

TEST 7

- 1., no one really understood what their intention was.
- A) As a consequence of obtaining satisfactory explanations
 B) As they kept making contradictory statements
 C) However convincing your statements may be
 D) They explained the situation so clearly, underlining the significant points
 E) Despite the complexity of the speech the party leader made to the public
- 2. Lacking sufficient capital to meet the requirements,
- A) he hasn't been able to expand his business as much as he wished
 B) a rival firm with greater resources bought him out
 C) his parents agreed to help him financially
 D) the firm has shown a steady improvement since he took over
 E) he managed to repay all the loans he had taken out from the banks
- 3. Though they vary in the number and kinds of books they own,
- A) which will constitute a valuable source for the scholars while they are preparing their thesis
 B) almost any library will, at least, have some of the standard reference books
 C) students don't seem to have much interest in going to libraries in order to study
 D) youths have a tendency to buy books of their own instead of borrowing them from libraries
 E) all the recently-published books were available in the library of our department
- 4. There was so much to do in a very short time
- A) whenever I feel too lazy to do anything
 B) thus all of us should work incredibly quickly to finish the project in time
 C) none of us expected it to take so long
 D) I'm afraid we'll have to ask for help
 E) that we all worked under great pressure till the end
- 5. Even though they can't yet change the weather very much,
- A) it is rather warmer today than they predicted in the weather forecast last night
 B) meteorologists can certainly predict it quite accurately
 C) the climate of earth has been greatly affected by the hole in the ozone layer
 D) it takes quite some time to acclimatize
 E) seasonal changes have a great effect on the human body
- 6. Not having been able to find a satisfactory place for itself in the European market,.....
- A) enterprising businessmen made several attempts to introduce their products to Arabic countries
 B) more successful manufacturers have been able to create a demand for their products in some developing countries
 C) our textile industry is now trying to expand into the Eastern-bloc countries
 D) the manufacturers were forced to curtail their production
 E) government support has become of vital importance for our exporters
- 7. Something must have been wrong with her,
- A) seeing that she has tears in her eyes
 B) and she doesn't seem to be enjoying herself
 C) or she doesn't have the least interest in our conversation
 D) however, she looked so angrily at me, as if very eager to beat me up
 E) because she was shivering despite the hot weather
- 8. The police use fingerprints as a clue to identifying criminals,
- A) when they suspected the wife of murdering her husband. -
 B) unless a more satisfactory method were devised
 C) for fingerprints of no two persons are identical
 D) before they were able to distinguish one criminal from another
 E) however the criminals had worn gloves so as not to leave fingerprints

9. I still wonder even after her explanations

- A) why weren't we given the job
- B) where did she buy all those senseless items
- C) how much the new furniture really cost her
- D) that she bought too many useless things
- E) will she be able to afford such an expensive flat

10. Lacking an adequate amount of sunlight,

- A) plants need more vitamins during the winter months
- B) you should take extra care of your indoor plants
- C) this book will give you valuable information about how to look after your plants
- D) flower-growers in colder climates can't do a great volume of business in winters
- E) the time of year when your indoor plants look their best is spring and summer

11. Massive reserves of resources are known to exist in the continent of Antarctica,

- A) that has only recently been fully explored
- B) which would be too expensive to extract due to the inhospitable climate
- C) whose land is barren and has nothing of value to offer
- D) when mining for minerals was banned seventy-five years ago
- E) where many countries have claims over territories

12. That he had an accident on the first day he bought the car

- A) has always put the blame on me
- B) I got really surprised at the news
- C) why doesn't it surprise you at all
- D) he had to compensate for the damage to the other car
- E) was a real misfortune for him

13. I didn't want to share the house with her any more.....

- A) since the day I had a terrible quarrel with her
- B) unless she never picks up after herself and leaves the house in a mess
- C) if she hadn't kept on treating me as if I were her maid
- D) as I had lost my confidence in her after the last incident
- E) provided she didn't listen to her music so loudly while I was studying

14. While I believe that studying in a foreign country is usually exciting,

- A) my parents tried to dissuade me from going abroad
- B) I really insist on your having higher education in a country other than ours
- C) it's been particularly good for learning the language of the country very well
- D) I myself wouldn't dream of being away from my country so long
- E) it enables you to make friends with people from all over the world

15. As we didn't want him to take a step which he might afterwards regret, ---- .

- A) we all have to try hard to dissuade him from deciding on something bad
- B) all of us tried hard to delay his making a decision
- C) nothing could have stopped him from doing what he wanted to
- D) we should look for a way to change his mind
- E) we may as well advise him to think over his decision

16. ----, he was asked to give evidence in court.

- A) Known by everyone for his insincerity
- B) After he has given his statement
- C) As he had witnessed the crime
- D) He was the only one to give a description
- E) When the police suspect his involvement

17. They fear that several members of the staff may lose interest in their work ---- .

- A) although boredom at work is often a sign of discontent
- B) when the new computers made many people redundant
- C) for by then they will have negotiated a new pay-deal
- D) if an outsider is taken on for the vacant senior position
- E) though the employment figures are slowly improving

18. So complicated is the machine ---- .

- A) that it seems impossible to work without the assistance of a skilled operator
- B) the time of production had been reduced by at least half
- C) capable of doing the work of ten men for half the cost
- D) as the instructions for use were impossible to follow
- E) our lives will be made much easier after it's been installed

19. The police only arrested the man.....

- A) unless they could prove he had committed the crime
- B) until their questioning was about to commence
- C) after they become convinced that he is guilty
- D) when they were sure they had enough evidence to convict him
- E) before he has confessed his connection with the crime

20. I'll let you come to this concert.....

- A) though your good behaviour yesterday deserves a reward
- B) as long as you promise to sit still and behave
- C) unless there are still some tickets available
- D) if you hadn't been naughty this morning
- E) when I knew you would appreciate the music

21. Due to the success of their advertising campaign last year

- A) sales have declined dramatically in recent months
- B) the managers have delayed expanding the business until profits increase
- C) the company are planning to hold another one in the near future
- D) their business failed to attract much public attention
- E) they have been forced to cut costs throughout the department

22. The tour guide advised.....

- A) us never to drink the tap water
- B) to refrain from annoying the locals
- C) that we won't visit the backstreets at night
- D) wearing shorts in religious buildings was thought offensive
- E) whether the banks opened at the weekend or not

23. The energy shortage will get worse.....

- A) as wastage increased day by day
- B) if everyone doesn't begin to conserve fuel
- C) when alternatives to fossil fuels had been introduced
- D) by the time governments realise, it's too late
- E) although the pollution problem was not considered

24. Some educationists argue that since even good students study only when they are forced to

- A) more time was given to each individual
- B) even the highest grades could have been better
- C) studying at home would no longer be an option
- D) encouraging group work seemed more effective
- E) removing examinations will encourage laziness

25. The sooner you finish that assignment,

- A) it'll be a great relief to you
- B) the more time you'll have to watch TV
- C) the remaining time can be spent relaxing .
- D) the faster you could have gone home
- E) the sooner you were able to hand them in

26. The hotel's swimming pool was so deep

- A) because it was dangerous for weak swimmers
- B) if you hadn't been warned about it
- C) that young children were forbidden to use it
- D) for it was very expensive heating all the water
- E) than, the tourists had expected it to be

27. It's vital we insist on regular fire drills

- A) otherwise no one will know what to do if there's a fire
- B) although the risk of fire can never be forgotten
- C) however much everyone panics when fire breaks out
- D) until it has been completely extinguished
- E) if we had known what to do in an emergency

28. Unless the train has been delayed for some reason,

- A) we should have bought the tickets earlier
- B) it will probably have left by the time we reach the station
- C) I think we'll have plenty of time to catch it
- D) it always used to leave exactly on time
- E) they'd got on only seconds before it departed

29. She's found it very difficult to make new friends

- A) since she started a new job in a different town
- B) after such hateful rumours had been spread about her
- C) when she first arrived in the neighbourhood
- D) until she got to know some of the locals a bit better
- E) before she was accepted in the local community

30. Talking to the vocational advisor made me realise

- A) that the cost of living has been rising unbelievably fast
- B) how important was it to consider the country's employment situation before choosing
- C) what were the requirements in order to have a proper job
- D) what aspects I should consider when deciding on my career
- E) how can I improve my skills and find a job coincident with them

31. Although she was confined to her home during the three months of her illness,

- A) she had almost been given the sack by the company
- B) it seemed absolutely certain that she'd fail the final exams
- C) they've been trying hard to enable her to walk without crutches
- D) she is still under the influence of the tranquilizers she's been given since
- E) she kept up her studies and graduated with her class

32. A very old man may write an inaccurate autobiography.....

- A) as his memories were somewhat hidden, as if buried under the snow
- B) however hectic his life may have been when young
- C) because he tends to embellish imaginatively his account of distant events
- D) as long as his past deeds are still vividly in his mind unless his
- E) memory has been deeply harmed by the sufferings of his life

33. and the result was widespread unemployment

- A) A severe drought was predicted which would affect the whole country
- B) The country was plagued by the inadequate production facilities
- C) They've just implemented a new taxation system on certain products
- D) The idea of devaluation of our currency has been discussed widely for a number of years
- E) The country will restart maize exports, which were suspended last year, to rebuild stocks

34. The mayor refused to comment on the uprising

- A) before he's learnt in detail what happened in the region
- B) so that he would keep the number of deaths during it secret
- C) as if he is trying to conceal some facts from the public
- D) until he'd studied the reports by his officials
- E) if it had been obvious that he knew very little about the case

35. Some people take up a hobby

- A) in order to obtain relief from the tensions of life
- B) however, their aim is just to keep their minds of their problems
- C) just then it turns out to be quite useless for them
- D) thus relaxation becomes an essential to cope with their business
- E) when they realised life was passing doing nothing but work

36. when the police took action to break up the demonstration

- A) More and more demonstrators are now crowding into the area
- B) The uncontrollable crowd seem to be marching to the city centre
- C) The rioters have formed a chain around the furious crowd
- D) The media was to blame for printing provocative headlines, thus causing the riot
- E) The crowd began to disperse rapidly in all directions

37. Despite a partial recovery in the quality of its product recently,

- A) the raw material they use In the factory hasn't yet become abundant
- B) the firm's productivity is increasing at a fantastic speed
- C) customers have always been attracted by the company's way of treating them
- D) the wholesalers were pleased at doing business with such a decent company
- E) the firm is still far from the expected standard

38. The moment she noticed the tense atmosphere in the office.....

- A) she tried to dispell it by telling some jokes
- B) she never fails to cheer everyone up with her amusing stories
- C) they wouldn't even realise when she came in
- D) her tender manner had always helped to soften the situation
- E) she isn't aware of the fact that it was all her fault

39. it has to export manufactured goods in exchange for imported agricultural products.

- A) Because favourable seasonal conditions are available in our country
- B) When, in a country, farmers cannot be persuaded to use the latest technology
- C) Although most of the country is mountainous and it lacks enough land for cultivation .
- D) If a country is highly industrialized but has little arable land
- E) In a country where of the two sectors, Industry and agriculture only one is neglected 40., he should choose a topic which will hold his interest.

- A) When a student has good study habits and can stick to a schedule
- B) Not only does a student have to pay attention to whether the subject is suitable for research
- C) Since a student is to do a large amount of reading before writing his research paper
- D) No matter how attractive for a student a subject may be
- E) Because a student can use library books to look up available sources of information

YARIM CÜMLE / TEST 7 (40 ADET SORU)

CEVAP ANAHTARI

www.yesdil.com

1. B	2. A	3. B	4. E	5. B	6. C	7. E	8. C	9. C	10. A
11. E	12. E	13. D	14. D	15. B	16. C	17. D	18. A	19. D	20. B
21. C	22. A	23. B	24. E	25. B	26. C	27. A	28. B	29. A	30. D
31. E	32. C	33. B	34. D	35. A	36. E	37. E	38. A	39. D	40. C

Başarmak için YESDİL!