

TEST 2

Başarmak için YESDİL!

1. You're visiting a famous church and want to know about an ancient inscription on a tomb. You politely interrupt the guide who's showing your group round and ask him:
- A) The architecture of these old churches has always interested me.
 B) Excuse me, could you possibly tell me what this says, and how old it is?
 C) Excuse me. Could you tell me how old the tombs are?
 D) Sorry to bother you but could you tell me more about this famous church?
 E) I really have no idea what an inscription is.
2. You take an urgent telephone message on behalf of your boss. The minute he arrives back into the office, you give him the exact message, saying:
- A) Someone called earlier. I'm not sure who but it sounded quite important.
 B) Phone Mr. Jones of ABC Ltd. for me, would you? Thanks.
 C) Mr. Jones of ABC Ltd. rang earlier and asked you to return his call immediately.
 D) There's a message for you on your desk, when you've got a minute.
 E) Mr. Jones of ABC Ltd. called and sent you his greetings.
3. You are with a friend in a restaurant. Ask a waiter or why your second course is taking so long to arrive.
- A) Excuse me. Is there a problem? We finished our first course over half an hour ago.
 B) We haven't had any food yet and we've been waiting for ages.
 C) Excuse me, could you take our order now as we have been here a long time?
 D) I want to see the manager regarding the bad service here.
 E) I'm sorry. Can we have the bill please?
4. Someone you know has just broken up with a girlfriend of long standing. You sympathize with him, saying:
- A) You will feel terrible for the next two years.
 B) What did you do to her? It's your fault that you've broken up.
 C) I'm sorry to hear the bad news about your splitting up.
 D) Please accept my deepest sympathies regarding your girlfriend's fatal accident.
 E) I'm glad to see you have been with your girlfriend for such a long time.
5. You are studying in a foreign country. You go to your bank and ask the clerk if the money your parents have sent you has arrived. You say:
- A) Here's my cheque. Could you possibly cash it for me?
 B) Excuse me, I'm waiting for some money to be deposited in my account. Could you check for me?
 C) I am from Turkey. Have you met my parents?
 D) Hello, my family are coming with some money. Could I open an account please?
 E) What arrangements do I have to make to get money from another country?
6. You're in a London supermarket. You are feeling homesick and want some Turkish food. You ask a shop assistant if they stock Baklava. You say:
- A) Excuse me, where's the Turkish section?
 B) Excuse me. I was wondering if you sell Baklava? It's a Turkish sweet.
 C) I know you stock Turkish food so you must know what Baklava is.
 D) Sorry. Could you direct me to the nearest shop that sells Turkish delicacies?
 E) Excuse me. Where is the nearest Turkish shop assistant?
7. You are in England. You want a taxi-driver to drive a foreign friend of yours, who knows no English and is visiting for the first time, back to his hotel. You say to the taxi-driver:
- A) How much is it from here to a hotel?
 B) Go to his hotel. He will direct you.
 C) Please will you take my friend because he doesn't speak English?
 D) Please could you take him to this hotel? Here is the address.
 E) Do you take foreigners in your taxi?

8. Something drops out of the bag of a person walking in front of you in the street. You pick it up and return it to her, giving an explanation. You say:

- A) Excuse me, I just saw this fall out of your bag. Here you are.
- B) Excuse me, you should look after your belongings more carefully.
- C) Be careful! Your bag's open and you might lose something
- D) Excuse me, I have just found this. Do you want it?
- E) I wonder if you know who this belongs to.

9. Your mother is in hospital. You go to visit her. You know which ward she is in, but not where it is. You ask a nurse to help you:

- A) Where's my mother staying? She is very ill.
- B) My mother is ill. Where is the nearest hospital?
- C) Could you inform me which ward Mrs. Johnson is in, please?
- D) Excuse me, could I speak to a doctor about my mother's illness?
- E) Excuse me sir, could you tell me where ward 5 is?

10. You meet a foreigner in a bar. You disagree indignantly with him when he says that all people from your country are the same, and you say:

- A) Oh, I'm terribly upset that you feel that way.
- B) I'm afraid I can't agree with you on certain points.
- C) You're completely mistaken. I don't believe you can be so narrow-minded.
- D) I'm afraid I must admit that everyone in my country is alike.
- E) It's just because of our cultural background.

11. You overhear one of your classmates saying to another, at the beginning of the week, that the feeling behind the wheel was great. So you make a guess:

- A) She should have taken a few driving courses.
- B) I think she spent the weekend out of town.
- C) It sounds as if she had a puncture at some point over the weekend.

- D) Didn't she and her brother go cycling in the country?
- E) She must have practiced driving at the weekend.

12. You are walking by the river when you see some children playing, without supervision, on an old boat on the bank, which looks unsafe. You think you should warn them, so you say:

- A) Be careful! The currents are very - strong here.
- B) Why aren't your parents with you?
- C) I hope you all know how to swim.
- D) You should get permission to use that boat.
- E) That could be dangerous. Take care!

13. You are in a fast-food restaurant with a friend. On the next table there is a family. The parents are too engrossed in their conversation to notice that one of their children is running around between the tables. He suddenly trips, spilling milkshake all over your new jacket. You turn angrily to the parents and say:

- A) You should watch where you are going in future!
- B) Why can't you keep your children under control?
- C) Don't worry. I'll buy you another one.
- D) That couple are not responsible enough to bring up children.
- E) I'm sorry to interrupt, but your son's just fallen over.

14. You are on the point of going to bed when the telephone rings. It is one of your work colleagues phoning to discuss something which seems rather trivial. You are too tired to concentrate, so you say:

- A) As it's so urgent, perhaps you'd better come round to discuss it.
- B) I prefer not to talk about company business when I'm at home.
- C) Could you say that again? I didn't understand you.
- D) Sorry, I'm exhausted. Can we talk about this tomorrow?
- E) I'm not really interested in anything that's so unimportant

15. You are just about to finish work and leave. You want to get away promptly because you have theatre tickets for that evening. Suddenly your boss comes in with what looks like a pile of work saying:

- A) I'm afraid I can't do any overtime this evening.
- B) Which play is it you're going to see tonight?
- C) Can you stay on a bit? This is urgent.
- D) Sorry, but I've got to be at the theatre in an hour.
- E) Put it on my desk and I'll deal with it tomorrow.

16. While sitting in the staff canteen you overhear two colleagues gossiping unkindly about your secretary's private life. You are not impressed by this, so you say:

- A) I hardly think that this is any of your business.
- B) Well, tell me what you've heard then!
- C) Have you heard about her latest boyfriend?
- D) I could scarcely believe it myself when I heard!
- E) I'll definitely speak to her about her behavior.

17. You are doing the washing up in the kitchen. Your friend is making some coffee. You notice that she is just on the verge of putting something that looks like sugar, but isn't, into the cups, so you quickly say:

- A) No sugar in mine, please.
- B) You get the sugar. My hands are wet.
- C) No coffee for me, thanks!
- D) Stop! That's salt.
- E) Just one spoonful for me.

18. Your next-door neighbour's dog keeps coming into your garden and digging up your flower beds. You have spoken to him about it twice before, but now you've had enough. You go round to his house and say to him abruptly:

- A) Oh no! He hasn't done it again, has he? I really am terribly sorry.
- B) Stop that dog wandering loose immediately, or I'll take further action!

- C) Get off my flowers you stupid animal! Look at the mess you've made!
- D) I'd be able to grow far more flowers if it weren't for the dog.
- E) Are you aware that your dog has been into my garden and ruined my flowers?

19. You take some important documents to a photocopy shop. It's essential that they are spotless and you need five copies of each. As the assistant hands you the copies, you notice that there are some fingerprints on them, so you say:

- A) I asked for five copies, but there are only four here.
- B) These documents are very important so please be careful with them.
- C) Would you please make five copies of each of these?
- D) Some of these copies aren't very clear. Can you make them a little darker?
- E) Please do these again and this time handle them more carefully.

20. You are an English teacher and, twice a week, you give private lessons in your flat. Your neighbour has a habit of playing her music loudly enough for you to hear. The only time this disturbs you is when you are teaching. You don't wish to be rude, but feel you must say something so you go to see her. You say to her:

- A) Could you possibly play your music more quietly, please? I can hear it in my flat.
- B) Would it be possible for you to turn your music down on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, please?
- C) I don't object to your listening to loud music occasionally, but I'd rather it wasn't every day.
- D) There'll be some students at my flat tomorrow. Would you mind not playing your music just for that one day?
- E) Turn that music off! My students are finding it impossible to concentrate and so am I.

21. Your friend has recently moved into a very old house, which, she believes, is haunted. You think that she has an over-active imagination. She is, once again, telling you about the sounds she's been hearing during the nights. Showing your skepticism, you say:

- A) I'd like to visit your house and hear them for myself.
- B) You must be really frightened staying there on your own.
- C) Don't be so ridiculous. There are no such things as ghosts.
- D) Have you ever actually seen anything, or only heard the sounds?
- E) You should look into the history of the house to see if anything strange ever happened.

22. A friend of yours has decided to go on a diet. However, she seems to think that the solution to her problem is through virtually starving herself. Though sympathetic to her problem, you are worried that her approach is unhealthy, so you say to her:

- A) If you do regular exercise, then you can eat more and still lose weight you know.
- B) You look terrible! You should see a doctor.
- C) Who cares about appearances? Come on. Let's go out to a restaurant!
- D) I think you look fine as you are. You're not at all fat.
- E) You're really stupid to make yourself ill just for the sake of a few kilos.

23. Your friend is applying for a job as an air-hostess. You know that the airlines only recruit people of a certain appearance and unfortunately, she does not meet these requirements. You want to persuade her tactfully to think again, so you say to her:

- A) They'd never employ someone who looks like you.
- B) I'd love to do that sort of work .Do you think I could apply for a position as well?
- C) You know you don't have the right figure or face to be an air-hostess don't you?

- D) Working in the reservations department would pay better, and you'd get cheap travel, too, you know.
- E) You haven't got a chance of getting the job. You should be more realistic about your aims.

24. You and your family are visiting an elderly relative, who has a huge collection of antique chinaware. Your little brother is rather clumsy and terribly curious and your mother is afraid he will cause some damage so, warning him, she says:

- A) You mustn't make too much noise Aunt Enid isn't used to children.
- B) Make sure your brother doesn't break anything.
- C) You can have an ice-cream later, if you're good.
- D) If you touch anything, there'll be real trouble.
- E) Please behave nicely. We won't be staying long.

25. Christine is on holiday in a foreign country and has to change some traveller's cheques before she can go to the disco in the evening. She goes to the reception desk in the hotel and says:

- A) What's the current exchange rate?
- B) Do you think you could lend me some money?
- C) Can I pay by visa or do you want cash?
- D) How late do the banks round here stay open?
- E) Do they accept foreign currency at the disco?

26. Your sister's child is very badly behaved. He always draws on your furniture and chases your cat. You really don't want him to visit any more! However, you don't want to offend your sister either, so the next time she suggests a visit, you say:

- A) You're welcome, but leave your son at home.
- B) It's such a lovely day. Why don't we all go to the park instead?
- C) Yes, do come round. I've got a wonderful book on child discipline I want to lend you.
- D) I'm sorry. I'm afraid my cat is allergic to nasty children.
- E) I don't really want your son in my house. Why don't you come alone while he's at school?

27. You are in an expensive clothes shop with your friend. She is spending a very long time trying to decide which dress to buy; she has three favourites and cannot choose between them. Meanwhile you are getting very bored with waiting and say:

- A) Why don't you go home and think about it, then come back tomorrow?
- B) I think you should try the orange one on again.
- C) Take your time. It's important you don't buy the wrong one.
- D) These dresses cost a lot of money. Can you really afford them?
- E) They're all nice I might get one myself.

28. Your plane has landed at the airport and you have just collected your luggage. However, you have picked up the wrong suitcase by accident. The passenger who owns it is very angry and unreasonable over what you consider a simple mistake. You are irritated by his manner, but don't want to argue with him, so you say:

- A) If you'd labeled your bag properly, this wouldn't have happened would it?
- B) How dare you be so rude? It was your fault as well?
- C) Oh I'm so sorry. It was entirely my fault.
- D) I'm sorry, but I didn't do it on purpose, you know.
- E) I think you've picked up the wrong bag.

29. Your young niece, Sarah, has a beloved budgie called Frankie, which you are looking after while she is on holiday. Unfortunately Frankie has just died. You don't want Sarah to find out if possible because she'll be really upset, so, asking your mother for her opinion, you say:

- A) How long do budgies normally live for?
- B) What do you think is the best way to dispose of a dead budgie?.
- C) I don't want to tell Sarah that Frankie's dead. Would you mind telling her?
- D) I don't approve of keeping birds as pets, do you?
- E) Do you think she'd notice if I put a similar-looking budgie in its place?

30. Your friend is taking you to see on exhibition. As you approach the building you see that most of the lights are turned off and there are very few people around. You start to doubt that it is open and say:

- A) Ask that man what time it opens.
- B) Let's go home it's closed.
- C) I wish you'd checked the opening times more carefully.
- D) I'm really disappointed to have found it closed.
- E) Are you sure you've got the times right?

31. Leaving the cinema, you meet a group of friends who are trying to decide where to go for a meal. They are so indecisive that they appeal to you to choose. You accept and say:

- A) Thanks, but I'm not really hungry right now.
- B) You're hopeless! It's not that hard to come to an agreement.
- C) I think you should go for a pizza.
- D) If I weren't busy, I'd come with you.
- E) Well, that Italian restaurant is quite nice, but I like the Chinese one as well

32. One of your friends has a teenage son who is always in trouble of some kind. Your friend is upset and you sympathize with her, saying:

- A) It must be very worrying for you. My nephew was just the same.
- B) You could have brought him up better, you know.
- C) Well, at least he's not taking drugs.
- D) Don't fuss about it. After all, you're only young once.
- E) Young people just have no respect for anyone these days, do they?

33. Your office has a new coffee machine. You can't understand the operating instructions. You ask a colleague for help, saying:

- A) Why do they make these machines so complicated?
- B) Could you explain how to work this machine, please?
- C) If you're having a coffee, can you get me one?
- D) Would you like a drink?
- E) I'd make you a drink but I can't work the coffee machine

34. You have gone to the library to borrow a book for your grandmother. She only likes old-fashioned love stories. You ask the librarian where to look and say:
- A) I'm looking for a history book. Where should I go?
 B) My grandmother wants to borrow a book. Can you help?
 C) Do you have a good selection of romantic novels in (his library)?
 D) Is the romance section on this floor or upstairs?
 E) I'm returning a book my grandmother borrowed. Where should I put it?
35. Two weeks ago you made an arrangement with a friend to meet today. However, your friend is quite absent-minded, so you ring her up to remind her and say:
- A) How long are you going to be?
 B) Would you like to meet up sometime today?
 C) You haven't forgotten our date at three o'clock, have you?
 D) I'm sorry I forgot our meeting today.
 E) Don't worry! I've remembered our plan.
36. Your friend wants to buy a second-hand car. You visit several dealers and at the last one your friend calls you over-excitedly saying he has found the perfect car and is about to buy it. However, you know that this dealer has a dubious reputation, so, advising caution, you say:
- A) Is it cheaper to pay by cash
 B) Perhaps we should get an expert to check it over first.
 C) Don't buy it! It'll break down in a week.
 D) Well, it looks in good condition to me.
 E) If you ask me, it needs cleaning
37. You are at the cinema but you aren't enjoying the film because the people, behind you are constantly whispering to each other. You think this is very inconsiderate and during the interval you say to them:
- A) Would you mind sitting somewhere else, if you want to talk?
 B) I don't like this film much, do you?
 C) If you were more considerate, you'd move so I can see.
 D) I wish those people would be quite!
 E) Could you talk a bit louder, please? I can't quite hear.
38. You are in the supermarket. A man pushing a trolley is not looking where he is going and is just about to knock over a display of fruit. You say:
- A) Excuse me, what are you looking at?
 B) Look out! You'll hit something in another second.
 C) You really should pay attention to what you're buying.
 D) Well done. You've at last succeeded in collapsing the display.
 E) Excuse me, if you damage that fruit it'll be very expensive
39. You have spent the first day of your holiday sunbathing on the beach. However, the sun was much stronger than you thought and your skin is now red and sore. You need something to help, so you go into a chemist's and say:
- A) Is it advisable not to sunbathe at midday?
 B) What's the best way to get a good tan?
 C) Do you think I should have used' some sun cream?
 D) How-hot do you think the sun was today?
 E) Can you recommend anything to soothe sunburn?
40. A colleague of yours is finding a work project difficult at the moment, even though he is very intelligent. You want to encourage him and say:
- A) You knew when you started this project that it would be complicated.
 B) I don't really understand the problem you're much cleverer than me.
 C) It's hard but you're doing really well. Just keep going.
 D) I can take over the project if it's too hard for you.
 E) Well, I think everyone's finding things tough right now

DURUM / TEST 2 (40 ADET SORU) CEVAP ANAHTARI

www.yesdil.com

1. B	2. C	3. C	4. C	5. B	6. B	7. D	8. A	9. E	10. C
11. E	12. E	13. B	14. D	15. C	16. A	17. D	18. B	19. E	20. B
21. C	22. A	23. D	24. D	25. D	26. B	27. A	28. D	29. E	30. E
31. C	32. A	33. B	34. D	35. C	36. B	37. A	38. B	39. E	40. C

Başarmak için YESDİL!