

TEST 8

- 1. When I've completed packing,.....
- A) I needn't have hired a taxi and paid such a high fare
 B) I would rather call a taxi than give him any inconvenience
 C) my brother gave me a lift .to the airport
 D) they have been trying to find the quickest way .
 E) all the other waiting for me in the hotel lobby
- 2. ...., but from then on the rate increases steadily.
- A) Research has shown that about 30 per cent of lung cancer is associated with atmospheric pollution
 B) Each year about 18,000 men and 3,000 women die from cancer of the lung
 C) It's surprising that the rate of deaths from cancer among women is increasing even faster than among men
 D) Women clearly suffer less than men from lung cancer because they smoke less
 E) Lung cancer is not an important cause of death before the age of thirty-five
- 3. Despite remarkable economic achievements in the country. .... .
- A) the rate of inflation has fallen dramatically
 B) companies now feel that the outlook is much brighter
 C) there has been a series of political and social difficulties in recent months
 D) many consumers have the confidence to start spending again
 E) unemployment is becoming much less of a worry
- 4. His anxiety grew bigger ..... .
- A) for he 's seen that the solutions are beyond his capabilities
 B) as he realised how little his chance of getting the job was
 C) and he'd hoped to be able to settle things quickly
 D) although there was no possibility to improve the situation
 E) having heard the news through a close friend
- 5. ...., it's advisable to do some market research before taking any steps.
- A) Unless you were an accomplished executive
 B) Providing that you have fully analysed all aspects of the plan
 C) Before you bought the appliance you saw first
 D) If you've decided to invest in a new business
 E) When there was a possibility that prices might vary greatly
- 6. Immediately the news of the accident reached the hospital, ..... .
- A) ambulances began to leave for the spot one after another
 B) extra doctors and nurses are brought into the casualty ward
 C) the newspapers and TV have got hold of the story
 D) The emergency services had been brought to the scene
 E) a bystander sent for a-couple of ambulances from the hospital
- 7. He'll soon realise that the longer he continues to show off, ..... .
- A) the more modest he'll appear
 B) it won't make a good impression
 C) the more friends he lost
 D) many people will lose interest.
 E) the less popular he'll become
- 8. ...., he seems quite surprised to hear people complaining about it.
- A) When he hadn't found anything wrong with the service
 B) Because the delay to the train didn't bother him at all
 C) As he himself has never felt any ill effects after flying
 D) Since he considers the alterations to the department an improvement
 E) Whereas the conditions have never been acceptable
- 9. .... for without them we would be isolated within the family unit.
- A) We shouldn't be too eager to break away from our roots
 B) The desire for independence indicates our increasing maturity
 C) Friends are a basic need in our lives
 D) External pressures push us back to the security of our homes
 E) Companionship must be sought in many circles

10. Living in this coastal town for many years .....

- A) the fishing boats and their skippers were well known to him
- B) his face is familiar to the tourists who come year after year
- C) they are finding it hard to understand the locals' dependence on the sea
- D) his pleasure drawn from the beauty of the area had never diminished
- E) he knows closely the turns of the tide and the treachery of the sea

11. The threat of flooding increases .....

- A) and the dam would not be enough to hold back the waters
- B) as the global temperature and sea levels rise
- C) thus, the fields have been under water for many days now
- D) for the rains had been unusually heavy that year
- E) but the inhabitants were well-prepared for such a disaster

12. Nobody had been able to persuade him .....

- A) how important can it be to relax after a stressful day
- B) that it has been necessary for him to give up alcohol altogether
- C) why his cough is primarily caused by his habit of smoking
- D) not to take up such a vigorous sport in his weakened condition
- E) about the harm such a limited diet may cause to his health

13. You'll hardly recognise our office .....

- A) when it has been redecorated and equipped with the latest machinery
- B) in case you have only been there once previously
- C) if you had visited it several years ago
- D) after so many new members of staff were being recruited
- E) providing it stays the same under the new management

14. .... yet each has failed to find out what her trouble is.

- A) She had discussed the problem with everyone she knew
- B) She's been to three medical centres for consultations
- C) The mechanic looked the car over thoroughly
- D) The psychologists couldn't reach any agreement about her
- E) Both parents have spoken to the teacher about their son's behaviour

15. ...., we intend to book one in the mountains this year.

- A) Since we enjoyed skiing so much on our first attempt
- B) Because there are so many beautiful chalets for sale
- C) While we had such a good Alpine trip last year
- D) As we've become fed up with holidays in coastal towns
- E) So that we can make the most of the clean air and spectacular views

16. Impressed with the third applicant's qualifications,.....

- A) the decision about whom to choose has been made much easier
- B) she didn't have the experience to back them up
- C) the others all had equally good qualities
- D) the job offer was immediately put into writing
- E) the manager didn't continue with the other interviews

17. In order not to fall behind the worldwide competition,.....

- A) the domestic market was seen as a safer bet
- B) the event is made too difficult for most to enter
- C) the company found itself under the threat of bankruptcy
- D) wealthy nations deprive poorer ones of talented people
- E) there's no necessity to expand any further

18. It is more than five years .....

- A) that I am living away from my hometown
- B) as it is such a slow process
- C) she had been travelling round the world
- D) since her father handed the company over to her control
- E) when they'll have finished building the dam

19. As well as being an easily-stored and nutritionally-balanced food staple .....

- A) bacteria can easily germinate in dairy products
- B) grain crops adapt to virtually any growing climate or season
- C) the revenue from milk had enabled the farmer to expand
- D) but also thousands of people simply enjoy the taste
- E) junk food has brought about a vitamin deficiency in many adolescents

20. The age of imagination is the time .....

- A) whose ability to escape into a dream world was at its peak
- B) and artistic qualities are likely to emerge
- C) when the child adds unrealities on to fact
- D) that one becomes aware of practicalities and one's responsibilities
- E) so it should never be disregarded

21. He regarded his friend's attitude towards the old lady .....

- A) who is slightly confused by the; situation and liable to panic
- B) as being one of the worst displays of ill manners he'd ever seen
- C) that she hadn't done anything to which he could take offence
- D) where such kindness to one so frail was rarely seen
- E) when it was quite clear that it had been nothing more than a misunderstanding

22. .... so they now provide a very uneven surface to walk on.

- A) The council workers had dug up the road to lay gas pipes
- B) They're still considering what they will do with the waste land
- C) Severe weather during the winter has greatly damaged the pavements
- D) These shoes are the most uncomfortable I've ever had'
- E) They used a large rolling machine to level the ground

23. It's almost two decades .....

- A) but in actual fact it was really only about twenty years
- B) while he has been trying to complete his research project
- C) because she remembers every detail as clearly as if it was yesterday
- D) since they won all that money and changed their lifestyle
- E) during the time that was spent compiling the data

24. She couldn't have stood a chance over the other applicants .....

- A) even though there were far better qualified ones than her
- B) for she was better prepared and more ready to anticipate the questions
- C) despite having the least experience of anyone present
- D) whereas the interview panel were impressed .with her immediately
- E) if she hadn't demonstrated her qualifications satisfactorily

25. ...., they also provide recreation and entertainment.

- A) Not only does television keep us informed about world events
- B) Despite the expense of theme parks, such as Disneyland
- C) Although the primary aim of shopping centres is convenience
- D) The computer can be utilized in countless different ways
- E) Sports centres have increased in popularity recently

26. She is probably going to lose all her money .....

- A) unless she stops investing it in such a disrespected company
- B) being more liable to failure than most ventures
- C) furthermore it would be better to put it into a high interest account
- D) because there is a very good chance of making a profit
- E) as she had anticipated the recent collapse of the stock market

27. Advertisements directed towards children are usually more effective .....

- A) due to the greater spending power of this section of the population
- B) although they are clear and easily understood and get their message across
- C) for it is at this time of the day that there are the most viewers
- D) however, they are more likely to believe everything they see or read
- E) as they are easily prompted to persuade the parents to buy certain products

28. Famine and drought are among the problems in the world .....

- A) that seem to remain insoluble in the near future
- B) which is directly caused by man's mismanagement of the environment
- C) where malnutrition and its associated diseases could so easily be avoided
- D) however many precautions we try to take
- E) what many of us, living in developed countries, believe will never happen to us

29. When speaking to the deaf, .....

- A) the problem may be one of misinterpret hand signals or gestures
- B) it is apparently easier to lip-read from a woman from a man
- C) you should face them directly and enunciate clearly
- D) slow speech is as difficult to follow as very rapid speech
- E) they do not appreciate being treated as if they were stupid

30. I had to lift my son to my shoulder .....

- A) since the weight of my shopping was too much to bear
- B) so that he could see the parade better
- C) as long as he gets nervous walking in crowded places
- D) then he'll be able to get the ball out of the tree
- E) in spite of his not being tall enough to see over the wall

31. ...., prices actually do not vary greatly.

- A) While there is an enormous difference in cost between the two tours
- B) Rather than waste time trying to find a bargain
- C) Because of the speed at which inflation is rising
- D) As most stores in a shopping centre cater to people of the same income level
- E) Even though the quality of service is identical

32. .... if she can persuade her parents.

- A) She would have invited more people to her party
- B) She will be extremely disappointed
- C) They were hoping to be able to borrow the car
- D) He'd take her to the local casino
- E) She'd like to spend next year abroad

33. .... until we listened to him in the opening session of the conference.

- A) Nobody knows where his theory emerged from
- B) He welcomed all the delegates who had travelled long distances
- C) We hadn't realised he was such a good speaker
- D) None of us have ever actually heard his voice before
- E) He had prepared a hard-hitting, forceful speech

34. Having found his apartment door open and the place in a mess, .....

- A) the cleaners had obviously not done what they were paid for
- B) he knew immediately that someone had been there
- C) the pictures had been smashed and all the drawers emptied
- D) the police arrived shortly call and investigated
- E) it was difficult to remember had been locked

35. .... as you are drawn into the unknown.

- A) Wildlife documentaries bring distant lands into our homes
- B) Maps of unfamiliar territory provide great pleasure
- C) You should make an effort to revisit your childhood play areas
- D) The further we went, the more certain I was we were lost
- E) You seemed very excited at the prospect of the safari

36. Before everyone was fully aware of the dangers, .....

- A) the police have evacuated the area and called in the-emergency services
- B) nobody would have ignored the threats to their safety
- C) warnings must be posted where they can be clearly seen
- D) it will be too late to prevent casualties from occurring
- E) pollution had become a major threat to the environment

37. She wondered, upon learning the decision .....

- A) that they hadn't informed her earlier
- B) If all the factors will be taken into account
- C) what the board's criteria had been
- D) how many times had he acted like this before
- E) to leave or try to find a new position

38. ....; however, they realise that solar technology is still in its infancy.

- A) Scientists believe that heat from the sun is an important new source of energy
- B) Most of the houses had been adapted to using the sun's rays to heat water
- C) Many calculators will not work in dark rooms
- D) Very few of the houses in the village had even got running water
- E) Research is still being done into the possibility of harnessing wind power

39. The nurse had told him .....

- A) to have the doctor sign his release papers before he leaves
- B) not to remove the thermometer until she came back that he'll have to stay in hospital for at least 49 hours
- C) worrying about the operation can only make it worse
- D) if he'd needed anything during the night

40. ...., nobody in his neighbourhood was entirely convinced.

- A) Having spent many hours trying to persuade them
- B) Although the evidence clearly proved his innocence
- C) Besides the mayor's proposal to reconstruct the area
- D) During the discussions which are to be held by local residents
- E) After he's told them all the details of his plan

YARIM CÜMLE / TEST 8 (40 ADET SORU)

CEVAP ANAHTARI

www.yesdil.com

1. B	2. E	3. B	4. B	5. D	6. A	7. E	8. C	9. C	10. C
11. B	12. D	13. A	14. B	15. D	16. E	17. D	18. D	19. B	20. C
21. B	22. C	23. D	24. E	25. C	26. A	27. E	28. A	29. C	30. B
31. D	32. E	33. C	34. B	35. B	36. E	37. C	38. A	39. B	40. B

Başarmak için YESDİL!