

TEST 3

Başarmak için YESDİL!

1. According to the results of research, people cannot truly rest unless they dream.

- A) When people are dreaming, they are able to get proper rest from their sleep.
- B) The results of research show that people who aren't relaxed aren't able to dream.
- C) Research has shown that without dreaming, it is impossible to achieve complete relaxation through sleep.
- D) Dreaming comes about once a person is able to feel relaxed, according to research.
- E) True rest, according to research, occurs at the time of dreaming

2. One of our athletes came very close to winning a gold medal in the Olympics.

- A) None of our athletes were near to getting gold medals in the Olympics.
- B) An Olympic gold medal was won by one of our athletes by a very close margin.
- C) In the Olympics, an athlete of ours narrowly missed receiving a gold medal.
- D) A few of our athletes very nearly gained gold medals in the Olympics.
- E) The achievement of a gold medal by an Olympic athlete of ours was from a very close win.

3. Educationalists agree that no teacher's duties should be limited solely to teaching.

- A) It is agreed among educationalists that teachers ought not to be given duties that do not concern teaching.
- B) Teacher's obligations, as accepted by educationalists, are only limited to teaching.
- C) Educationalists claim that it is the duty of teachers to restrict themselves to teaching.
- D) It's accepted by educationalists that, besides teaching, teachers have other duties.
- E) Educationalists have varying opinions about whether teaching should be the sole responsibility of teachers or not.

4. Although not entirely satisfied, the committee could see no alternative to following the plan in its original form.

- A) The initial form of the plan was the only alternative which got the full approval of the committee.
- B) Despite having many choices, the committee decided that the original plan was the most satisfactory.
- C) The committee were not completely happy about following the first draft of the plan.
- D) The committee looked at alternatives to the plan before settling for the first.
- E) The committee, still dubious about it, returned to the plan's initial form because there weren't any other choices.

5. So as not to regret them later, you should avoid taking hasty decisions.

- A) You should decide what to do quickly then you'll avoid being sorry about it afterwards.
- B) You ought to take some time before making up your mind so that you don't get upset later.
- C) If you regret something later on, you probably made your mind up too hastily in the first place,
- D) Try not to decide anything until later; otherwise, you may regret it.
- E) Decisions taken quickly may cause regret later.

6. The scheme seemed so impracticable to me that I didn't even consider supporting it.

- A) In my opinion the scheme isn't practicable, so I won't give it any consideration.
- B) I wouldn't consider giving my support to the plan even if it weren't so impracticable.
- C) It appears to be such an impracticable project that I'm doubtful about whether to back it.
- D) I gave no thought to backing the plan as I found it impossible to put into practice.
- E) I'd never back the scheme even if it didn't seem impossible.

7. Children are usually a fine talk-generating topic at almost any gathering.

- A) In just about any gathering, children are excellent talkers.
- B) The topic of conversation at almost any gathering is generally about children.
- C) At nearly all gatherings, the subject of children can easily promote conversation.
- D) Children tend to talk about a lot of subjects when they gather together.
- E) Virtually any time they are at gatherings, children generate good discussions.

8. We can't change a rule if any of the members object to it

- A) We have to get all of the members' approval in order to be able to alter a rule.
- B) The regulations are unalterable due to the; objections of some of the members.
- C) Within the members complained, we were unable to amend the rules.
- D) Some of the members object to our not being able to alter the regulations.
- E) The members are able to change any of the rules as long as we agree.

9. It was not until after he appeared in his third film that he achieved nationwide fame

- A) After appearing in three films everyone in the nation had heard of him.
- B) His first two films failed to make him an actor well-known throughout the country.
- C) By the time he made his third film, he was already famous across the land.
- D) It only took three films for him to achieve national fame.
- E) His third film was acclaimed internationally, unlike the first two.

10. A number of the houses in this district date from the fifteenth century.

- A) In the fifteenth century, many houses were built in this region.
- B) This district was established during the fifteenth century with the construction of several houses.
- C) The number of houses in this area dating from previous centuries is fifteen.
- D) This region has several houses which were built in the fifteenth century.
- E) Quite a few houses in this area are dated because they were constructed in the fifteenth century.

11. He felt very proud to be considered the best man to take on the chairmanship of the society.

- A) He was extremely happy when the chairmanship of the society was given to the person he considered the best.
- B) The man thought to be the most suitable for the position of society chairman is very proud of himself.
- B) He took great pride in the fact that he was considered the best chairman the society had had,
- C) It was thought that the most appropriate man for the chairmanship of the society was him.
- E) He was honoured that he was thought the most eligible person for the chairmanship of the society.

12. There are still a few mysterious points about how the Mayor died.

- A) The Mayor died in mysterious circumstances.
- B) The death of the Mayor has had a strange effect.
- C) There is something very strange about how the Mayor died.
- D) The killing of the Mayor seems to have been pointless.
- E) The death of the Mayor hasn't yet been fully explained.

13. For me, relaxation is a change of activity rather than a slump into inaction.

- A) I regard rest not as a decline into idleness but as being engaged-in another activity.
- B) I can only relax by doing something interesting instead of just not doing anything.
- C) A change of activity is as relaxing for me as having a rest without doing anything.
- D) I prefer complete inaction to an alternative activity in order to rest.
- E) I'd rather slump into idleness than do something different when I need to relax.

14. She deeply regrets not having accepted the job with the travel agency.

- A) She is really sorry that the travel agency didn't accept her for the position.
- B) The travel agency apologized for being unable to appoint her to Mir post she'd applied for.
- C) Regretfully, the travel agency hasn't offered her the post she wanted.
- D) She really wishes she hadn't turned down the job offer from the travel agency.
- E) Looking back on it, she realizes she shouldn't have taken the travel agency job.

15. Comparatively few people are able to use either hand with equal facility.

- A) It is relatively easy for some people to employ both hands equally..
- B) Many people find using either hand equally facilitating.
- C) A great majority of people cannot use both hands with the same ease.
- D) For many people, it is equally as easy to use either hand.
- E) There are few comparisons between the abilities of left and right-handed people.

16. There is no greater guide to success than the lessons taught by our own mistakes.

- A) There are certain lessons in the lives of all people which only failures can teach.
- B) The lessons we take from our failures play the most important part in leading us to achievement
- C) Failure teaches us what we don't know and what we need to know about how to achieve success.
- D) No one can attain success without making any mistakes.
- E) The most important lesson failure can teach us is not to make the same mistake again.

17. Despite their lack of financial resources, the islanders seemed incredibly happy.

- A) The people who lived on the island were very happy even though they had no money.
- B) It's unbelievable that the island people were happy about not having any cash. .
- C) If they had been richer, the residents of the island would have been much happier.
- D) Since they were very poor, it was impossible for the islanders ever to be very happy.
- E) The happy people of the island only regretted the fact that they didn't have any money.

18. In Japan, as in Turkey, it is unthinkable to enter a house wearing shoes.

- A) The Japanese and Turks are, culturally very similar, an example of which is not wearing shoes inside.
- B) The Japanese often enter Turkish houses without thinking about taking off their shoes.
- C) Nobody even considers going into a home with shoes on in Japan, and this custom is the same in Turkey.
- D) Japan and Turkey are exactly the same, even to the point that shoes are not worn in houses.
- E) What the Turks appreciate about the Japanese is that they don't like wearing shoes in the house either.

19. The children are not allowed to enter the school until the bell rings.
- A) Once the bell has rung, the children cannot go in or out of the school.
 B) By the time the bell rings, the children must be inside the school.
 C) The children are waiting for the bell to ring so that they can enter the school.
 D) The children can only enter the school when the bell has rung.
 E) The children who arrive after the bell has rung are not allowed to enter the school.
20. I have almost no doubt that the mail will have been delivered to us by three o'clock this afternoon.
- A) The post might be here by three o'clock this afternoon, though I very much doubt it.
 B) Without doubt, the letters are going to be posted before 15.00 today.
 C) I'm pretty sure that we will have got the mail at or before 15.00 today.
 D) I want to make sure that the mail is delivered today no later than 3 p.m.
 E) It's a little doubtful that the mail we sent will have arrived by three o'clock today.
21. Had I realised that nobody actually liked bowling, I wouldn't have suggested going.
- A) I knew we shouldn't have gone bowling because everybody has always hated the game.
 B) I didn't know everyone hated bowling so much until after we'd already gone and done it.
 C) There's no way-I would have said we should go bowling if I'd known it was so unpopular.
 D) Knowing that it was so unpopular with everyone, I really shouldn't have suggested bowling.
 E) I don't understand why everyone wanted to go bowling if nobody actually enjoys doing it.
22. The price of coffee has doubled due to severe weather in the area where it's produced.
- A) The coffee-producing areas of the world suffered greatly from bad weather and 100% higher prices.
 B) As a result of terrible climatic conditions in its growing regions, coffee costs twice what it used to.
 C) The 100% increase in the price of coffee came about because of some truly horrible weather around the world.

- D) Whenever the weather in coffee-producing places gets bad, coffee prices tend to go up by 100 percent.
 E) Before the horrendous weather hit the coffee growing regions, the price was twice what it became.

23. Since the train is due to depart at seven, we should meet at the station at quarter to.

- A) It would be a good idea for us to get together at the station at 6.45 as the train leaves at seven.
 B) If all of us arrive at the train station before 6.45, we may be able to find seats on the seven o'clock train.
 C) I'd advise you to get to the station no later than fifteen minutes before your train is due to leave.
 D) Ever since they changed the time of the train to 7.00, we've met at the station 15 minutes earlier.
 E) Unless we meet at the station at quarter to seven, we'll certainly miss the seven o'clock train.

24. When I was a child, I liked swimming more than anything and would go to the pool every day.

- A) If I were still a child and had nothing else to do, I would go swimming every single day.
 B) Though there were plenty of things for kids to do, I used to go to the pool on a daily basis.
 C) I went to the pool daily during my childhood as swimming was my favourite thing to do.
 D) I never did anything when I went to the pool as a child; even so, it was the place I liked best.
 E) I wish I had had the chance to go to the pool every day as a child because it was my favourite activity.

25. I went to my home town for the first time in twenty years and saw that it hadn't changed a bit.

- A) I last visited my home town two decades ago, and I think of it as not having changed since then.
- B) In the twenty years since I left it permanently, my home town hadn't really been altered very much.
- C) While bits of it had changed, my home town looked much as it had when I last saw it twenty years earlier.
- D) Though it had been two decades since my last visit, I observed no alterations in my home town.
- E) During my first visit to my home town in twenty years, I was shocked at how little remained unchanged.

26. He needn't have come to pick me up because I could have taken a taxi.

- A) I was glad that he came to pick me up as I might not have found a taxi.
- B) He fetched me, but it was unnecessary as it would have been possible for me to take a taxi.
- C) He didn't have to come and collect me in his car because I was able to get a ride in a taxi.
- D) If I hadn't been able to get a taxi, he would have had to come and fetch me in his car.
- E) I was able to get a ride in a taxi, so he didn't need to come and pick me up in his car.

27. Despite the rain we've been having lately, the farms are still suffering from drought.

- A) Even if we get some rain in the near future, the farms will still be affected by the drought.
- B) The recent drought that has affected the farms has been caused by the lack of rain here.
- C) If we have more rain soon, the farms will probably stop suffering from the drought.
- D) The drought is continuing to affect the farms even though it's been raining here recently.
- E) We used to have a lot of rain, but nowadays the farms are suffering from drought.

28. It's nearly impossible to voice your opinion on this matter without offending someone.

- A) There's no way that anyone can possibly be upset by your simply saying what you think.
- B) Whether you state them or not, your feelings on this subject are probably upsetting.
- C) You will most likely make someone upset if you say what you think about this issue.
- D) Though not everyone will be pleased with what you say, you should say what you think.
- E) It should be possible for you to solve this problem without making everyone angry.

29. There are few truly natural places left in the world and most of them are practically inaccessible.

- A) There's no way to get to most of the world's nature spots, and so, they remain almost intact.
- B) It's hardly possible to get access to most of the few remaining genuinely natural places on this planet.
- C) It's true that the number of official nature areas is declining, but you can visit them with some effort.
- D) It isn't very practical to try to go to natural places any more as there are simply too few left.
- E) Most of the world's green places that are easily accessible have already been badly spoilt.

30. I was hardly upset that she did not want to see me again since the feeling was entirely mutual.

- A) As I didn't want to see her any more than she wanted to see me, I didn't mind much when she told me so.
- B) I was glad when she broke off our relationship as I was thinking of doing the same but finding it hard to tell her.
- C) It was hard on me when she said she never wanted to see me again, in spite of our mutual affection.
- D) Having once loved her, I found it hard to tell her that I no longer wished her to be part of my life.
- E) Because, of the feelings we had once shared, I was terribly upset to hear that she no longer wished to see me.

31. Despite not being widely known in her own time, Jane Austen had a small band of dedicated followers.

- A) Even during her own lifetime, Jane Austen had gathered a sizeable band of devoted admirers.
- B) A small devoted group admired Jane Austen's work, in spite of her obscurity during her lifetime.
- C) Despite the quality of her work, Jane Austen didn't become popular with readers until after her death.
- D) Until after her death, not many people who read Jane Austen's work liked it.
- E) Ever since her death, Jane Austen has had a small but dedicated circle of readers.

32. The driver of the truck ignored the warning signs, so it was only natural that he had an accident.

- A) The truck-driver shouldn't have ignored the warning signs, as he could have had an accident.
- B) Having ignored the warning signs, the truck-driver was lucky to escape having an accident.
- C) Since he paid no attention to the warning signs, it is not surprising that the truck driver had an accident.
- D) The truck-driver probably had his accident because he was foolish enough to disregard the warning signs.
- E) If he didn't overlook the warning signs all the time, the truck-driver wouldn't have so many accidents.

33. I have been following the US election in the papers, but not many around me seem to care.

- A) Though I have been reading the newspapers about the US elections, few of those I know appear interested.
- B) Following the US election, there was a great deal of discussion among the people I know.
- C) Having evaluated the US election with some friends, I have decided that it is not very interesting.
- D) None of my friends care about the US election in spite of all the news there has been in the papers.
- E) Anyone who cares so much about the US election as I do should avidly follow it in the papers.

34. The manager has told everyone but those in the Accounting Department that they can take Monday off.

- A) Everyone has to come to work on Monday except those who work in the Accounting Department.
- B) The manager has to come to work on Monday, but the members of the Accounting Department don't.
- C) No one who works in the Accounting Department wants to come on Monday, but the manager insists that they should.
- D) Everyone has to take Monday off whether they work in the Accounting Department or not.
- E) According to the manager, only the accounting staff have to work on Monday.

35. Alex should never have been allowed to try to climb the mountain alone.

- A) When Alex left to climb the mountain, he said he knew what he was doing.
- B) Alex cannot possibly have tried to climb the mountain by himself.
- C) Someone ought to have stopped Alex from attempting to climb the mountain on his own.
- D) No one could have stopped Alex from trying to climb the mountain by himself.
- E) It would probably be wrong to let Alex climb the mountain on his own.

36. Surely it does not matter to him whether people agree with him or not.

- A) He is sure that no one else apart from him is correct.
- B) He would prefer other people to agree with him on every matter.
- C) Even if he has a different opinion from others, no one listens to him.
- D) He certainly doesn't care if other people's opinions coincide with his.
- E) It is unlikely that anyone will share such an opinion as his.

37. Since the weather was so bad, I didn't mind having to stay in and study.

- A) If only I didn't have to study today, I wouldn't care what the weather was like.
- B) I couldn't get the weather off my mind while I was stuck at home studying.
- C) If the weather was better, I would be really upset about having to stay home to study today.
- D) Fortunately, the weather is horrible, so I can study without being distracted.
- E) The necessity to stay home and study didn't bother me because of the awful weather.

38. There is no one besides you that I can trust with this matter.

- A) In addition to you, there are a few people in whom I have confidence.
- B) I really wish that I could trust you with this concern.
- C) You are the only person in whom I can put any faith concerning this.
- D) If anyone else was trustworthy, I wouldn't disturb you with this matter.
- E) Having found no one else that I can trust, I will confide in you.

39. Commuters in Istanbul are still not used to travelling on the Metro.

- A) Citizens of Istanbul didn't use to travel on an underground railway.
- B) The people of Istanbul have to learn to use the tube more often.
- C) People who travel to work every day in Istanbul are not yet accustomed to using the subway.
- D) In Istanbul, not many people are willing to travel by underground train.
- E) Not enough people use the Istanbul Metro as yet, which has been opened recently.

40. It is becoming more and more difficult to get a good job without speaking a foreign language.

- A) Unless you speak a foreign language, it is getting increasingly hard to find a good job.
- B) It's impossible for anyone to find a good job without speaking a foreign language fluently.
- C) You could get a much better job than this if you spoke a foreign language.
- D) The best way to get a good job these days is to learn a foreign language.
- E) More and more businesses nowadays are seeking employees able to speak a foreign language.

EŞ ANLAM / TEST 3 (40 ADET SORU) CEVAP ANAHTARI

www.yesdil.com

| | | | | | | | | | |
|-------|-------|-------|-------|-------|-------|-------|-------|-------|-------|
| 1. C | 2. C | 3. D | 4. E | 5. B | 6. D | 7. C | 8. A | 9. B | 10. D |
| 11. E | 12. E | 13. A | 14. D | 15. C | 16. B | 17. A | 18. C | 19. D | 20. C |
| 21. C | 22. B | 23. A | 24. C | 25. D | 26. B | 27. D | 28. C | 29. B | 30. A |
| 31. B | 32. C | 33. A | 34. E | 35. C | 36. D | 37. E | 38. C | 39. C | 40. A |

Başarmak için YESDİL!