

TEST 1

- 1- Although Newton was known as an open and generous person, ----.
- A) how he was introduced to the most advanced mathematical texts of his day is slightly less clear
  - B) he began revolutionary advances in mathematics, optics, physics, and astronomy
  - C) in 1703 he was elected president of the Royal Society and was re-elected each year until his death
  - D) at various times in his life he became involved in quarrels and controversies
  - E) he did not resign his positions at Cambridge until 1701
- 2- ----, the more other people will respect and value you.
- A) If you were more confident than you are right now
  - B) The more you learn to respect and value yourself
  - C) As long as you do your job
  - D) Because you are not nearly as good a communicator as you should be
  - E) Since you know who you are and what you want
- 3- ----, when it was returned to Chinese rule.
- A) Hong Kong has been further integrating its economy with China
  - B) Cantonese is widely spoken in Hong Kong
  - C) Hong Kong was a British crown colony until 1st July 1997
  - D) The University of Hong Kong has been rated as one of the most prestigious universities in Asia
  - E) Hong Kong is one of the most densely populated areas in the world
- 4- ----, unless evidence of a recent rabies shot can be provided.
- A) Domestic animals account for less than 10% of the reported rabies cases
  - B) Dogs that have bitten someone must be quarantined for a period of two weeks
  - C) Vaccines to prevent human rabies have been available for more than 100 years
  - D) Some countries have few diagnostic facilities and almost no rabies surveillance
  - E) There were eight confirmed cases of death due to human-to-human rabies transmissions
- 5- When smoke passes through a building,----
- A) you should have pulled the nearest fire-alarm box
  - B) it takes no more than a few minutes to evacuate your home safely
- 6- Good nutrition is reflected not only in the growth and function of the body ----.
- A) and it is dependent on consuming a variety of nutritious foods
  - B) or acute nutrition diseases have largely disappeared
  - C) but also in its appearance
  - D) so the life expectancy has risen to 81 years
  - E) since it is vital to keep children healthy
- 7- The law of conservation of energy states ----.
- A) as energy can be converted from one form to another
  - B) that although energy can be changed in form it can be neither created nor destroyed
  - C) since energy can't be created or destroyed
  - D) because the total amount of energy in the universe is constant
  - E) which is possibly the most important of several conservation laws in physics
- 8- ---- whose orbit is outside that of the Earth.
- A) The axis of rotation for most of the planets is nearly perpendicular
  - B) The Moon is known to be moving away
  - C) Mars, named for the Roman god of war, is the nearest planet
  - D) Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, and Neptune are all gigantic
  - E) The Earth's gravity just makes its speed change
- 9- ----, when the domestic gold standard was abandoned.
- A) No gold coins have circulated in the United States since 1934
  - B) Gold coins represent the most desirable form of gold ownership
  - C) The same basic principles about gold and platinum bars apply to silver bars as well
  - D) Gold coins can be sold virtually at any place in the free world
  - E) The portability of gold coins continues to attract investors

- 10- ----, natural gas is used extensively as an illuminant and a fuel.
- A) Although it gives off a great deal of energy when burned
  - B) As it reacts with water vapour and is eventually returned to the Earth as acid rain
  - C) Because it can cause a fire if there is a source of ignition
  - D) Whether natural gas was first discovered because of flames shooting up from the Earth's surface
  - E) Due to its flammability and high calorific value
- 11- So much does he worry about his financial position ----.
- A) because he has never been able to find a better paying job
  - B) why he is in trouble with his bank
  - C) though his salary was substantially reduced
  - D) that he can't sleep at night
  - E) whether he will receive some money from his son until June
- 12- Although armies existed in ancient Egypt, China, India, and Assyria, ----.
- A) they have made military service obligatory for citizens and training is rigorous
  - B) it was divided into legions, each of which included heavy and light infantry
  - C) Greece was the first country known for a disciplined military land force
  - D) they sell their services to other rulers as well as to those who choose to avoid required military service
  - E) the term army is applied to the armed land forces of a nation
- 13- ----, it became possible to determine the distances to the nearer stars.
- A) While we are observing the stars from different angles
  - B) Ever since astronomers started to study the light emitted by the stars
  - C) As the Earth moves in its orbit
  - D) Once the distance from the sun to the Earth was known
  - E) After scientists have developed a theory
- 14- Not having enough money, ----.
- A) travelling abroad was not that expensive in 1980s
  - B) our bills are promptly paid and we have no debt
  - C) we spent our holidays at home last year
  - D) the profitability of our company increased as well
  - E) our children won't remember what we did for them

- 15- You needn't have gone to work today, ----.
- A) but you stayed home and played with the kids for most of the day
  - B) even though the majority of you are enjoying your summer holidays
  - C) so you had plenty of time to hang out at home
  - D) instead you had a short meeting at twelve o'clock that came with a free lunch
  - E) as the boss decided to close the office
- 16- Unlike some other diseases, both the Asian flu and the Hong Kong flu, ----, mutated from pig viruses.
- A) that took more than 1.5 million lives
  - B) when the virus threatens to trigger a global epidemic
  - C) which were not as deadly
  - D) if it were as contagious as the flu
  - E) that caused economic losses exceeding $32 billion
- 17- ----, both they and the economy as a whole benefit.
- A) After the number of people in working-poor families grew significantly
  - B) As soon as the government increased supports to low-income working families
  - C) When people are able to move up the economic ladder
  - D) That the slow economy worsens the problems of the working poor
  - E) As if some policies had provided valuable help to parents
- 18- ---- if you want to shut the sun out completely.
- A) It would have blocked out natural light altogether
  - B) Your kitchen window faced the east
  - C) It protected interiors from harmful ultraviolet rays
  - D) You'll need heavier curtains on the window
  - E) Direct sunlight could have brought heat and glare
- 19- Since new car smells are toxic, ----.
- A) the other area of transport is steadily increasing its usage in all its forms
  - B) there is no evidence linking that to the materials used in cars
  - C) they cause headache, eye irritation and drowsiness
  - D) it is really surprising that new car smells have hazardous side effects
  - E) the problem tends to dissipate after about six months

20- ---- in order to determine the history, customs and living habits of earlier civilizations.

- A) Bones at the base of Mayan temples tell the story of human sacrifice
- B) Archaeologists recover and examine material evidence remaining from past human cultures
- C) Most museums do not allow physical contact with the associated artefacts
- D) Anything that has a past history
- E) The present is the result of choices that people made and the beliefs they held in the past 21- A recent survey has proved -----.

- A) that tiredness can seriously impair people's ability to drive
- B) as people who consume more of vegetable or fruit juices live longer and healthier than those who don't
- C) though almost every fourth man considers the traditional division of housework to be normal
- D) which causes the accumulation of a toxic compound in the blood known as lactic acid
- E) since it is possible to compare literacy standards internationally

22- Nuclear reactors are vulnerable to meltdown, like the Russian reactor of Chernobyl, -----.

- A) the fact that arrangement included supplying nuclear fuel for the reactor
- B) as Russia had all agreements necessary for the transfer of the nuclear waste
- C) that nuclear weapons need to be dismantled globally
- D) since they have always insisted the nuclear program is peaceful
- E) which caused a humanitarian and ecological catastrophe

23- ----, however they belong to comparatively few language families.

- A) Bilingual people have advantages over individuals who speak just one language
- B) Very few languages have phrasal verbs like English
- C) French as a foreign language is the second most frequently taught language in the world after English
- D) It is estimated that more than 800 languages are spoken in Africa
- E) Mathematics is the only language shared by all human beings regardless of culture

24- If everyone knew that health care is self-care, ----.

- A) they believe that access to high-quality health care is a right of all people
- B) maybe they would pay more attention to what their bodies are telling them
- C) it should be provided equitably as a public service rather than bought and sold
- D) health care was once again moving to the top of the national political agenda
- E) health care can be a major expense for older people

25- ----, but it is believed that these were qualities of the Celt warriors rather than Celts in general.

- A) The Celts invented a special saddle for fighting
- B) The Romans defeated the Celts, both in France and in Britain
- C) Celt warriors didn't believe in wearing armour
- D) The first literary reference to the Celtic people is by the Greek historian Hecataeus in 517 BC
- E) To the Greeks and Romans, the Celts were tall, muscular, and light-skinned 26- It was my brother's success as a musician---.

- A) though it makes me happy as I only want the best for him
- B) that influenced my decision to take guitar lessons
- C) but it motivated me to want to be my own boss and develop my own business
- D) whether I knew he was going to be where he is today
- E) why it has helped me a lot in my early days of self improvement

27- ----, yet we all know that, at one time or another, we have lied.

- A) Many people believe in the validity of lie detectors
- B) White lies can save friendships and relationships
- C) Honesty is not always the best policy
- D) Nearly all the parents use white lies to overprotect their children from reality
- E) Very few of us would consider ourselves a liar

28- Hearing the train approaching, ----.

- A) an announcement was made that the train had just left the station
- B) the crowd moved closer to the edge of the platform
- C) tourist class and business class compartments are provided with passenger seats of improved design
- D) the speed of the train was reduced to less than 10km/h
- E) it was scheduled to leave at any moment

29- The child was on the verge of tears ----.

- A) because he has given up hope of anyone coming to his aid
- B) when his mother asked him what had happened to him
- C) as soon as he has lost his colouring pencils
- D) though he had fallen off his bike
- E) whenever he has a high fever or a minor medical problem

30- ----, which is more than double the global average.

- A) Half of the world's population live within a distance of less than 200 kilometres from the coast
- B) For more than a decade, climate change has been identified as an important emerging issue
- C) The average population density in coastal areas is 80 persons per square kilometer
- D) The impact of a hazard on society is complex
- E) Forty-two percent of all children in the world die

31- In spite of all its advances, ----.

- A) commuters are experiencing improved travel conditions daily
- B) nuclear plants are far safer than ever before
- C) the role of a leader has changed
- D) medical science still knows little about the brain
- E) telecommunication networks have evolved in time

32- Ever since nicotine was first identified in the early 1800s, ----.

- A) some documents proved that tobacco officials knew it was addictive
- B) no advertising of cigarettes will be permitted, and nicotine will be regulated
- C) it was rated as a more powerful drug than cocaine at high doses
- D) it will have been completely eliminated from your system
- E) it has been studied extensively and shown to have a number of complex effects on the brain

33- It was not until the 1970s ----, but even then, progress was slow.

- A) so that investment boom in one region could create a nationwide boom
- B) that women made inroads into the male culture of Parliament
- C) why the Ugandan population enjoyed better health status than its African neighbours
- D) which improved both the educational and housing prospects for individuals
- E) if there was not much to be gained in the field of infectious diseases

34- The forecaster on duty at the National Hurricane Centre said on the radio ----.

- A) that high winds would subside about midnight and that the next day would have light breezes
- B) whether it has been raining for hours and the wind has been high at times
- C) as temperatures might be below normal between March 1 and March 7
- D) but towering clouds could also be the cause of the prevailing weather conditions
- E) which has been blowing at speeds of at least 155 mph

35- In many countries, children under 18 are not permitted ----.

- A) having lived with a relative without anyone's approval
- B) to enter or remain in gaming areas or operate a gaming machine on licensed premises
- C) involving in any work likely to jeopardise the health
- D) help parents have a better understanding of some of the laws which affect their children
- E) having become more aware of their legal rights and responsibilities

36- Emotions are mental states ----, rather than through conscious effort.

- A) if they were a way of communicating one's feelings to others
- B) whether emotion makes up an essential part of human decision-making
- C) what animals or all human beings experience
- D) that arise spontaneously
- E) why they are a part of the social process

37- Many people often don't see ----.

- A) which will most likely cause suffering in other people
- B) though it is easier to feel good if you look good
- C) that are unable to enjoy pleasurable activities
- D) because with depression there feels like there is no way out
- E) what they don't expect or want to see

38- If you don't know how to swim, -----.

- A) there will be no requirement to wear a life jacket
- B) you must wear a life jacket when on the water
- C) you had insisted on a jacket that fits you appropriately
- D) every boater wore a life jacket
- E) it is tempting to boat without wearing a life jacket

39- Last week several miners were trapped in a tunnel -----.

- A) after they have entered there to assist the victims
- B) that they emerged back into the bright daylight
- C) which collapsed as a result of heavy rains in the area overnight
- D) as they have already finished digging most of it
- E) by the time we have reached the tunnel entrance

40- Before you start a diet, ask yourself exactly - ---.

- A) that your weight is considered normal
- B) since it is always a good idea to see a doctor first
- C) if you had thought of it as getting healthy rather than getting thin
- D) why you want to lose weight
- E) that you have realistic expectations

YARIM CÜMLE / TEST 1 (40

ADET SORU)

CEVAP ANAHTARI

www.yesdil.com

1. D      2. B      3. C      4. B      5. E      6. C      7. B      8. C      9. A      10. E

11. D     12. C     13. D     14. C     15. E     16. C     17. C     18. D     19. C     20. B

21. A     22. E     23. D     24. B     25. E     26. B     27. E     28. B     29. B     30. C

31. D     32. E     33. B     34. A     35. B     36. D     37. E     38. B     39. C     40. D

Başarmak için YESDİL!