

TEST 1

Başarmak için YESDİL!

1. As regards its textile industry, Turkey has recently come to a remarkable point in the world market.
- A) The only industry that Turkey is noticeable for in the world market is the textile industry.
 B) Turkey's achievements in the textile industry is likely to make her gain a significant place in the world market.
 C) The demand for better products in the world market recently has stimulated quality products in Turkish textile industry.
 D) The point in the world market which the Turkish textile industry has reached recently is due to its quality products.
 E) In the world market recently the Turkish textile industry has attained a noticeable position.
2. Such a major operation as this has proved completely successful in very few cases.
- A) Such an important operation has never proved to be entirely successful so far.
 B) Tills case is the first one in which an important operation has been successfully accomplished.
 C) In addition to this one, they have been significantly successful in a few operations before.
 D) They have performed very successful operations on several occasions in cases similar to this.
 E) There aren't many cases in which an important operation like this has been fully successful.
3. I'm likely to leave the office before he turns up.
- A) I'd like to leave the office after he has come.
 B) I may well have left the office by the time he arrives.
 C) I don't have to wait here in the office until he returns.
 D) I want to leave the office before he arrives.
 E) He won't be able to find me in the office when he comes back.
4. We haven't heard from her for at least two months.
- A) The last time we received some news from her was more than two months ago.
 B) After she left here, we didn't receive any news from her for about two months.
 C) It had been almost two months by the time we heard from her again.
 D) We last saw her exactly two months ago.
 E) We hope to have heard from her in two months' time.
5. I turned down his offer, having always found him more of a hindrance than a help.
- A) Thinking that it might hinder me, I rejected his offer.
 B) I didn't accept his offer, though I knew that he was trying to help me.
 C) He has always been a nuisance for me rather than being useful, so I declined his offer.
 D) Instead of rejecting his offer directly, I implied that it didn't seem a suitable one in my case.
 E) It would have hindered me if I hadn't declined his offer.
6. It's the symptoms of an illness that indicate to doctors what a patient is suffering from.
- A) Doctors can't ignore the symptoms in diagnosing a patient's illness.
 B) Diagnosis and treatment of an illness depends entirely on the doctor's ability.
 C) It's only doctors that can diagnose an illness by considering its symptoms.
 D) Doctors diagnose a patient's illness through its symptoms.
 E) A patient should explain the symptoms very well so that the doctor can diagnose his illness precisely.

7. It is entirely a matter of opinion to find television beneficial or harmful,

- A) Whether television is useful or not depends completely on people's points of view.
- B) Many people totally disagree with those who believe that television is useful,
- C) It's largely believed that the use of television is outweighed by its harm.
- D) It has always been a matter of discussion whether television is useful or harmful.
- E) Considering its vast benefit, it is impossible to say that television is harmful.

8. The weather forecaster says the outlook for the whole week is for more snow.

- A) More snow is predicted by the weather forecaster for the rest of the week.
- B) The outlook for the week is that snow will continue, though less heavily.
- C) According to the weather report, more snow is predicted during the week.
- D) Considering the weather forecast, we can look forward to snow throughout the week.
- E) As more snow is expected till the end of the week, the weather forecaster warns people to look out.

9. It says on the packet that two tablets will bring relief from pain in a few minutes.

- A) For quick relief from pain, it says on the packet, that you should take at least two tablets.
- B) It's impossible to deaden this pain in a few -minutes if you don't take two of these tablets.
- C) Such strong pain can only be numbed by taking two of these tablets at a time, according to the information, on the packet.
- D) As it is said "on the packet, you should be feeling alright in a few minutes after you've taken two of these tablets.
- E) The information on the packet says pain will be eased a few minutes after two tablets have been taken.

10. A lasting peace will be established in the area only if both sides accept the agreement.

- A) If both sides agree on this treaty, there will be a hope for long-term peace in the area.
- B) A durable peace in the area cannot be achieved just through the agreement of both sides.
- C) The only way to establish a long-term peace in the area is to persuade all sides to sign the treaty.
- D) There won't be durable peace in the area unless both sides agree on the treaty.
- E) If only both sides were to accept the agreement, they'd be able to establish the peace very soon.

11. It was not until I spoke to him that I realised how serious the case was.

- A) I was already aware that the case was really serious when I talked to him.
- B) I wasn't aware, before I spoke to him, that the case was so serious.
- C) After I talked to him, I was convinced that the case was as serious as he thought.
- D) As soon as he told me about the case, I realized that he was in serious trouble.
- E) The case was so serious that I couldn't talk to him until he himself mentioned it to me.

12. My son bears a strong resemblance to me as a child, but he is not as naughty as I was.

- A) Although my son takes after me in many ways, his behavior is different from mine.
- B) Apart from my being more mischievous, my son reminds me very much of myself in childhood.
- C) I'm glad that my son looks so much like me and that he isn't so mischievous as I used to be.
- D) When I was a child I was very badly-behaved, and now I can see this reflected in my own son.
- E) The similarities between myself as a child and my son are very marked, especially considering our naughtiness.

13. The value of Turkish currency has fallen noticeably over the recent months.

- A) During the past few months Turkish currency seems to have lost its value.
- B) It is significant that the value of Turkish Lira has dropped so much in the previous months.
- C) Over the last few months there has been a visible change in the value of Turkish currency.
- D) The most apparent difference to be seen from recent months is the fall in value of Turkish currency.
- E) There has been a dramatic decrease in the value of Turkish Lira in the last few months.

14. Thinking that city life was beyond their endurance, they resorted to their home town.

- A) City life was so attractive for them that they abandoned their home town to live in the city.
- B) Unable to stand living in the city any longer, they decided that their home town might have more to offer.
- C) They tried living in the city for a while but their strong feelings for their home town drove them back.
- D) They returned to their home town as they found the conditions in the city unbearable.
- E) They have no option but to move to their home town, city life becoming unaffordable with each day.

15. She won't change her mind even if you speak to her.

- A) Unless she revises her opinion, you shouldn't talk to her.
- B) If you speak to her, then she definitely won't do anything different.
- C) It won't make any difference if you talk to her because she'll still do as she likes.
- D) She has made her mind up, so don't bother trying to persuade her to change it.
- E) Talking to her may be the only way to get her to think again.

16. As she attempted to settle the argument between her parents, they grew more and more offensive.

- A) The harder she tried to stop her parents from quarrelling, the more insulting they became.
- B) By the time she decided to intervene in their quarrel, her parents had already become rude to each other.
- C) Her parents attacked each other just as she was trying to settle the argument.
- D) She attempted more than the others to stop the argument between her parents.
- E) As she grew older, she played a great role in keeping her parents from arguing.

17. It seems to me that his real identity will always remain a secret.

- A) The truth about him should never be told to anyone.
- B) I think that he kept his genuine identity hidden from me.
- C) I don't think anyone will ever know who he actually was.
- D) He has kept quiet about himself and will never reveal anything to me.
- E) I have never believed that he is the person he claims to be.

18. We haven't had any reason for complaint until this occasion.
- A) Only recently has it become necessary for us to complain.
 B) This is the first time that we've felt the need to complain.
 C) We hadn't complained about, anything for a long time.
 D) Except for this occasion, we haven't ever complained without a concrete cause.
 E) We've been reasonably satisfied with everything so far.
19. When choosing your career, it is important to match your skills with your interests and your personality.
- A) It is necessary to have hobbies and character, as well as talents, if you wish to follow your ambitions.
 B) Your talents reflect your interests and character and this is of significance when deciding on a job.
 C) A person should think about personal points and not just skills when selecting an interesting job.
 D) You ought to decide on a profession in which your skills coincide with your personality and interests.
 E) You cannot decide upon your future until you have assessed how well your skills go with your ambition.
20. She is not exactly keen on cooking, but prefers it to washing up.
- A) Even though she doesn't like cookery much, she'd rather do it than wash up.
 B) It is preferable to do the cooking rather than tin: washing up.
 C) She really enjoys cookery but always neglects the washing up.
 D) Cookery isn't one of her interests and neither is washing up.
 E) Although she isn't at all good at cooking, she's taken on that responsibility in order to avoid washing up.

21. She would have died if the operation had been just a bit delayed.
- A) As they were late with the operation she came very close to death.
 B) They were only just in time to save her life when they operated.
 C) The operation was only performed when they realized that she was about to die.
 D) They were late doing the operation but luckily she didn't die.
 E) It was decided that delaying the operation further would endanger her life.
22. Even if you haven't been involved in an accident so far, you may still have one any moment in the future.
- A) Your not having had an accident so far can give us an idea about your future performance.
 B) It doesn't mean that you won't have any accidents in the future just because you haven't had one up to now.
 C) Instead of blaming yourself for the accidents you've had up to now, try to be more careful in the future not to have one.
 D) A driver may not be involved in any accident in his life, but he must still be careful in order not to have one in the future.
 E) Because you haven't had an accident so far, we can at least assume that the possibility of your having one in the future is slight.

23. It was not until 1962 that the first communications satellite could be sent up.

- A) Man failed in his first attempt to send a communications satellite up in 1962.
- B) A number of communications satellites have been sent up since the first one in 1962.
- C) It was only in 1962 that man was able to send a communications satellite up for the first time.
- D) It was a remarkable point in humans' history when the first communication satellite was sent up in 1962
- E) After the first communications satellite had been sent up in 1962, several others followed it.

24. There are few students who occasionally find it very boring to listen to his lectures.

- A) For most of the students, his lectures are usually quite interesting.
- B) Sometimes students think that his lectures are rather boring.
- C) Only a few of the students think that his lectures are very boring.
- D) There are always a few students who don't find his lectures very interesting.
- E) He can sometimes give lectures which are found interesting by most of the students

25. It was not the painting itself but its frame that attracted everybody's interest, except for mine.

- A) I was the only person who was interested in the painting itself rather than its frame.
- B) The frame was so attractive that everybody was interested in it more than they were in the painting itself.
- C) Despite what everybody said, I liked both the frame and the painting itself.
- D) For me, the frame looked more attractive, but everybody else was interested in the painting itself.
- E) It was the others but not me who were attracted more by the painting itself than by its frame

26. We hadn't expected that we'd have so much difficulty finding a flat near our work.

- A) We found a flat near our work much more easily than we'd expected.
- B) To find a flat close to our work was much more difficult than we'd expected.
- C) We'd already expected that it'd be rather difficult to find a flat close to our work.
- D) It was certain that we'd have great difficulty finding a flat near our work.
- E) Because the flat was not close to our work, it was even more difficult to commute than we'd expected

27. The plays of Shakespeare are regarded as without any parallel in the literary world.

- A) Although Shakespeare is known to be the best of all the playwrights his other works have no literary value.
- B) In the literary world, Shakespeare is thought to be unique as a playwright.
- C) No one in the literary world has been able to write as well as Shakespeare did.
- D) Everyone who has read a play by Shakespeare thinks that he is better than all the other playwrights.
- E) Shakespeare is the only playwright who is loved by everybody who has read his works.

28. During the next public holiday, all shops and services will remain open, except for banks.

- A) Even the banks will be closed over the next public holiday.
- B) All shops and services will not close despite the public holiday, including banks.
- C) Because of the public holiday, the shops and services, as well as the banks, won't be open.
- D) No shops and services, apart from banks, will be open on the .next public holiday.
- E) It is only the banks that won't be open over the next public holiday

29. No one can possibly fail to realise, upon seeing their house, that it has been tastefully furnished.

- A) The first thing you'll notice upon entering their house is that they have been really tasteful in their choice of furniture.
- B) It is impossible for anyone to appreciate their choice of furniture when seeing how tastelessly it has been chosen.
- C) Everyone seeing their house is certain to get the impression that it has been furnished in a manner showing good taste.
- D) One can easily understand how tasteless they are just by looking at the furniture in their house.
- E) The way people furnish their houses can give an idea to the visitors whether they have good taste or not.

30. You are playing your music so loudly that I can't concentrate on my work.

- A) Could you possibly turn down your music so that I can concentrate on my work?
- B) What I need most in order to do my work is a quiet environment, but your loud music makes it impossible.
- C) If you could play your music a bit more quietly, I might not be distracted.
- D) The high volume of the music you are playing distracts me from my work.
- E) I found it really difficult to do my work while you were listening to music at such a high volume.

31. Besides putting on false hair, he wore dark glasses, yet he was still recognized.

- A) He put false hair on as well as wearing dark glasses in order not to be recognised.
- B) He might have been recognised if he hadn't put on false hair and worn dark glasses.
- C) His recognition was inevitable even if he had put false hair on and worn dark glasses.
- D) In addition to putting on false hair he wore dark glasses so that no one would recognise him!

- E) He couldn't avoid being recognised despite the false hair and dark glasses.

32. They only fire an employee when they feel sure that he is quite useless.

- A) They believe that it's worth training an employee who shows promise for the future.
- B) Their policy is not to dismiss an employee unless he proves to be hopeless.
- C) Naturally they want to employ only those who will be useful for them.
- D) When they are certain that an employee is hopeless; they give him the sack without delay.
- E) They believe that useless workers are not worth keeping in employment for long.

33. He thought the meal was going to be virtually a disaster, yet it turned out to be quite the opposite.

- A) Contrary to what he'd expected, the meal was a real success.
- B) Actually, he'd thought the meal wouldn't be ready when the guests turned up.
- C) Whatever he did, he couldn't help producing a meal which was almost catastrophic.
- D) Expecting the meal to be splendid, he was shocked to produce a real disaster.
- E) He was expecting the meal to be really catastrophic; however, it wasn't that bad.

34. The primary influence on a pupil's career choice is the attitude of home.

- A) Parents should direct their children to make a sensible choice of career.
- B) The family plays a significant role upon the student's choosing a successful profession.
- C) A student is mainly affected by his family when deciding upon his profession.
- D) When students decide on their future career, they usually take their parents' opinions into account.
- E) Parents should avoid trying to influence the child excessively in his choice of career.

35. They should have delayed the quarrel until after the guests had left.

- A) They found it really difficult to keep themselves from quarrelling before the guests left,
- B) Whenever they had some guests, they used to start a quarrel in their presence.
- C) Even the guests couldn't stop them from having 'a big row.
- D) Their argument broke out as soon as the guests had left.
- E) It was wrong of them to have a row in front of their guests.

36. However good our intentions are in destroying the- insects eating our crops, at the same time we deprive the birds living on them of food.

- A) We are now able to destroy the birds that eat our crops as well as the insects.
- B) The insecticides used to combat all kinds of insects also help us to get rid of birds feeding on our crops.
- C) Birds are useful for us in eating the insects, but we have to fight them when they begin to destroy our crops.
- D) Although we don't mean to, we leave birds without food by using insecticides on our crops.
- E) We all have good intentions to birds, for they eat insects, which would otherwise do harm to our crops.

37. His attitude throughout the interview showed that he didn't have the least interest in our offer.

- A) We understood from his manner during the interview that he wasn't at all impressed by our offer.
- B) My Impression from his manner at the Interview is that he has little interest in our offer.
- C) During the interview, I tried to work out the extent of his interest in our offer
- D) He implied at the interview that he didn't find our offer very interesting.
- E) During the interview, we couldn't understand exactly how impressed he was by our offer.

38. You could have talked to her less offensively.

- A) I wonder how you managed to keep yourself from being more offensive at her remarks.
- B) Fortunately, you were able to remain calm despite her insulting remarks.
- C) She wasn't a bit hurt even after your insulting remarks.
- D) Your remarks to her were unnecessarily insulting.
- E) You were more offensive throughout the speech than she was.

39. I'd recommend you to consult a professional about the repairs on your car instead of attempting to do it on your own.

- A) There may be some minor repairs on your car, which you yourself can fix without applying to a professional.
- B) I think you should have your car repaired by a mechanic, rather than try it by yourself.
- C) In my opinion, the trouble with your car seems to be a serious one, so you must take it to a garage.
- D) can't see why you don't take your car to a mechanic, instead of trying to fix it by yourself.
- E) Thinking that you're hopeless at fixing cars, I advise you to get it done by a professional.

40. Admittedly, our educational system can't respond satisfactorily to the necessities of our time.

- A) I admit that we should change our educational system to make it fit today's requirements.
- B) Unfortunately, our educational system still lacks lots of things even in this modern age.
- C) Modernization of our educational system is urgently needed to catch up with our age.
- D) It's undeniable that our educational system totally lacks the benefits of the modern age.
- E) It's true that our educational system is far from meeting contemporary needs to the full.

EŞ ANLAM / TEST 1 (40 ADET SORU) CEVAP ANAHTARI

www.yesdil.com

1. E	2. E	3. B	4. A	5. C	6. D	7. A	8. C	9. E	10. D
11. B	12. B	13. E	14. D	15. C	16. A	17. C	18. B	19. D	20. A
21. B	22. B	23. C	24. A	25. A	26. B	27. B	28. E	29. C	30. D
31. E	32. B	33. A	34. C	35. E	36. D	37. A	38. D	39. B	40. E

Başarmak için YESDİL!