PREFACE

Dear Students,

In this activity book, there are activities at various levels and structures that will allow you to use the knowledge and skills you have gained during the teaching processes. With these activities, you will have the opportunity to both revise the subjects you have studied at school and monitor your academic progress. The activities in this activity book prepared for this purpose were structured to include cognitive domain steps.

In the activity book, besides gap filling, matching, multiple-choice, open-ended, short-answer item type activities, there are some other activities which allow you to have a pleasant time with content such as crossword, wordsearch puzzles, skill-based activity, structured grid, and fun time activities. Also, in the "Do I remember?" section, you will be able to self-evaluate academically and you will have the opportunity to revise the missing topics through the data matrix.

We aim to contribute to your academic development with this activity book, which has been meticulously prepared by experts in the field. Hope to see the positive reflections of this study in your education life.

- C) Travelling is a very good chance for people to have a lot of pleasure.
- D) Travelling gives you an opportunity to find out about new experiences.
- E) When you travel all around the world, you always go to different places.

7. Choose the correct option to complete the statement according to the paragraph.

Some people think it's a good idea to travel on holiday, but other people think it's better to stay at home. I believe that it's better to travel. Of course, I have some reasons. First of all, you can't learn many things when you just stay at home. For example, last year I flew to Spain on holiday, and I saw new places and learned many things about Spanish culture. Secondly, you might not make many new friends and try new dishes if you stay at home all the time. However, you will probably meet lots of new people when you travel. Last year, for instance, I made three new friends and also loved Spanish cuisine while I was in Spain. Finally, when you stay at home on holiday, you will probably feel very bored. It's just not fun! Shortly, travel is exciting because you will have new experiences! You never know what you will see, eat or who you will meet.

We can not get information about _____ while travelling on holiday.

- A) new friends
- B) new dishes
- C) new experiences
- D) new culture
- E) new currency

8. Answer the 8th and 9th questions according to the chart below.

Which question does not have an answer in the chart below?

	Julia	Peter
Transportation	By ship	By train
Accommodation	B&B hotel	Youth hostel
Destination	Barcelona	London
Landmark	The Sagra da Familia	The British Museum
Cuisine	Paella (saffron rice)	British breakfast&tea

- A) How does Julia prefer going to Spain?
- B) How long has Peter stayed in a youth hostel in London?
- C) Where does Peter visit in London?
- D) What has Julia tried in Barcelona?
- E) Where does Julia stay in Barcelona?

9. Where has Julia stayed and which food has she tried in Barcelona?

- A) She has stayed in a B&B hotel, and she has tried Paella.
- B) She has stayed in a four-star hotel, and she has tried Paella.
- C) She has stayed in a youth hostel, and she has tried saffron rice.
- D) She has stayed in a trailer, and she has tried Barcelona breakfast.
- E) She has stayed in a B&B hotel, and she has tried British breakfast&tea.

10. Which of the following can be said according to the given situation?

You have planned a glamping vacation with your friends at a campsite and called the contact person to make a reservation at your favourite camp area in July. You say:

- A) Could you please book a 4-person caravan at this campsite on July?
- B) Can I make a reservation at a five-star hotel for you?
- C) Could you call me to make a reservation, please?
- D) Can you help me to find a suitable hotel in July?
- E) Could you reserve a caravan for four people at the campsite in May, please?

1 A Read the passage and answer the questions below.

ALL ABOARD !!!

When The Eastern Express (Dogu Expressi) arrived at the platform at 16:30, people were running up and down to find their wagons. Porters were busy helping the passengers. The nice hawkers were crying at the top of their voices. There was a great rush against the silence of winter cold in Ankara station. It's already 16:50, ten minutes earlier than the departure. The stationmaster blew a whistle, and then the train did. After the train set off, it was soon rolling through a rough landscape with a wonderful sunset. There were houses, farms, trees, and fields flying by outside the window. It is charming to see some kids' waving or animals' running away from the dangerous sound of the train. A state of 24 hours rail joy has started with the musicians' fascinating tunes.

The airy fragrance of the sheets had spread over the compartment when someone pulled down the bunks. The thrilling railing was like rocking in the cradle, with no sound or light from the train or outside. It was good for uninterrupted sleep till 05:00, the right time for capturing the unique scenes of the amazing east of Turkey. Because of the snow-covered nature, it is priceless to make such a trip at this time of the year. It looks as calm as a millpond. The train turns around the lakes, the white mountains and the snow-covered chimneys of the houses. It is bouncing between black and white again and again in endless tunnels through one after another.

A feeling of great peace and enthusiasm cover hundreds of people on the train. However, they do not know each other well. They are fateful companions on this 24-hour train travel in the rhythmic railing. As it passes through the hard winter outside in the untouched landscape, we watch the scenes from our warm seats. This simple and worn compartment, suddenly becomes a home for all.
