, always mash them when they are hot. You can also add some butter and salt before eating, this makes them tastier.
